NIHILIST A LUNATIC.

Becker, the Blackmailer Who Threatened Death by Slow Poison, Held for Trial.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—That there has existed a Nihilist conspiracy to blackmail men of wealth, threatening them with death by slow poison, is not accepted by the police. Evidence was found today that no more than two men were concerned in the writing of the threatening letters.

William Becker, who was arrested at the postoffice when he called for letters, is known to have written all of the letters, which have been turned over to the police. If he had an accomplice, it was a chum of his. Becker is regarded as more insane than criminal.

He was held today in $1,000 on the charge of attempting to blackmail.

Coming Too Far Again.

LANDSLIDE DUE TO BRYAN'S PLEA

Circulated Broadcast a Letter Asking for the Defeat of His Party.

RESULT IN INDIANA

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Indianapolis, Nov. 14.—"We are indebted to William J. Bryan and the loyalty of his followers in Indiana more than to any other influence for the great increase in our plurality in this state at the recent election," was the rather startling statement of a prominent Republican this evening. He followed up the statement with evidence that he knew whereof he spoke.

"With the average stump for an off-year, the Republican plurality in this state would have been in the neighborhood of 20,000," he said. "Instead, it was in excess of 35,000. These 15,000 extra votes came from the free silver Democrats, because Mr. Bryan early in the campaign sent between 10,000 and 15,000 personal letters over his own signature—not circulars—to his followers in Indiana, urging them to do all in their power to insure the defeat of the Democratic ticket, state, county and township.

"To obey this command there was but one course for them to pursue, and that was to vote the Republican ticket, and they did it. We know that they did it.

"In this letter, Mr. Bryan pointed out that the reorganizing element in the Democratic party had usurped control in this state and had manipulated things in the state convention in such a manner as to stifle the majority of the delegates and nominated a ticket of their own followers. He said the future of Democracy rested with the old-time element of the party, the men who had stood loyally by the national ticket in 1896 and 1900, and that the reorganizers were really as antagonistic to true Democratic principles as were the Republicans.

"He argued that the reorganizers should be administered a stinging rebuke, a defeat that would convince them once and for all that men who turn political somersaults every two years can not control the Democratic party in Indiana or in the country at large.

"Closely following this letter, some 10,000 pamphlets containing a copy of the letter and further arguments along the same lines were sent out from Indianapolis to the free silverites of the state. The pamphlet was so prepared that its source could not be discovered. It may have come from a committee of Bryanites, and it may have come from the Republican leaders. It is sufficient to state that the Republicans knew of the Bryan letters and that they made the most of them.

"As a result, the Bryanites and the reorganizers are further apart than ever. I believe the reorganizers have sufficient strength to maintain control of the party organization, both state and national, and that Bryan will not submit tamely to their policies. He will rally his adherents around him in a new party, and while he may not be the presidential nominee, he will, at least, dictate the choice."

HILL A POSSIBILITY.

Opinion of Cleveland, So Far as Nomination Is Concerned.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Ex-President Cleveland arrived here this morning en route to Back Bay, where he will spend several days duck shooting.

He said David Bennett Hill is a possibility for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, but asked to be excused from expressing an opinion as to the chances of the party.

SAGASTA FORMS SPANISH CABINET

MADRID, Nov. 14.—Sagasta has formed a cabinet, as follows: Duke of Almodovar, foreign minister; Pulgcerver, minister of justice; Equilior, minister of finance; Moret, minister of the interior; Gen. Wyler, war minister; duke of Veragua, minister of marine; Count Romanones, minister of public instruction; Salvador, minister of public works.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE BY M'ALEESE'S PETS

Two Members of "The Beauty and the Beast" Company Victims of Stupidity.

Amid the indignant protests of almost 200 persons who knew them, Charles Hessrong and Catherine Low were shamefully abused, arrested, and dragged to a patrol box by two policemen and hauled to Central station last night for no cause.

Both Hessrong and Miss Low are members of "The Beauty and the Beast" company, playing at the Alvin. After the show was over Hessrong waited at the stage entrance for his wife.

Hessrong and Miss Low were talking to each other when Officer Samuel Srolovitz made his appearance.

"What are you doing here?" inquired the officer.

"Waiting on my wife," replied the actor.

"You are a liar," said the officer, "get out of here."

"I am waiting on my wife, I tell you," said Hessrong.

With this the officer placed him under arrest. Catherine Low told the officer that Hessrong was one of the company and was telling the truth.

While the two victims were being dragged to a patrol box by Srolovitz and another officer, the members of the company kept coming out, and in spite of the fact that almost 200 of them told the policemen they were wrong, the man and woman were roughly thrown into a patrol wagon and taken to Central station, where they were forced to put up a forfeit for a hearing this morning. Miss Low is charged with interfering with an officer, because she identified Hessrong.

MORGAN SUFFERING ATTACK OF LUMBAGO

Confined to His Home With Malady That Is More Painful Than Dangerous.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

J. Pierpont Morgan has lumbago. He did not go to his office today, and anxious inquiries were made at intervals all day as to his condition.

Lumbago is not a dangerous ailment, but it is an exceedingly painful one, so that Mr. Morgan was not disposed to go all the way downtown and busy himself with the numberless details that come to his personal attention when he is in his office.

Telephone messages from prominent men in the financial world were frequent at his house, as well as at the banking house of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. All were answered in the same way, that Mr. Morgan might be down town tomorrow. It is not likely, however, that he will be in his office before Monday at the earliest.

EVANS DECISION EXPECTED.

Ohio Court May Rule Against Governor's Requisition.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—It is expected that Judge Ewing will render a decision in the John M. Evans habeas corpus case tomorrow to the effect that Evans is not a fugitive from justice and that the governor's papers are not sufficient to have him taken into Pennsylvania, where he is wanted on the charge of the grand larceny of $43,000 in connection with the business of the Keystone Gold & Copper Mining Company of Arizona. A motion was made by the Pittsburgh people to dismiss the writ of habeas corpus, but this motion also will probably be overruled. The prosecution is preparing papers to appeal the case.

Kaiser Hears Henry Irving.

SANDRINGHAM, ENG., Nov. 14.—The theatrical performance given tonight at Sandringham house was the crowning event of the German emperor's visit. Sir Henry Irving and his company made a record journey from Belfast, Ireland. Arthur Bourchier, with his company, made a journey under similar conditions from London. A number of royal carriages were sent to meet the actors at the railway station.

MARTINIQUE NOT MORE BADLY OFF

Volcano Destruction of Her Great Coffee Crop Beggars Guatemala.

DUST BURIES TREES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Gutemala City, Nov. 9, via San Salvador, Nov. 14.—Astonishing revelations of great loss of life and property caused by the eruption of Santa Maria volcano are being made daily. Many hundreds of lives perished and the destruction of property is considered greater than that in Martinique by the eruptions of Mont Pelee.

All of the estates in the neighborhood of the volcano are buried under volcanic ashes, which reach to the tops of houses.

The richest coffee districts are completely ruined. Many trees cannot now be seen, as they are buried under ashes, and those that are not concealed by ashes have been burned. The principal losers are the large coffee planters, mostly United States citizens and Germans, whose properties are ruined.

Two or three new craters have been formed on the side of the volcano. There were no eruptions from the summit. Pumice and ashes were carried chiefly in the southern and western directions.

The sea has a coating of volcanic material extending for many miles. Passing vessels have become enveloped in such darkness that they have been compelled to change their course to the high sea to be safe.

Eruptions of the Santa Maria continue. The loss of the coffee crop, which is Guatemala's principal export, has completely demoralized commerce and the government finances generally. The national paper currency, which is the only circulating medium, has fallen to 7 cents for one gold dollar. Prices for all necessaries and such articles as are considered as making the home comfortable have risen to a prohibitive figure for many persons. Great anxiety exists over the situation. The distress is terrible at present.

The authorities are trying to force dealers to sell goods at the usual prices, but the condition of affairs is such that business is entirely paralyzed.

Violently-worded handbills and posters are being circulated. These increase the alarm and arouse the rabble.

SAYS W. C. T. U. ASKED MONEY OF A BREWER

Wheeling Preacher Makes Accusation Against Temperance Workers.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WHEELING, W. VA., Nov. 14.—Because some members who are unknown thus far sought donations of money from Col. Henry Schmulbach, the millionaire brewer of Wheeling, candidate for the United States senate, the local chapter of the Woman's Christian Temperance union is rent and torn. Such a furor has never been known in the ranks.

The trouble was caused by a statement made by the Rev. J. S. Robinson, pastor of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, that members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union had sought an introduction through him to Col. Schmulbach with the purpose of soliciting a contribution.

Six months ago the Woman's Christian Temperance union censured the Rev. Mr. Robinson because he accepted $500 from Col. Schmulbach for a new church. The protest was carried as far as the bishopric, but the pastor refused to return the money. It was in a mild sort of retaliation that he divulged the story of being asked to present Woman's Christian Temperance union members to the brewer. The Wheeling local has officially denied the story, but Mr. Robinson says it is true.

BEAR IS TIED UP FOR PRESIDENT

He Declines to Take the Royal Road to Capture Hunting Trophy.

ON ANOTHER TRAIL

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Smedes, Miss., Nov. 14.—A lean black bear, which weighs 235 pounds, is hanging up at the president's camp on the Little Sunflower, but the first trophy of the hunt did not fall to the president's Winchester.

The bear's trail was struck by the hounds soon after the party started this morning. As soon as the dogs gave tongue the president and his guides plunged through the dense underbrush in pursuit. Within a few minutes the dogs showed the direction the quarry was taking, and Holt Collier, with the instinct of an old bear hunter, immediately made up his mind where the animal would come out. He directed Mr. Foote to take the president along the trail to a certain cutoff. This was done and the president and Mr. Foote rode to the assigned station.

President Leaves Too Soon.

On their way several swamp deer were jumped up, but no effort was made to get a shot at them. Then for several hours the president and Mr. Foote waited. The trail of the bear carried the yelping hounds out of hearing and shortly after noon, Mr. Foote abandoned hope that the quarry would come back their way and he and the president returned to camp for lunch.

Had they remained, the president would have had a shot, as the bear with the pack at its heels crossed at almost the exact spot which Holt had indicated.

About a mile beyond this point bruin, exhausted by his long race, ran into a water hole and turned upon the dogs. They were all over him in an instant. The bear was too exhausted to make much of a fight, but he grabbed one of the hounds by the neck and crushed it through its spine, killing it instantly.

Tied Up Like Dog.

As the bear was making a swipe with its paw at another dog, Holt Collier jumped from his horse and knocked the game over with a blow on the head with his rifle. A messenger was at once sent for the president.

Meantime Holt roped the bear and tied him to a tree. When the president arrived he would neither shoot it nor permit it to be shot.

"Put it out of its misery," said he to Mr. Parker, and the latter ended its life with his knife.

On the way back to camp with the dead bear, the dogs struck a fresh trail and the president, Mr. Foote, Mr. Mangum, Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. Lung followed it.

At dark, when the correspondent left camp, there was no sign of the president, and some anxiety was manifested lest in his enthusiasm the president would get too far away and be forced to sleep on the trail.

DAY IS MAINLY GIVEN OVER TO RESOLUTIONS

Eighty-seven Are Offered for Consideration of Federation of Labor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Reports of committees and the introduction of resolutions occupied all the sessions of the convention of the American Federation of Labor today. A prolonged dispute over a portion of the report of the committee on credentials occupied a greater part of the morning, and a general discussion of the report of the committee on rules took up the afternoon session, except what was given over to the reception of resolutions introduced by various delegates. No action was taken on any of the resolutions. They were received and referred to the various committees whose reports upon them will be submitted later to the convention.

Eighty-seven resolutions were submitted. Many of them related to minor points of organization. Others favor pensions for aged laboring men; return by government of Porto Ricans taken to Hawaiian sugar plantations; removal of federation headquarters to Denver; revoking of United Brewery Workers' charter; unionizing of national bureau of printing and engraving; aiding of letter carriers in securing advance in pay; protest against the ship subsidy bill; against the building of an isthmian canal; against harsh treatment of organizers in Porto Rico under old Spanish law; and favor erection of building to be devoted to labor in every town of 15,000 or more inhabitants.

The committee on credentials reported that the protest against the seating of the delegates of the United Brewery Workers was not sustained, and that they should be allowed to act; also that the dispute over the seating of Delegate Cole of the sheet metal workers had been compromised, and that the contestant and Delegate Cole would each have half a vote. Both portions of the report were adopted.

NO SECOND STRIKE.

Mitchell Says Miners Will Accept Award of the Commission.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—The World says this morning: There was an unverified report yesterday that the anthracite miners, dissatisfied with their treatment by the operators, might go on strike again. The World telegraphed to John Mitchell asking if there was any truth in the rumor, and received this reply:

"Have no doubt both sides will accept award of commission. At least, I know the miners will."

LOUBET MAY VISIT THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—A special cable from Paris to the American says: It is semi-officially announced today that it is not improbable that President Loubet will make an official visit to the St. Louis exhibition in 1904. If the proposed plans are carried out, he will travel on a French warship to New Orleans, thence journeying up the Mississippi to St. Louis, where he will meet the president of the United States. His return trip will be by way of New York.

GREAT GUNS OF FINANCE FALLING OUT

A Possible Explanation of the Queer Doings in Wall Street.

J. P. MORGAN AND KEENE QUARREL

The Wily Broker Seems to Have Turned Bear in Earnest for Revenge.

ALL STARTED BY GATES

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

The gossip from inner financial circles treats of a tremendous row that has been kicked up among some of the big men of the street, which may in part account for the continued heavy liquidation in the stock market.

The story goes back to the return of Morgan and Keene from their European outing. Keene went for his health and Morgan to combine business with pleasure. Keene, as all the world knows, was Morgan's captain of hosts in the stock market. He was expected to keep the market on an even keel, to prevent the bears from getting on top, but at the same time prevent the bulls from rocking the boat in the exuberance of their spirits.

Keene is supposed to have relinquished the helm of J. Talbot Taylor, his relative and the head of the brokerage house through which he turned the golden grist of orders that came from the great syndicates.

Taylor, as the story goes, obtained a large following among the professional operators and started several bull campaigns on his own account. He was so successful that he tried his hand on Southern Pacific, and his firm published a beautiful book all about the possibilities of this stock. The latter boomed into the 80s. Everybody supposed that, owing to the affiliation of the firm, all the big guns were back of the deal.

Too Fast for Morgan's Liking.

About this time John W. Gates came home from Europe. He found the temper of the public suited to a bull campaign, and he and his cohorts began to whoop the market up to the highest prices of the year. Then Morgan came home, and found that the wicked speculators, through engineering a bull campaign out of season, had tied the money market into a tight knot. Such a condition of affairs interfered with some of his plans, matured abroad, which required a reasonably easy money market.

He called Keene into the box, and it is said read the riot act to him for being so careless as to let the market get beyond control and absorb the money needed elsewhere. Keene was feeling independent, and talked back. The result was that Morgan figuratively relieved him of his shoulder straps. Keene then relieved himself by having a few words with his relative, and the result is that now they do not speak as they pass by.

Keene then looked around for a new broker and selected the one who in years past executed his orders with such crowning success. On Thursday afternoon he is said to have given this broker selling orders aggregating 50,000 shares, which he was instructed to jam upon the market. From his close affiliations during the last two years he is supposed to know exactly where the most vulnerable spots are located.

The Keene Style of Campaign.

Today's market had all the earmarks of an old-time Keene campaign. It was weak to demoralization at times, and the best of stocks in popular estimation were the ones which suffered the most. This is entirely in line with Keene tactics—to select the high-grade securities for attack in order to produce the impression that something is seriously wrong.

The stories of a falling out of the giants is not confined to those mentioned. There are others, involving members of the western clique. They may not be all true, but in analyzing some of the movements in the market today it looked as though every man's hand was against his brother speculator.

The bear party has been without a leader since the famous Northern Pacific squeeze. Today they are claiming that Keene is one of them, and they welcome him back to the old position as leader. He is a wily old campaigner, however, and can turn in the twinkling of an eye when he finds that he has too much company on his side, and he squeezes the shorts as mercilessly as he hammers the longs.

THIRD SUIT ENTERED.

Western Union Now Asks for an Injunction Against the Erie & Pittsburgh Road.

The third of a series of suits brought by the Western Union Telegraph Company against the Pennsylvania company, to restrain the latter by injunction from removing any poles, wires or fixtures of the plaintiff corporation from land owned by the railroad company, will be entered next Thursday in the United States court.

In this last suit the Erie & Pittsburgh road is named as the defendant, the previous suits being filed against the Cleveland & Pittsburgh and the Ft. Wayne roads.

Attorney A. M. Neeper, representing the Wabash in Pittsburgh, will make the fight for the Western Union, and George V. Massey, general solicitor for the Pennsylvania, will handle the defense for that company. This move broadens the big legal battle between the Gould-Wabash interests and the Pennsylvania-Cassatt corporations.

The Western Union claims, under old post road rights, or general grants, given years ago, that it cannot be legally restricted from occupying the ground along the tracks of the Pennsylvania. These rights, the telegraph company maintains, are equally as important as the eminent domain rights of the railroad company.

THE KAISER INHERITS A CITIZEN'S FORTUNE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—A special cable from Berlin to the Sun says: Emperor William has inherited about 2,000,000 marks in estates and cash from a private citizen of Dresden.

BIG FUND FOR MASONS' TEMPLE

Scottish Rite Consistory Alone Expect to Raise $500,000.

COMMITTEE IS BUSY

Pittsburgh's new Masonic temple is assured. In the last three days subscriptions have been made for $60,000 toward the fund, and $500,000 is expected to be subscribed by the Scottish Rite Masons alone. The project was launched at Tuesday's meeting of the Pittsburgh Consistory's golden reunion, and is being given an enthusiastic boom.

The site for the new temple has not been decided upon. It is reported that a desirable piece of property in Forbes street, opposite the Oakland police station, has been optioned at $210,000, but as the matter of a site has not taken tangible shape the present work of the fraternity will be devoted to raising a fund sufficient to erect one of the finest buildings in Pittsburgh.

A committee of 15 to secure subscriptions was appointed at Tuesday's session of the Scottish Rite Masons in Duquesne garden. James I. Buchanan, chairman of the executive committee, is in charge of the fund. Among the other members are John B. Barbour, Harry Williams, W. M. Hamilton, A. F. Eckert and W. S. Brown. Each member has taken a subscription paper and will prosecute the work with vigor.

"The Scottish Rite Masons will respond handsomely," said George W. Wilson last night. "We have over 2,300 members in the Pittsburgh consistory, and it is safe to say that each member will give $200. Others will donate much more, and the fund will have close to $500,000 when these subscription papers are called in. This will not be for any great length of time. We are in earnest, and the wonderful enthusiasm was shown in the meeting Tuesday when the matter was first broached. Papers were started on the spot and $60,000 is now subscribed.

"The site has not been definitely decided upon, but a sub-committee will have that detail in charge, and when it gets down to work it will give as good account of itself as the solicitors of subscriptions."

Another member stated that the building would be provided with a large room, to be used as an auditorium and ballroom for social functions. It will be a model of architectural beauty and its cost will exceed $1,000,000. The Fifth avenue building owned by the Masonic Fund society is said to be inadequate to meet the requirements, since the wonderful growth of the Masonic fraternity in this city, and it is argued that the property is considered too valuable to keep for that purpose, when it could be disposed of and a new temple erected in a more convenient location and equipped with greater conveniences. At a meeting of the committee of fifteen, to be held within a few weeks, the question of site will be discussed.

OFFICIAL VOTE FILED IN STATE DEPARTMENT

Figures Show That Pennypacker's Plurality Is 142,340.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, Nov. 14.—Complete official returns of the recent election show that Judge Pennypacker falls several thousand votes behind the vote of his associates on the Republican state ticket. Pennypacker's plurality is 142,340, while his majority over all the nominees for governor is 91,958.

The plurality of ex-Senator William M. Brown, for lieutenant governor is 181,244, and that of Maj. Isaac B. Brown, the nominee for secretary of internal affairs, is 204,237. Maj. Brown ran ahead of Pennypacker in every county in the state and also ahead of ex-Senator Brown in every county except Berks, the home of James Nolan, the Democratic candidate for secretary of internal affairs, where he fell 78 votes behind the next lieutenant governor.

The official returns show that the Socialist Labor party has far outstripped the Socialist party and polled almost as many votes as the Prohibition party. The vote of Dr. Swallow, the Prohibition candidate for governor, is a great disappointment to the "Fighting Parson" and his friends. They were confident it would exceed his vote of 325,000 for governor four years ago, but it is less than 24,000, and only a few votes ahead of his associates on the Prohibition ticket.

The official returns were tabulated today at the state department. The work was delayed by the failure of Allegheny and Philadelphia counties to send in their returns earlier. The vote for the various state candidates follows:

Governor—Pennypacker, 592,867; Pattison, 436,457; Swallow, Pro., 23,327; Adams, Socialist Labor, 5,157; Clayton, Socialist, 21,910; Pennypacker, Citizens, 450; Pattison, Anti-Machine, 9,549; Pattison, Ballot Reform, 4,971; scattering, 26. Pennypacker's plurality 142,340.

Lieutenant governor—Brown, Rep., 605,508; Guthrie, Dem., 419,985; Grumbine, Pro., 23,076; Munro, Socialist Labor, 4,766; Barnes, Socialist, 21,232; Brown, Citizens, 574; Guthrie, Anti-Machine, 8,923; Guthrie, Ballot Reform, 4,914; scattering, 5.

Secretary of internal affairs—Brown, Rep., 614,091; Nolan, Dem., 396,788; Marquis, Pro., 22,963; Feehan, Socialist Labor, 4,592; Gould, Socialist, 20,644; Brown, Citizens, 469; Nolan, Anti-Machine, 8,681; Nolan, Ballot Reform, 4,754.

BUTLER CONVICTED OF OFFERING BRIBE

COLUMBIA, MO., Nov. 14.—Col. Edward Butler, the millionaire Democratic politician of St. Louis, was today found guilty of attempting to bribe Dr. Chapman of the St. Louis board of health, in order to influence his vote on the indorsement of a garbage contract with the city. The jury fixed the punishment at three years in the penitentiary. The verdict was reached on the first ballot. An appeal was filed, Col. Butler gave $10,000 bond and was released.

Accused of Blackmail.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Dr. Benjamin T. Whitmore, head of the scientific department of a large drug firm, and Henry C. Wilson, an army engineer, were arrested tonight on a charge of blackmailing the Waterfront Improvement Company of Jersey City to the amount of $4,500. They were held with marked bills.

VACANT CHAIRS EXPECTED IN HIGHER COURT

Stone Hopes to Find New Places for Friends by Doctors.

BUSY ENDING OF GOVERNOR'S TERM

Superior Justices Porter and Orlady to Succeed McCollum and Dean.

A FEW OTHER VACANCIES

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Public Ledger Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 14.

It is reported that Gov. Stone will broaden his field of medical inquiry to make room on the bench for his personal friends.

That the governor will make two vacancies in the roster of the supreme court is a rumor in lively circulation. Those likely to be retired, in case the physicians establish a reasonable doubt as to their physical competency, are Chief Justice McCollum and Justice Dean. McCollum is a Democrat, Dean a Republican. Both justices, it is reported, have been in ill health for some time, and the governor, in his desire for a strong and healthy judiciary, has, it is said, found two jurists who can easily meet the physical requirements.

Chief Justice McCollum's term will not expire until January 1, 1910; Justice Dean's term expires January 1, 1914.

Speculation about their successors has thus far been confined to two men—Superior Court Justices W. D. Porter and George B. Orlady. Both enjoy the confidence and friendship of the governor. Justice Porter is from Allegheny. His friends urged his appointment to the supreme court when W. P. Potter, the governor's law partner, was named as the successor of Justice Greene.

Justice Orlady is from Huntingdon. His relations with Gov. Stone and Attorney General Elkin are most cordial, and it is said Porter's and Orlady's backers have pooled issues. Gen. Elkin has had several recent conferences in this city with these two superior court justices. Some believe Gen. Elkin represented the governor in the effort to diagnose properly the state of health of the higher court.

Several names for the prospective superior court vacancies are mentioned. It is conceded that two vacancies are assured, that Justices Peter P. Smith, Democrat, and John I. Mitchell, now under investigation by gubernatorial commissions, will retire. Should Porter and Orlady go higher, there will be four. For these prospective places, Deputy Attorney General Fred W. Fleitz of Scranton, Judge A. V. Barker and Robert Murphy of Cambria and Judge Walling of Erie have been suggested. Others, it is said, have registered at the executive department, but the governor has not given out the names.

Gov. Stone, I am informed, will occupy himself busily until his term expires in establishing healthy conditions in his official family.

ROBBERS RAID TOWN AND ONE IS SHOT DEAD

One Other Thief and Marshal of Elyria, Ohio, Are Wounded.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ELYRIA, O., Nov. 14.—Marshal Henry Krohm was seriously shot and an unknown burglar had his head blown off in a battle here today. The shooting occurred during a fight with four robbers who terrorized the town.

The burglars entered the home of Town Marshal Krohm, who opened fire on them. When he had shot three times, one of the robbers, who had jumped into a buggy, got out and began blazing away at the marshal. The latter fell with a bullet through his hips. J. E. Baird picked up the officer's gun and continued the firing. The robbers, however, drove rapidly away.

Baird followed them to the home of Supt. W. J. Hillier of the Cleveland, Elyria & Western railway. They walked into the Hillier home, after smashing in the door. A burglar cautiously opened the door and Hillier blew his head off with a shotgun. The other robbers turned and fired, but Hillier discharged the second barrel. One robber yelled and tottered, but disappeared. A posse was at once formed and is pursuing the robbers.

Marshal Krohm is seriously and perhaps fatally wounded. It is not known how badly the other robber is hurt. The dead robber's linen is marked "Davis." He had in his pocket a mileage book sold at Oil City, Pa., to "Mr. Davis."

OIL CITY, PA., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The description wired here tonight of "Davis," who was killed at Elyria, tallies closely with that of a young man, who, accompanied by his mother left this city last spring. He was employed at the Oil City plant of the National Tube Company.

BOLDLY DEFIES MORGAN.

Samuel W. Allerton Prevents Consolidation of Chicago Traction Railways.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The limit of J. P. Morgan's power in the financial world is to be defined for the first time by the result of his present and so far futile attempt to gain control of the Chicago City Railway Company.

Mr. Morgan's recent visit to Chicago was to effect the consolidation of the Chicago City Railway and the Union Traction companies. Samuel W. Allerton, one of the heaviest stockholders on the Chicago City Railway, has defied Morgan, and by telling the 800 stockholders of the company that Mr. Morgan was acting in the interest of a company "now overburdened with watered securities," he has so far prevented the combine. Mr. Morgan left Chicago discouraged.

BRILLIANT END OF THE JUBILEE

Duquesne Garden the Scene of a Most Magnificent Entertainment.

SCOTTISH RITE FUNCTION

Over 4,000 Guests Given Evening of Rare Pleasure—Wonderful Floral Decorations—Ball Followed Entertainers' Program.

An assemblage unprecedented in brilliancy thronged Duquesne garden to participate in the closing of the golden reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons.

Over 4,000 persons filled the auditorium during the musical entertainment, and half as many swept the length of the ball room in the mazes of the waltz. The Scottish Riters eclipsed their best efforts, and the fascination of the ball and the promenade caused many hundreds to linger until the early hours of the morning.

Viewed from the proscenium, the vast audience presented a scene never to be forgotten. The multiplicity of color in the gowns of the women, surrounded by tropical plants and showers of cut flowers, gave the whole the appearance of a huge bouquet in which each blossom seemed to radiate its beauty.

The Guests of Honor.

The boxes were occupied by the officers of the consistory and their families, with the guests of honor, all of whom were thirty-third degree Masons. The Nestor of the out-of-town visitors was Frederick Webber of Washington, D. C., distinguished as the oldest living thirty-third degree man. Robert A. Sherrets, deputy of the supreme council for New Jersey; D. Burnham Tracy of Detroit, oldest member of the northern supreme council and a prominent leader in Scottish Rite Masonry; the Hon. D. B. Babcock, ex-mayor of Cleveland and deputy of the supreme council of Ohio; Amos Pettibone, deputy for Illinois; Judge Charles W. Carter, deputy for Connecticut; Judge John M. Stull of Warren, O.; Thomas M. Darrah of Wheeling; the Hon. W. B. Mellish of Cincinnati, commander-in-chief of the consistory of Southwestern Ohio; Joseph Mayworm of Detroit; James Finlater of Detroit; Thomas Lees of Hamilton, Canada, and David A. Svadley of Erie, Pa., were among those entertained. A conspicuous figure was Dr. Walter A. Stevens of Chicago, one of the old members of the supreme council, and one of the seven surviving members who attended the famous meeting of the supreme council held in Boston in 1867.

The musical entertainment provided by the best professionals in the country held the attention and admiration of the audience. The program included monologue entertainers, soloists and comedians whose work on the stage is familiar to theater-goers. Between the acts Lee S. Smith told a few funny stories and explained some of the objects of Masonry.

Scene Was Fairy-Like.

Like a fairy garden, resplendent in the glow of a myriad of stars, was the scene in the great hall. Under the masses of waving foliage were gathered hundreds of representatives of the beauty of Pittsburgh, radiant in the sparkle of precious gems and the gorgeousness of exquisite gowns. No assemblage in Pittsburgh's history equaled the magnificence of the floral decorations or the wonderful array of splendid costumes.

Golden chrysanthemums, symbolical of the golden jubilee, were used in the dominating color scheme, and everywhere throughout the building the blossoms bowed majestically from artistic vases or giant urns that rested above mounds of palms. Three thousand blooms were used and they greeted the visitor on every hand.

The decorations were arranged by Mrs. E. A. Williams and were planned on a scale of magnificence never before attempted in this city. Fifteen wagon loads of palms and a carload of southern smilax were necessary to cover the walls and ceilings, and form the mounds erected in the foyer.

When the carriages reached the Craig street entrance a broad arch entwined with southern smilax and laurel formed a canopy to protect the guests. On either hand giant palms concealed the walls and the view into the interior was like peeping into the deep recesses of a tropical forest.

Garden Transformed Into Lovely Forest.

The ceiling of the garden was covered with smilax and laurel entwined, to give the appearance of the lofty branches of a forest. Thousands of incandescent electric lights shone through the verdure—the half concealed lamps sparkling like jeweled stars on a summer night. The side walls were covered with foliage and it seemed to the charmed audience that they were assembled in the midst of a grove where endless reaches of forest closed on every hand.

Back of the rows of opera chairs Toerge's orchestra was mounted on a pavilion and discoursed popular music during the intermission and between the numbers on the stage program. About the pavilion were luxurious couches, divans and easy chairs, offering inviting seclusion under bowers of palms and smilax.

At six long tables draped in white and presided over by a corps of attentive servants, refreshments were served with generous bounty. On each table stood great punch bowls filled with rich lemonade and St. Julien punch. The buffet was stocked with every dainty that an epicure could desire. Wafers and jumbles in elegant flavors, candied fruit, olives, almonds, pecans and other triumphs of the confectioner's art were dispensed with a liberal hand. Here, too, the finest of perfectos and other luxuries of the soothing weed were provided.

Concert Followed by a Ball.

It was after 8 o'clock when the overture signaled the opening of the entertainment. The guests who at this time were gathered in the promenade, in the foyer or about the buffet counters, at the sound of the music quickly filled the opera chairs and the boxes.

It was 11 o'clock when Toerge's orchestra forsook the pavilion in the hall and opened with a fanfare the grand march in the ballroom on the second floor. Scores in the audience followed to participate in the waltz. Hundreds who did not attend the musical entertainment arrived shortly before midnight and went direct to the ballroom.

The decorations in the ballroom were in harmony with those of the main hall, except that pale green curtains and walls of buff contrasted with the festoons of palms and smilax. Cornucopias and hanging baskets of vermilion were suspended from the ceiling of green foliage.

The souvenir program was a work of the printer's and engraver's finest handiwork. It was bound in a scroll with purple ribbon. A sheet of rare parchment stamped with the insigna of the order covered the title page. The other sheets were printed from engraved plates and were embossed with raised scroll work of chaste design.

The closing session of the jubilee reunion was devoted to the conferring of the thirtieth, the thirty-first and thirty-second degrees. W. J. Diehl was chairman of the reception committee for the day.

DESPERATE BATTLE ON ROOF OF HOUSE

Constable Fahrs Forced to Shoot Italian, Who Fought With Ax and Bricks.

It was only after a battle on the housetop, with a revolver and an ax as weapons, that Constable John Fahrs of Sunnyside lodged Totie Faritle in the Allegheny county jail yesterday morning on a charge of assault and battery. Faritle was wounded in the right leg and was removed to the hospital ward of the jail, where the bullet was removed by Dr. Chesrown.

Faritle has had a grievance against his wife and beat her frequently. Wednesday night she went to Justice Dunn and made information. Constable Fahrs went to place the Italian under arrest, but found he had left the house. Thursday the constable went again. Faritle had armed himself with a revolver and barricaded the doors.

The constable was compelled to sit up all Thursday night and wait his chance. At daybreak he slipped into the house through a rear window and waited until Faritle came downstairs.

About 7 o'clock the Italian descended and Constable Fahrs went after him. The Italian rushed upstairs again and climbed out on the roof. In his flight he lost his revolver, but carried an ax.

Constable Fahrs held him at bay with the revolver, while he got on the roof. The Italian refused to put down his ax. He pulled some bricks out of a broken chimney and threw them at the constable.

Constable Fahrs did not wish to shoot the Italian and tried to overcome him by physical force. The Italian continued to swing the ax about him when the constable approached him, and kept up a shower of bricks until finally Fahrs shot him in the right leg, below the knee. The bullet brought the Italian to his knees and he dropped the ax.

Constable Fahrs dragged him from the roof and through the house. He was placed in a carriage and brought to the jail.

COMPOSER MASCAGNI SEES THE AMBASSADOR

He Departs Well Pleased. The Envoy Will Investigate a Legal Question.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Mascagni had a long conference with Signor des Planches this afternoon and seemed much pleased afterward, although neither he nor the ambassador would talk of it. Whether his native government will take definite action in regard to Mascagni's troubles is yet to be determined.

Mascagni's request for his government's interference is based on his arrest at the instigation of Joseph Smith, who is now touring America with Duse. According to Samuel Kronberg, Mascagni's present manager, Smith has for the past seven years resided in Florence, Italy, and under the laws of the country five years' residence constitutes citizenship. The contract signed by the Mittenthal Brothers in Italy was also signed by Joseph Smith, and, as the document states, all troubles arising over the contract are to be settled in Italian courts.

It is the intention of the ambassador to investigate the case carefully and determine if the facts warrant or permit action by the Italian government. If not, there will remain no alternative but to allow the case to take its course in the Massachusetts courts.

NEW LIFE FOR THE OLD ROSEDALE FOUNDRY

The Rosedale Foundry and Machine Company of Allegheny, a consolidation of the Rosedale foundry, one of the oldest of the two cities, and the Specialty Manufacturing Company of Allegheny, has completed plans for a new modern plant at the site of the Rosedale foundry, Washington and Preble avenues. This will materially enlarge the operations of the combined interests as founders and makers of machinery of all kinds, including such as is used in blast furnaces and rolling mill plants.

The new plant will consist of a foundry and machine shop of steel construction, 433x90 feet, and a power plant, 60x52 feet. All will be equipped with modern facilities and the works will employ 200 men. With the new machine shop completed, the works of the Specialty Manufacturing Company in Frazier street, Allegheny, will be abandoned. The improvements to be made will aggregate $150,000.

Application was made yesterday to the Allegheny bureau of building inspection for a permit for the foundry and machine shop building, to cost $45,000. The Riter-Conley Manufacturing Company will erect the buildings.

The consolidation of the two interests was effected in August, with capitalization of $200,000. The officers are: J. H. White, president; H. L. Irwin, son of the founder of the Rosedale foundry, treasurer, and William H. Hamilton, secretary.

Officer's Shot Caused Death.

BUTLER, PA., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—John Miller, who was fatally shot while resisting arrest by Officer James McGrady of this place on Wednesday night, died at the hospital last night. Miller's mother and sisters live in Cincinnati. He made a statement of the affair to the coroner, in which he exonerated Officer McGrady.

THE MINERS' SIDE IS PRESENTED

President Mitchell on Stand Whole Day Before Arbitration Commission.

JUDGE GRAY PRESIDES

Strike Leader Says $1,500,000 Was Raised to Pay Expenses of Men During Contest—Bituminous and Anthracite Wages.

JOHN MITCHELL.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 14.—The anthracite coal strike commission today began the hearing of testimony by which it will determine whether or not the workmen are receiving fair and just wages and whether their conditions should be improved. The star witness for the miners, President Mitchell, took the stand in the forenoon, and when the commission adjourned at 4 p. m. he was still under the fire of cross-examination by David Wilcox, general counsel of the Delaware & Hudson company. It was a trying day for the miners' leader, but he seemed to stand the test well. The heaviest fire of cross-questions was aimed at him late in the afternoon session.

The sessions are being held in the Pennsylvania superior court room. Ranged around three tables in front of the seven commissioners who occupied the judges' bench were 30 lawyers, 24 of whom were looking after the interests of the mine owners.

Judge Gray Presides.

Judge Gray, as chairman of the commission, was spokesman for the commission. He at times asked questions and at the very close of the afternoon session directed a query at Mr. Mitchell which Mr. Wilcox had been leading up to for some time. The chairman asked Mr. Mitchell whether his organization approved the act of withdrawing from or denying the necessaries of life to those who had offended the organization, by boycott.

"I should say emphatically no," he replied.

It was apparently Mr. Wilcox's object to prove by Mr. Mitchell's own testimony that the miners" union was an irresponsible organization and that trade agreement, therefore, could not be safely entered into.

During the hearing the statement was brought out for the first time that the union had disbursed $1,500,000 among the union and non-union men on strike.

Mitchell on the Stand.

Mr. Mitchell, before taking the witness stand in the forenoon, presented the miners' side of the case in a 6,000 word statement, in which he gave the same facts as heretofore printed, adding that the risk of mining is considered so hazardous that the 20 per cent increase in wages would scarcely pay for $1,000 life insurance.

When Mr. Mitchell took the stand he was questioned by Attorney C. S. Danon of Chicago, counsel for the miners.

Mr. Mitchell said that 51 per cent of all coal mined in the United States was mined in Pennsylvania, and that 90 per cent of the anthracite mine workers are members of the union.

Last year, he said, 513 men were killed in the mines and 1,200 injured.

Mr. Mitchell said wages in the bituminous fields are from 40 to 50 per cent higher in some classes of work and from 20 to 30 per cent in others than in the anthracite field.

He said the homes of the miners in the bituminous fields are, generally speaking, better than in the hard coal territory, especially the houses owned by the companies.

BOSTON BANK FAILURE IS NOT UNEXPECTED

Depositors Will Be Paid in Full and Stockholders Lose Little.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—The Central National bank did not open its doors today because of an order from the comptroller of the currency, who had placed National Bank Examiner W. E. Neal over it as temporary receiver. Impaired assets is given as the reason for the failure, and the bank is closed for good.

The incident did not produce any flurry in financial circles, as the closing of the bank through liquidation by the Eliot National bank was looked for. The incident which precipitated the failure was the rejection of a considerable portion of the Central bank's assets by President Burrage of the Eliot bank, who was scrutinizing them preparatory to taking the bank for liquidation.

Wednesday sales of the Central's stock dropped $15 from par and yesterday depositors withdrew something like $2,000,000. Later in the day the clearing house declined to aid the bank and certified checks on the bank were refused acceptance by other banks.

Many banks came to the relief of the Central's depositors, the National Shawmut offering to advance 50 per cent of their deposits. Director Moses W. Richardson of the bank tonight said that depositors probably would be paid in full, and, while the stockholders may be called upon for a quick assessment, in the end they will lose nothing.

The bank's capital was $500,000 and its deposits about $2,700,000. Both the city and state governments had deposits in the bank.

PITTSBURGH ELOPER SENT TO WORKHOUSE

Pleaded Guilty to Running Away With a Bartender's Wife.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 14.—Guiseppi Mortormo, the Pittsburgh barber who eloped to this city with Mrs. Philip Firsching, the wife of a Pittsburgh bartender, had no hesitation in pleading guilty to improper relations in Justice Webb's court this afternoon.

"I am living with the woman," he said. "I love her and all the world won't keep me from her side."

The sentence of the court was the limit of the law, $2,000 and costs and 90 days in the Cleveland workhouse. He will be there nearly a year.

Philip Firsching, his accuser and the husband of the woman with whom he eloped, was standing close to the door when he was led away to jail.

"I'll serve out my sentence, pay my fine and come back and live with her. Then I'll see you again," the Italian said, shaking his fist at Firsching.

Firsching followed the pair here a week ago. He located them and demanded his two children, one 6 years old and the other a girl of 7 months. The Italian readily consented to give up the older but refused to give up the girl.

Firsching was compelled to return to Pittsburgh with the one child. His friends urged him to come back and secure possession of the baby. The mother of the child did not appear in court, but says that she will keep the child, no matter what happens. Firsching will attempt to secure legal possession of the disputed baby.

NEW STEEL PLANT PUT IN OPERATION

Successful Test of Furnace of Jessup & Sons at Washington, Pa.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 14.—The big American plant of the William Jessup & Sons Steel Company of Sheffield, England, which has been in the course of construction for over a year, was put in operation last night for the first time. As a test of the big furnaces, about 3,600 pounds of crucible steel was made, and the test was declared to be a success. Sydney Jessup Robinson, vice president of the Jessup company cabled the home office in Sheffield: "First heat melted. Splendid."

There were here yesterday to see the plant start: Vice President Robinson, Treasurer James Jessup, W. F. Wagner, Manager Fisher, E. L. Hand of Philadelphia, one of the directors of the American company, and C. N. Brady of this place, also a director.

Vice President Robinson, after the test had been made, said: "I think the result is cause for much elation. We expected some difficulty, but there was none. The furnace department will continue from now on. We expect in a short time to have the plant in full operation."

ARSENAL FOR HOSPITAL.

Attorney General Knox Will First Report Whether New State Law Would Keep It Out of City.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The Allegheny arsenal grounds, Pittsburgh, may be selected as the site for the marine hospital, if Attorney General Knox reports that the recent act of the legislature cannot keep the government from erecting a hospital within the city limits of Pittsburgh. This was admitted by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor today to The Gazette correspondent, who intimated, further, that the treasury department might ask that the arsenal property be transferred from the war department to the treasury department.

This would give the government a fine piece of ground free of cost and enable the department to devote the entire appropriation of $125,000 to the hospital.

Meyersdale Hotel Burned.

MEYERSDALE, PA., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The Hotel Stein was burned this morning. The property was owned by John Stein and the hotel was conducted by Kyle & Co. The loss was about 30,000, almost covered by insurance. It will be rebuilt.

LOST HER OWN LIFE IN SAVING BABE'S

Mrs. Annie Velko Is Fatally Burned, While Extinguishing Child's Clothing.

Mrs. Annie Velko, aged 28, wife of John Velko, a mill worker, was fatally burned by the explosion of an oil lamp in the kitchen of her home at No. 1225 River avenue, Braddock, yesterday morning, and died before noon.

After preparing her husband's breakfast she attempted to carry a lighted lamp and her 10-months-old baby from the kitchen to a rear room. She stumbled and the lamp fell, smashing into pieces and scattering the oil over her clothing.

In an instant her dress was aflame, but heedless of her own burns, she ran to a bed in the room and threw a heavy comfort on the baby, extinguishing its burning clothing. Several boarders were attracted by her screams and hurried to her aid, but not until her entire body was burned and blistered. The baby was burned on the head and face, but the physicians think it will recover.

John Marramo of McKeesport, 17 years old, was electrocuted last night in McKeesport, by leaning against an iron post bearing electric light wires. He was an Italian laborer.

The coroner's jury yesterday in the inquest into the death of Michael Angelo Distano, who was kicked to death in a fight in his home in Canal street, Sharpsburg, on the night of October 26, brought a charge of murder against Antonio Rizzo. The latter is still at large.

Three Sentenced for Robbery.

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Thomas Shaw of Homestead and Samuel Russell of Charleroi were today convicted on a charge of highway robbery and each sentenced by Judge Taylor to the penitentiary for four years and six months. James Russell, who was also convicted on the same charge, was sentenced to the Huntingdon reformatory. The three men, it was charged, held up and robbed Isaac M. Brown, a prominent Donora man.

ALLEGHENY CITY IN SORE STRAITS

Comptroller Announces Treasury Will Be Exhausted at End of November.

A DEFICIT OF $250,000

Urgent Request Sent to Directors for Immediate Estimates of Appropriations for Next Year. Three Months Without Money.

For the first time in many years Allegheny is approaching a financial crisis, and the city officials of the North Side find themselves in a quandry which is the direct result of their own folly and extravagance. Comptroller Brown yesterday made the statement that the city had just enough money to meet its obligations for November and that for the remaining three months of the fiscal year the treasury would be empty.

It is estimated that the city will round up the year with a deficit of $250,000 and the controller has declared that after the funds in the treasury are exhausted that he will not issue warrants upon borrowed money.

So serious is the situation that Comptroller Brown has taken unusual steps. Yesterday he sent to the directors an urgent request that they furnish immediate estimates of the appropriations for the next year for their respective departments, with instructions that these estimates be prepared and submitted to the finance committee of councils at its next meeting.

Salary Grabbing the Cause.

The fiscal year of Allegheny ends a month later than that of Pittsburgh. Heretofore the estimates of the appropriations for the succeeding year were not prepared until January. Heretofore, also the city has always closed the year with a substantial surplus in the treasury.

The coming crisis is not of the making of the comptroller who predicted several months ago that it would be the inevitable consequence of raising salaries of city officers and employes by the wholesale without providing additional sources of revenue. Almost every clerk and official in the city hall, from the recorder's office down to janitor, and every policeman and fireman got an advance in wages.

This was not made at the beginning of the year, when the appropriations and receipts for the ensuing 12 months were computed, but after the appropriations had been fixed upon a basis that would leave the city with a balance at the end of the year. Every person who wanted an increase got it, and in some instances salaries were raised beyond what the applicant asked for.

Sounded a Warning.

The comptroller sounded a warning in time, but the reckless legislators threatended the comptroller if he put any obstacles in the way of salary grabbing. What the comptroller predicted has come to pass, and the recorder and his subordinates will be within a couple of weeks face to face with the problem of meeting a monthly expense of nearly $100,000 with an empty treasury.

As the comptroller has declared in advance that he would not permit borrowing, which he claims is illegal under the city charter, it is probable that the entire payroll of the city for the months of December, January and February will have to be provided out of the next year's appropriations, and to do this the appropriations for 1903 will have to be shaved down even lower than they were at the beginning of 1902. That this will entail a general revision of salaries seems certain.

THE WEATHER.

Fair and cooler weather is promised for Pittsburgh and vicinity by the Washington weather bureau. Contrary to the forecast of the previous night, the weather yesterday was bright and spring-like, although a trifle too warm for comfort. The maximum temperature at 2:30 p. m. yesterday was 72 and the minimum at 6 a. m. was 55. The weather reports for the past few years showed last night that the weather for this month has been 20 degrees warmer than normal.

ENTHUSIASTIC WAS THE WELCOME TO ORCHESTRA

Last Night's Concert Was Distinguished by the Appearance of Gabrilowitsch.

An enthusiastic audience, even exceeding in numbers the one which heard the opening concert, greeted the Pittsburgh orchestra's second appearance at the Pittsburgh Carnegie Music hall last evening. The beautifully gowned women who always make these occasions so attractive a feature to the musical and social life of the city were not lacking, and gave the necessary touch of piquent charm to a picture always distinguished by recognized talent and artistic worth. The stanch friends of the orchestra, to whom these concerts are distinct musical events, and a subscription a duty owed to one's esthetic taste, were all, with few exceptions, if not in their old places, at least in evidence in new locations of their own choice.

The program was one of great diversity in value. Of the three purely orchestral numbers, perhaps the most vitally interesting was the "Indian Suite" in five movements by the great American composer, Edward MacDowell. To them Mr. Herbert gave an interpretation fully in keeping with the spirit of the music, which is at once daring and yet dignified.

Ossip Gabrilowitsch, the soloist, made his second appearance in this city, his first with the orchestra. He scored a decided success with the characteristic Tschaikowsky concerto in B flat minor, and after several recalls, gave as an encore a delightful little gem of his own composition.

There will be no concert next week, the orchestra going on tour to appear at Akron, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Cleveland, Erie and Buffalo.

The program of last night, as given below, will be repeated this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

TWO MEN INJURED IN WILD RUNAWAY

Frightened Horse Upset Buggy and Threw Driver in Path of Approaching Train.

E. A. Welsh and M. V. Watson, contractors of Vandegrift, were seriously injured at Braddock yesterday afternoon. Their horse ran into a gate at a railroad crossing and dashed the occupants to the tracks. Welsh fell unconscious in the path of a fast passenger train, and would have been instantly killed but for the prompt act of his companion.

The crossing gate was down, as a train was approaching. The horse dashed into the gate, shattered it and dragged himself and the buggy through. One of the wheels caught in the tracks and the buggy was upturned. Welsh's head struck the ground and he was rendered unconscious. He rolled directly in front of the train.

Watson was badly hurt, but saw his companion's danger and pulled him off the track in time. Both men were taken to the Emergency hospital of the steel works and subsequently removed to the Hotel Farr at Braddock. Their injuries are serious.

THE JOBBERS AND MAKERS TO MEET

Hardware Men Will Confer During the New Orleans Convention.

HAVE DROPPED COMBINE

First of Pittsburgh Delegations Already Started, Others Follow Today — Each Organization Represents Over 170 Concerns.

The American Hardware Manufacturers' association and the National Hardware association, the jobbers, will hold their annual conventions in New Orleans next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. It is expected that joint conferences will develop many things of importance to the trade. Incidentally it comes to light that the gigantic consolidation of the hardware jobbers, in which John Bindley of Pittsburgh was one of the prime movers, has been dropped. A few months ago this deal was on the verge of consummation.

Representatives of the Pittsburgh jobbers will have a special car for their trip, starting this evening. Some of the Pittsburgh members of the manufacturers' association who are members of important committees left last night. Among them were F. D. Mitchell, secretary and treasurer of the association; Robert Garland of the Standard Chain Company, accompanied by Mrs. Garland, and M. S. McKinney of the McKinney Manufacturing Company of Allegheny, who was accompanied by Mrs. McKinney. Mr. Garland is chairman and Mr. McKinney a member of the executive committee.

The manufacturers have about 170 members in their association, among them the following, with headquarters or district offices in Pittsburgh: Crucible Steel Company of America, American Steel and Wire Company, American Steel Hoop Company, American Tin Plate Company, American Sheet Steel Company, Garland Chain Company, Iron City Tool Works, limited, Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, the Klein-Logan Company, M. Lanz & Sons, McKinney Manufacturing Company, Oliver Iron and Steel Company represented by Henry B. Lupton, member of the executive committee of the association; Pittsburgh Steel Company, Pittsburgh Screw and Bolt Company, Pope Tin Plate Company, Standard Chain Company, and Union Steel Company.

In the jobbers' association John Bindley, former president, is a member of the advisory committee of three. Besides Mr. Bindley and other representatives of his company, there will be in the party leaving tonight George B. Logan and other officers of the Logan-Gregg Hardware Company and representatives of the Lautner Hardware Company of Allegheny and the James C. Lindsey Hardware Company, and Wolff, Lane & Co. of Pittsburgh. The jobbers' association embraces 179 concerns.

Settlement Is Rumored.

There were no developments in the butchers' strike yesterday, but it was intimated in labor circles that arrangements were in progress to bring about a conference between the butchers and the owners of the 11 packing houses that have not signed the scale.

Hamilton's Pianos and Christmas Suggest Wisdom of Early Purchasing

That Christmas piano which you have been thinking of is more than likely contained in the magnificent stock at Hamilton's. Certain it is that in no other store will you see so many beautiful instruments, nor will you find prices so interesting elsewhere.

So why not come in without further delay and make your selection? Nothing at all can be gained by waiting and delay MAY mean some disappointment. For as surely as the sun rises and sets, just so surely will the majority of these charming instruments be disposed of long before Christmas.

More pianos are purchased every year for Christmas gifts, and the larger the number the earlier purchasing begins.

Interest centers at present in the collection of grand and upright pianos especially designed for the holiday trade. There are some of the most beautiful grands here ever conceived. The handsomest are those with the white mahogany and satin wood cases, the finest of which are embellished with ornate carving of the most exquisite description. Nothing more refined or appropriate as a gift was ever seen, and it is safe to predict that every piano in this collection will go into the home of some family of culture hereabout. The possession of such a piano is a matter to be proud of.

The upright pianos in the Hamilton stock are typical of the standard of this old reliable establishment. They are simply the best to be found anywhere and embrace the A. B. Chase, the brilliant Fischer, the Schumann, which is admitted to be the best piano in the world selling at a moderate price; the Smith & Barnes, the Hamilton and numerous others.

There is a piano to gratify every taste and a price to please every customer. And the terms are made to suit in every instance. It always has been so at Hamilton's. This wide-awake house for over a quarter of a century has been catering successfully to the wants of the music-loving people of this vicinity. And it is the pride of the proprietor that the public reposes implicit confidence in the establishment.

Store remains open Saturday evenings till 10 o'clock.

SIXTEEN PAGES.

The announcement that Senator Spooner is going to press an investigation of Porto Rican affairs is gratifying. Political developments in that island certainly call for investigation. Reports have come from time to time that the so-called Republican party which had possession of the lists would not allow any political opponents to register as voters, and that in places where the Federals were in a majority mobs of Republicans made attacks, taking forcible possession of the registration offices. People have been killed and wounded in these brawls, and altogether a sorry showing is made of the working of the institutions of self-government we have introduced.

The Federal party, which has been practically disfranchised by these revolutionary proceedings, includes the mercantile and the larger property-holding interests of the island. The Republican party is the successor to the old Autonomist party, which advocated local independence of government and universal suffrage. In the first elections held under American rule the Federals were generally successful, and there was a spirit of co-operation between the Federal leaders and the government, but when it was found that the government recognized all parties in making appointments to office the Federals were so indignant that they refused to take part in the elections to the legislative assembly in November, 1900. Out of a total registration of 123,140, 58,515 votes were polled, and only 148 of these were cast by the Federal party. Hence the lower house of the assembly was unanimously Republican. The Federals have since gotten over their sulks sufficiently to desire to take part in the elections this year, but the Republicans would not even allow them to register. The facts suggest that we may have introduced elective institutions to a greater extent than the people have been fitted to receive them.

From Hawaii also comes accounts of failure in the workings of the institutions imposed by congress. We say imposed because there was no demand for the system established, and the frame of government recommended by the commission appointed to prepare it was amended so as to bring it pretty close to the ordinary American territorial pattern, based upon the assumption that the people can manage their own affairs. The result has been that the Kanaka vote is not really affected by any administrative issues growing out of the workings of the government, but goes just as Queen Lil is supposed to desire. The government the Kanakas want is one which she rules, and they get as close to it as they can. The industrial condition of the islands is depressed and their trade is declining. Commercial interests are extremely discouraged and a feeling is growing that annexation has been a misfortune.

It is probably not to be regretted that any mistakes we may have made in colonial government shall be early revealed by their consequences, as we may be able to amend our wrongs before the consequences become irreparable. The great cause of error so far has probably been our disposition to govern according to our own political ideas, instead of according to the political ideas of the people concerned and with respect to their condition and circumstances. Institutions are not an end in themselves, but are simply a means to an end; that end being order and justice. The principle upon which our own government was founded, as stated by Madison, who took the chief part in framing the Constitution, is that "the safety and happiness of society are the objects at which all political institutions aim and to which all such institutions must be sacrificed." Self-government, the suffrage and elective institutions have had a gradual growth among ourselves, and we are expecting newly liberated peoples to take on at once larger responsibilities of government than we ever had to bear ourselves at a like stage of political experience.

Congress has enough to do to legislate for this country, and it makes rather a botch of that. For it to attempt to legislate also for Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines and any other foreign possession which the United States may acquire opens up a boundless prospect of mischief. No legislative body in the world could cope with such a task. The attempt of the British parliament to do so with regard to the American colonies brought on the revolution. Since then British colonial administration has been left to the executive department, and each colony is supplied with institutions fitted to its peculiar needs, as determined by experience and not by theoretical assumption. In practice the officials actually in charge of the administration of a colony formulate the system. The result is a great variety of constitutional arrangements, but they all successfully accomplish their purpose of securing good government. Every country which has made a success of colonial administration follows the same method, and the sooner congress, too, adopts it and confides colonial administration to the president, the better it will be for the happiness and prosperity of peoples living under the sovereignty of the United States.

The series of amendments to the Pennsylvania railroad ordinance adopted by the corporations committee are on the whole properly conceived as safeguarding public interests while not obstructing improvement. The ordinance, which has now passed through the committee, is the one covering the proposed Brilliant branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, to connect with the tracks of the Allegheny Valley and West Penn roads. It is the one spoken of as running through Highland park, but the park property referred to is not an integral portion of the park as now laid out, but is the range of hillside east of the boulevard and altogether unimproved. For the portions taken by the railroad, a tract of 96 acres directly adjoining park land, owned by the city, is offered by the railroad company. The committee properly adopted amendments exonerating the city from liability for damage claims resulting from changes of grade made for the benefit of the railroad, and this policy should be adhered to in all the grants of franchise made. The city should grant all reasonable facilities for the improvements, but the railroad company should meet all expenses attendant upon the use it may make of the facilities granted.

HONOR AMONG THIEVES.

St. Louis has reason to congratulate itself upon the conviction and sentence of Col. Edward Butler in the court at Columbia, Mo. Butler is one of the influential men of considerable wealth who was implicated in the boodling operations upon the municipal assembly. He fought the prosecution with all the power that money and political influence could bring to his aid, and after he saw conviction staring him in the face at St. Louis secured a change of venue on the ground that he could not get a fair trial at home. The result has been a sentence of three years at hard labor in the state prison—not an excessive punishment, but one that may have a salutary influence in preventing the corruption of municipal councils in the future.

This case is important because it is the first of the series to come to trial. Several other wealthy men are under indictment, in addition to members of the assembly, who belonged to the oath-bound organization for promoting bribery. They will probably be willing to take their justice in the St. Louis courts, since Butler gained little by taking his case to the interior. A considerable portion of Missouri is a long way behind the times, but a little moss on a juryman's back is no guarantee that he will look leniently upon the misdoing of his fast-going brother in the big city. Rural courts in Missouri, as in other parts of the country, are quite as likely to administer strict justice as those of the big cities.

These St. Louis cases have attracted public attention in extraordinary degree, not because bribery was more rampant than under the Tweed regime in New York, but because the official boodlers had bound themselves by a most solemn oath to violate their sacred oath of office and to protect each other in crime. The exposure of this compact disclosed one of the most curious phases of criminal reasoning on record. Members of the combine, apparently of average intelligence in ordinary affairs, seemed to put implicit faith in the observance of a criminal oath by men who had perjured themselves so lightly. The oath they took was, indeed, a formidable one, but surely it was folly to suppose it more binding than the less sensational legal pledge they subscribed to when inducted to office. Presumably their faith was founded upon the proverbial "honor among thieves," but the experience of the world has proven that "honor" as frail as the primary virtue of the denizens of the under world. There is nothing in it.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION.

Attention was concentrated upon the stock market during the past week owing to the rapid and violent fluctuations in values. The tendency of the latter was almost uninterruptedly downward, in some instances the lowest level of the year being reached, although there was not lacking evidence to prove that the real basis of values remained unimpaired. The shrinkage, compared with two months ago, has been enormous, but the losses fall mainly upon speculators for a rise. People who make a daily computation of "paper profits" affected by market fluctuations feel poorer, but investors who bought and hold securities for the return in interest and dividends will not find their income reduced.

The part which sentiment plays in business affairs was illustrated by the events of the week. There are more people directly interested in the stock market now than ever before, and for a large percentage of them the stock ticker covers their horizon. Ostensibly, the liquidation in the market is due to monetary stringency, and yet the official statement of the New York banks shows surplus reserves are larger now than at any corresponding season during the past five years. At the annual convention of the American Bankers' association this week eminent financiers sounded notes of warning, the gist of which was that the business of the country was going too fast; that the financial machinery for handling the same was being overtaxed. There was no fact laid before the members of the convention with which they were not, individually and collectively, familiar for months past, when they were furnishing the means that made possible the speculative inflation which they now deplore. The general public may not have been familiar with the facts, but the latter are now being distorted by professional Wall street for the purpose of frightening the public into taking the other extreme. Hence it is that this week has witnessed crumbling stock values at a time when mills are crowded with unfilled orders and railroads are unable to make headway against the increasing volume of traffic pouring in upon them.

It is the history of all great financial and commercial movements that every upward swing has its corresponding downward swing, and vice versa. The rebound from the depression caused by the free silver and tariff tinkering panic of 1893-96 has been without parallel. It was preceded and accompanied by a remarkable outburst of speculation in the stock market. The latter usually plays the part of herald, and its course for several weeks past has been accepted by some as the forerunner of a change in business affairs. It is not an infallible guide, however, proof of which was furnished in May last year, when there was a tremendous smash in values that was not even remotely connected with business conditions, but was due to rivalries among railway financiers. There are two factors in the present situation which should tend to check any violent reaction in general trade. One of these is sound money, the doubt concerning which was such a disturbing element in the last period of depression. The other is the control now exercised in the railway and industrial world by large combinations, which should prevent wide and sudden fluctuations in commodity values.

Aside from the stock market, the developments of the week were of a cheerful character. One of the most important of these was the announcement of the Pennsylvania railroad of a voluntary advance of 10 per cent in the wages of its employes on the system both east and west of Pittsburgh, action which increases the purchasing power of more than a hundred thousand workingmen. Another was the official statement of the United States Steel Corporation that the unfilled orders on its books at the present time approximated 5,000,000 tons, an increase of 2,136,310 tons over the corresponding period last year, when it was thought that the maximum had been reached, if not passed. This tonnage assures continued active employment for the great army of employes in this branch of industry. Another group of cheering figures was that furnished in the government crop report, containing the assurance of the greatest yield of corn ever harvested.

SUBSTITUTES FOR WOOD.

There is more than a mere industrial item in the creation of a cement works at West Pittsburgh in which more than $1,000,000 is to be invested. Million-dollar plants are too common in the Pittsburgh district for one to attract more than passing attention from the point of capital invested and labor employed. The real interest attaching to this enterprise is in its indication of the search for building material that will take the place of wood, which is becoming more scarce and valuable every year. Concrete and ordinary cement have already taken an important place among building materials because they are adaptable to many uses, almost as cheap as wood, more durable than lumber and as nearly fireproof as steel. They are bound to be more largely used in the future than at present as substitute for both wood and stone.

This new concern which has selected the Pittsburgh district as most advantageous for manufacturing purposes will have a variety of products, such as marble, stone, brick, tile, cement and plaster. It can obtain much raw material from the ground upon which the works are to be located and will be able to obtain furnace slag at very low cost to mix with other substances. Undoubtedly these are considerations of almost as much force as cheap and abundant fuel to induce the manufacture of cement in this region. They are factors that should make Pittsburgh ere long as distinctively the center of cement production as it now is of the production of iron and steel. The rewards in this line may not be quite as great as in some others, but as the destruction of native forests proceeds the industry will ever become more important. It fitly accompanies the making of iron, steel, terra cotta and glass, for the building of the next generation will be very largely in fireproof materials.

POOR NEW YORK.

Under the head of "Poor Pennsylvania," Harper's Weekly indulges in a long lamentation over the result of the election. Harper's Weekly should consider Dr. Johnson's advice: "Clear your mind from cant." Instead of basing its opinion upon clamor, let it compare the actual results of government in Pennsylvania and New York; what the taxpayers have to pay and what they get in return, and if it is still inclined to lament, it may be a case of "Poor New York." That there are defects and ills in the government of Pennsylvania we know quite well, but they do not exist because of a lack of reform but because of too much reform. The constitution and laws of the state have been reformed until a high quality of administration is not to be expected. We have to take things as they are and make the best of them, and we are doing that in supporting the Quay regime. As regards the specific charge of guilt brought by Harper's Weekly; namely, the defeat of "ballot reform," at the last session of the legislature, we hold that the bill so called was a bad measure, and as a choice between accepting it and doing nothing the legislature acted wisely. Faction divisions prevented the formation of a party control strong enough to formulate and enact a proper measure. For any real improvement of our election laws the hope of the people is in complete Republican ascendancy.

The London Times has sent out special correspondents to investigate conditions in countries where Russia is extending her influence. A recent letter from its correspondent in Persia shows that the real sovereignty of that country is practically in Russian hands. The only disciplined body of troops in the Persian army is a brigade of four regiments under command of a Russian general, of whose ability as an organizer and a disciplinarian the Times' correspondent speaks in the highest terms. A Russian bank at Teheran has loaned the Persian government $12,500,000 on the security of the customs revenue and is about to loan $10,000,000 more. Persian silver money is now coined in Russia and the full weight and handsome appearance of the new coins caused them to be received with great satisfaction in the bazars. With the military and financial administration of the country already in Russian hands, Persia is practically a Russian province, as much so as Bokhara, the nominal sovereignty of whose ruler is still scrupulously respected by the Russian officials, who really administer its affairs. By working through native authority as much as possible Russia keeps the people contented and exercises real sovereignty with a minimum of cost and trouble.

In an attempt to introduce a system of old age pensions Belgium has gotten into difficulties. The law provided a pension of about $72 per year for laboring workmen who have attained the age of 60. In a year's trial the rush of applications has greatly exceeded all estimates and it has been found that a large proportion of retired tradesmen and small employers have gotten upon the pension rolls. The government is having instituted a searching investigation, but will probably find it difficult to retrace its steps. Pensions once begun are apt to travel far beyond the original intent, as we have found in this country.

The Baltimore News has just celebrated its fifteenth birthday and the eleventh anniversary of its acquisition by the present management. Under that management the News has been a paper of high character and consistancy of purpose, serving public interests with ability and intelligence.

Col. Edward Butler, Democratic leader and boodler at St. Louis, got a change of venue in his case and has just got three years in the penitentiary from the court at Columbia. He might as well have taken his case at St. Louis.

John Mitchell has made a strong presentation of the miners' case before the arbitration commission. It disagrees radically with President Baer's statement, however.

Dr. Jaques Loeb of Chicago university is making as rapid progress toward resuscitating the dead as the flying machine men are making toward aerial navigation.

Possibly if the Allegheny river bridges were put as high as some of the river men want them they might attract sight-seeing summer excursionists.

Delays of the Law.

From the Baltimore American.

There are indications that the most striking lesson of the Molineux case will not be lost to New York. Already the newspapers are taking the matter up, and strongly urge such legislation, or other steps, as may be necessary to avoid in the future the heavy penalties that follow criminal delay in executing the processes of the law. Roland B. Molineux came from his second trial a free man, acquitted and absolutely exonerated of the charge of murder laid against him. Before the law his honor is unsullied, and no taint attaches to him for the murder of Mrs. Adams. But while this is the final result, it has required nearly four years to bring it about.

Made-to-Order Philosophy.

From the Washington Star.

When the beef trust was organized it was urged that people eat too much as a rule. Now that a scarcity of fuel threatens, it is claimed that the American people have a pernicious habit of overheating their houses. Made-to-order philosophy is not satisfying.

LINE OF MISERY AWAITS LORENZ

Procession of Sufferers, Like That Which Flocks to the Sacred Relics.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

A pathetic scene was witnessed this afternoon at the dispensary of the Cornell university medical college, on the East Side. Dr. Lorenz, the eminent surgeon who treats hip disease by a "bloodless" treatment, and whose fame has extended all through the west, will soon be in New York as the guest of the Cornell institution, when he will treat a certain number of cases as a demonstration to the doctors here. The patients will be chosen carefully by the college authorities. Cripples of greater or less affliction, most of them very young children, were brought by their mothers and offered to the attention of the doctors, who looked them over gravely and promised that they would speak to Dr. Lorenz about them when he came. All the afternoon there was a procession of misery. Some of the sufferers had been brought from suburban towns, and many of them were from Brooklyn. The distinction of this rush for help on the part of cripples is that this treatment is not mind healing or anything of that kind, but will be done on scientific principles. The character of the applicants is about the same, however. Those that one sees looking for aid from the relics of a saint at some little church are not materially different from the crowds at Twenty-seventh street and First avenue today. Many of them are identical. Through the Cornell clinic and the Hospital for Ruptured and Crippled more than 250 applications for treatment by Dr. Lorenz have been received, and before he is ready to do his work in New York there will be, perhaps, 1,000. Dr. Newton Schaeffer of Cornell college personally examined each patient today, and if he could have done so consistently he would have arranged that each one should be examined by the eminent visitor. As it is, many of them will treated by the regular staff, and only those most interesting from a surgical point of view will be taken to Dr. Lorenz. Dr. Schaeffer said, which hardly was necessary, that this visit of Dr. Lorenz is not to advertise him. He is too famous a man for that.

Young Pittsburgh Business Man.

Albert Fielding Lang, one of Pittsburgh's hustling young business men, was a visitor to The Gazette bureau this afternoon.

Steel Combine Protecting Customers.

Among business men and manufacturers in the lobbies of the Waldorf-Astoria tonight there was general comment on the quoting of steel billets at $26 a ton in this city today. This is a decline of $2 a ton, due to the offer of the United States Steel Corporation to protect its customers by meeting independent firms in their recent reductions in rates.

Sheedy Interested in Pittsburghers.

Pat Sheedy, known the world over as "the square gambler," is in New York again. He reached here from South America early in the morning and went to breakfast at the Sturtevant house with Morris Moses. One of the first things he said as he sat down was: "Well, how are all the boys in Pittsburgh? How is Roger O'Mara, Johnny Staley and John Newell?" Pat has a warm side for Pittsburgh. It will be remembered that he was in consultation with Roger O'Mara frequently at the time he was conducting negotiations for the return of the stolen Murillo a year or two ago.

Dinner Party Among Wild Animals.

There was a dinner party in decidedly unusual environment up at the stock animal arena last evening. The tables were set in the midst of the steel cage in which the wild animals performed, while all around were cages containing lions, tigers, leopards and similar jungle creatures of man-eating proclivities, while snakes, monkeys and other pets were allowed to roam at will under the tables, or on them, as they chose. Representatives of a number of big papers of New York and other cities, including The Pittsburgh Gazette, were the guests.

Sage Insists Upon Working.

Russell Sage is said to be fretting under his enforced idleness. He says he is well and strong, and would like to be at his office; but Mrs. Sage, who, like most wives, has her own way when she insists on it, will not allow him to go to Wall street at present. If it were not that Uncle Russell seems happier at work than anywhere else, he would be compelled to stay away from his office altogether. As it is, if he behaves himself and is patient, he will be permitted to go downtown some time next week, if all is well.

Mark Twain's Wife Getting Well.

Mrs. Samuel L. Clemens, wife of "Mark Twain," has a great deal of her distinguished husband's pluck and recuperating quality. She is getting well. It will be remembered that her serious illness prevented "Mark" going to see the opening of the dramatization of his novel, "Huckleberry Finn." He would not trust himself away from his wife's bedside while there was any danger.

Burglars Leave in Swallowtails.

Mount Vernon, the lively suburb of New York where all kinds of things occur worthy of print, has a new burglar story. It seems that some fellows sneaked into the house of a citizen last evening, carrying away jewelry and other valuables. But what makes the owner particularly glad is that the intruders each arrayed himself in a full suit of evening clothes, with white shirt, stick-up collar, white tie and silk and left behind them two of the worst collection of masculine raiment that ever escaped a garbage pile. Besides going forth in swallowtails and low cut white waistcoats the thieves each wore black hats—one a regular opera hat of the collapsible variety and the other a silk plug, worth $10 of any man's money, owned by the man of the house. If the owner had caught them at the time he would have slain them where they stood, judging by his expression today.

How Quickly Green Cops Learn!

Capt. Schmittberger of the Forty-seventh street police station arrested one of his patrolmen today for taking a bribe. He had the man placed in a cell. The charge is that he took $2 from a woman whom he should have arrested. Blackmailing is not an unknown art in the police department of New York, but this particular culprit made himself conspicuous by going into the business very early in his police career. He has been on the force only two months. He evidently believes in making money early, to make sure of it in case trade should get dull later.

The Puzzling Wall Street Game.

Well, who would have thought it! The market opened strong, just as the wise ones at the Waldorf-Astoria predicted last night, but fell off afterward until prices touched the bottom figures of the week. There was a disgruntled crowd of brokers and speculators in the hotel corridors this evening, and the general sentiment was that it is no use saying what will or will not happen in Wall street, no matter what the prospects be.

Humble Max Gets a New Trial.

Max Hochstim, the eminent Tammanyite who was found guilty of interfering with a McCullagh deputy on election day in November, 1899, and was about to go "up the river," when he managed to get his case before the appellate division of the supreme court and was released on bail, will have a new trial. The appellate court announced its decision today. When Hochstim was convicted it created a panic all over the East Side. Hochstim had been so sure that the case would be thrown out of court on his first trial that he had his friends at court to lead him in triumph to a hall where there was to be a great jollification, with a dinner, speeches, a band and all the rest of it. Instead of that Max went to a cell in the Tombs, staying there for several days, until his lawyers could take measures to get him out. He has been much subdued since that experience, and many of his adherents felt that he was not the same old Max of the haughty mien, but always with a loose half-dollar for a faithful voter in his district.

Russian Riot in a Courtroom.

There was a free fight in an East End court room today. It was in the Fifth municipal district court, at Clinton and Grand street, wherein a case involving $400 in a real estate transaction had been tried. Court had adjourned, but the court officers thoughtlessly allowed a lot of excitable Russian and Polish Hebrews, who had been witnesses, to get together. There were a few sharp arguments in the Muscovite vernacular, and then Cracko-vitch hit Slovinsky on the head with a chair, receiving in return a swipe with a heavy cane. The fight became general. When the police separated the participants and collected the fragments, it was found that there were blackened eyes, bleeding noses and big lumps on heads, pretty evenly distributed. There will be several lawsuits, of course, but those were to be expected. But no one seemed to think it extraordinary that there should be a rough and tumble right in the shadow of the judicial bench.

Forging of City Checks.

An old trouble in this city is the forging of checks supposed to have been issued by the city to its employes. The abuse has been worse than usual lately, and there may be a new system of paying city employes, to stop the frauds. The forgers apparently have had no difficulty in disposing of their checks for cash. Restauranteurs, drygoods merchants and saloonkeepers have been anxious to give cash for what purported to be city checks, where they would have hesitated to honor individual checks for similar amounts. Substantially all of the bogus checks thus far placed in circulation have been of the sort usually given for salaries, and the business men who have cashed them complain that under the existing system they cannot tell even their source.

Motormen in Engineers' Blouses.

The substitution of electricity for steam on the elevated railroad is responsible for a curious incongruity in the appearance of some of the train crews. The "L" officials have always been great sticklers for uniforms for their guards, conductors, ticket choppers and other employes. The crew of an elevated train is generally a soldierly-looking set of men; but there is one important person on the electric trains who scorns the blue cloth and brass buttons of the regular "L" uniform. For him, a blue "jumper" is the most comfortable, and he insists on wearing it, whether or no. He is the motorman. You see, the motormen are all ex-engineers, who have been accustomed to the wearing of blouses and overalls as they sat in the cabs of their locomotives, and they cannot wear anything else at their work in comfort. The motormen sit in a little glass box at the head of the first car of the train and can be seen by passengers near him. In every case he has on the familiar blue blouse, the only difference being that now it is clean; while in the old engine-driving days it was begrimmed with coal smoke. The only concession the motorman makes to the desire of the company that he shall be in uniform, is to wear the regulation cap, with his number in brass figures in front. Otherwise, he is the same old engineer he has been always. One thing is noticeable, and that is that an engineer makes an exceedingly good motorman. He is careful, ready and never gets excited. These are good qualities in a man on whose expert management of an electric controller and air brake depends the lives of hundreds of people at any hour of the day or night.

Imported Burdens.

From the Toronto Mail and Empire.

Whatever may be the outcome of the Doukhobor complication in the west, it is a lesson for Canada which ought not soon to be forgotten. Had we searched the world over to find a people who were entirely unsuited to the climate and conditions of life in this country, we would have had difficulty in making a more accurate selection. The Doukhobors are natives of Southern Russia, and know no more about our climate and methods of agriculture and system of government than the Hottentot. Their history is that of a people easily moved by fanatical leaders, but uncontrollable by the civil powers. They are essentially non-progressive.

The Country With Roosevelt.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

There is no mistaking the verdict of the country in the elections. Its voice is clear and strong in support of President Roosevelt. From one end to the other there is no break in the line of Republican states. They all stand firm for him and for the policies which McKinley instituted and which he is carrying forward. All the states of the middle and far west come forward with undiminished majorities, giving indubitable evidence that the almost unvarying reaction of an off-year mid-way in a national administration has not touched them this year.

The Republican Spirit.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel.

In Wisconsin matters of public policy that have been the subject of a somewhat heated debate have been left, as they should have been, to a Republican legislature to dispose of. All questions of taxation and primary reform must be taken up at the coming session of the legislature with a determination to make as much progress towards a final solution of those questions as is possible. The work must be done in a spirit of broad, conservative fairness to all interests and with the single aim of overcriminating justice. This is the Republican spirit.

PERSONALS.

Since the hunting season opened on October 15, much game has been brought into Pittsburgh by local hunters, and much of it has also passed out of the city. Almost every train that arrives or departs from the stations in the city has its quota of Nimrods. A party of hunters, among whom were Dr. E. R. Smith, Representative George H. Stevens, John F. Ely of Jeannette, and Theodore Gravens of McKeesport, returned to their homes last night after a four-days' hunt near Dayton, Indiana county. They had 96 pieces of game, including rabbits, quail, pheasant and squirrels. They report game very plentiful. William Rhode and Phillip J. Miller of the South Side, who had been hunting since Monday in Somerset county, returned last night over the Baltimore & Ohio. They had 76 pieces of game, the majority of which were rabbits.

"The railroad conditions at present confronting the country are little short of distressing," said S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago & Alton railroad, last night. President Felton was returning from New York to Chicago. "While the western railroads are not handicapped by such heavy congestion as the eastern roads, it is bad enough. The one great question with managers and directors today is to know how to increase their facilities and at the same time handle the business offered to them, as it is impossible to get sufficient rolling stock or motive power. Coming across the mountains, train after train was side tracked, and train after train was passing on other tracks. It is wonderful how the Pennsylvania railroad is able to handle its enormous business."

Ephraim Truxall, well known among Pittsburgh iron manufacturers, general manager of the new Continental Iron Company of Wheatland, Pa., was in Pittsburgh yesterday. He said that the plant is operating to its capacity and has a tremendous business booked ahead.

The Roselle Fishing club, named after the Rev. W. Quay Roselle, pastor of the Homestead Baptist church, gave an informal dinner at the Monongahela house last night. Over 100 persons were present.

Pittsburgh chapter of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon held a banquet in the Hotel Henry last night. Plates were set for 48 persons.

Neighbors Visiting Pittsburgh.

Among those at the hotels last night were the following pregons from nearby points:

THE DEATH ROLL.

Robert Hall.

Robert Hall died at his home in Eighteenth avenue, Homestead, at noon yesterday. He was born in Winchester, Va., in 1830, and moved to Pittsburgh in 1850. He served through the civil war as a member of Company G, Forty-first U. S. cavalry. In 1866 he settled with his family in Homestead and lived there until the time of his death, with the exception of a few years on the South Side. A year ago he celebrated, with his wife, the 50th anniversary of their wedding, and the affair was one of the largest ever held in Homestead. The following children survive: Mrs. James W. Patch of Elizabeth, Mrs. George McFarland of Wilmerding, Frederick W., Robert, Elijah, George and Frank, all of Homestead. Ten grand children also survive.

Mrs. Rachel Kelchener.

Mrs. Rachel Kelchener, a sister of the late Henry M. Curry, treasurer of the Carnegie Steel Company, died yesterday morning at the Mercy hospital from the result of an operation. She was a resident of Altoona and is survived by her husband and two children.

Obituary Notes.

Ammon Lenihon died at Cadiz, O., Thursday night, aged 80 years. He was probate judge of Harrison county, Ohio, for 27 years.

Mrs. Ann Neel, wife of Hiram Neel of Lincoln place, Mifflin township, died Thursday. She was 65 years old and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bella Rath, and three sons, Harry of Pittsburgh, Samuel and West of Lincoln place.

Government Ownership of Mines.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Somebody has taken the trouble to dig up the records of the time when the government of the United States was the owner of mines and to show what came of it.

"Nearly a century ago, in 1807, congress passed a law reserving mineral lands from entry and authorizing the leasing of certain mineral lands. In 1838 it became necessary to oust Jefferson Davis of the United States army, who was to go to Dubuque, Ia., with a company of soldiers to eject from the lead mines in that section persons claiming them under Spanish grants.

In the first annual message, December, 1845, President Polk asked the attention of congress to the leasing of certain lead mines by the government, including those in the Galena (Ill.) district. It appeared from the records that these mines had yielded in rents from 1841 to 1845, inclusive, the sum of $6,354 74. Under the expenses for those years had been $20,111 27. In consequence of this message the president was authorized to sell the lead mines in the states of Illinois and Arkansas and the territories of Iowa and Wisconsin.

The lesson of this is precisely the same as that of all other attempts of the government to do business for which it was not ordained. The almost invariable result is lax administration, high cost and unsatisfactory returns. Socialistic experiments ignore the facts of human nature.

Epidemic of Prodigality.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

"It seems to cost a great deal to live nowadays. Most persons notice it, especially persons who are hard put to it to find the money to pay their bills. The statisticians report that commodities in general use cost on an average about 10 per cent more than they did last year. The rise in the price of meat contributes a good deal to this advance, though breadstuffs have been high, too. Articles of luxury, like good clothes and country houses, have grown dearer in proportion than most articles of necessity, because the huge influx of money into the country has sustained the make a ready market for luxuries. Rents are higher, fuel is dearer, servants get higher wages, board is higher at resort hotels. The living expenses of any given family are very much affected by the expenses of other families of their acquaintance, and the scale of living of 'other families' seems just now to have become inconveniently liberal. Prodigality is so conspicuously prevalent that it has become more or less epidemic.

Uncle Sam on East Side.

From the New York Tribune.

With a cash balance in the treasury of almost $300,000,000, Uncle Sam may look forward to the coming winter with composure, notwithstanding that his fur bearing animals of all sorts are taking on thick overcoats, betokening that the season is to be a severe one. But with so much money ahead and coal down to its customary prices, he ought to ride out its rigors without the least injury to his constitution and with little invasion of his comfort.

FINED HIMSELF FOR CRUELTY

Justice of the Peace Had Been Shipping Fowls in Unventilated Boxes.

It is not often that a justice of the peace appears before himself as an offender, pleads guilty to himself, and then goes down in his pocket for a fine, which he promptly pockets again as the representative of the law and thus the custodian of public moneys. Such an incident happened Thursday, says the Philadelphia North American, and the men who brought it about were Agents Cozens and White of the Women's Society to Prevent Cruelty to Animals, which has been waging a crusade against shippers of fowls who break the law by packing birds in unventilated boxes.

The justice of the peace who appeared in this role is R. B. Hyson of Bridgeton, York county, Pa. Incidentally, Judge Hyson is postmaster of his town, and as such forwarded the amount of the fine to the proper authorities in this city.

Last week Agents Cozens and White of the society obtained evidence against the shippers by watching the railroad stations. Warrants were obtained from Magistrate Harrison, and, armed with these, the agents set forth. In rapid succession the following offenders were arrested and, pleading guilty, paid their fines of $10 and costs: S. T. Hanum, Altoona, Pa.; E. Ivers, Collins postoffice, Lancaster county; J. P. Herman, Gordonville, Lancaster county, and W. H. Meyers, Hellem, York county, Pa.

Hyson was the last man on the list, being charged with sending chickens to Philadelphia in solid boxes. He was in the country store he keeps when the agents placed him under arrest. The disgrace of the affair seemed to bother Hyson most. He is not only justice and postmaster, but a pillar of the church, general storekeeper and man of affairs.

The agents said they would take him before the nearest magistrate, and in case he paid his fine he would not have to go to Philadelphia. It was then that Hyson remembered that he was a justice of the peace. He suggested, and White and Cozens agreed, that it would be perfectly proper for him to fine himself if he so desired. So in the store Hyson read the charge, pleaded guilty and imposed a fine of $10 and costs.

ANOTHER TRUTHFUL GEORGE.

George Washington Hall, colored, took the witness stand before Judge Hascall in the city court in his action against the Metropolitan Traction Company for being hit by a car and so injured as to demand $2,000 damages, says the New York World.

"As you are named after the father of our country," said Lawyer "Manny" Friend, "I want you to tell exactly how you came to be injured. Remember the example set by your namesake and tell the truth."

"Well, sah," replied George Washington Hall, "I looked the other way, sah, and the car just hit me. That, sah, is the gospel truth."

"Many thanks," said the lawyer for the company. "Your honor, I move for a dismiss

MATRONS CONTRADICT STORY OF ANNA ROLLINS

Case Against O'Mara, McGovern and Kelly Now in Jury's Hands---Attorney Makes Great Effort to Get Damages.

The trial of the case of Dr. Anna B. Rollins against O'Mara, Reilly and McGovern was completed yesterday before Judge Buffington in the United States circuit court.

In the event of a decision being reached a sealed verdict will be returned at the convening of court at 9:30 o'clock this morning. During the examination of several witnesses the session was held in Judge Buffington's private chambers.

Mrs. Ault, a matron of the Central station, who performed the search of Dr. Rollins on the morning of her arrest, testified that she was positive the utmost secrecy was observed during the search, and that all doors, excepting one leading to the hospital, were closed tight. She was not positive whether or not this door stood ajar. She contradicted the plaintiff's statement that she had been compelled to disrobe entirely by saying the plaintiff was permitted to retain a portion of her clothing. The witness said positively that McGovern could not have seen in the room, and that she believed he was in another part of the building.

Mrs. Emma Moorhead, another matron, testified to having the custody of the plaintiff during her detention at Central station. She said Dr. Rollins was locked in a hall with two rooms adjoining, and at no time had been confined in a cell. She further said the plaintiff had been furnished with a meal during her stay.

Dr. Rollins was called to the stand and denied that she was served with a meal. Mr. Burleigh offered the telegram from Washington on which the plaintiff had been arrested, but the court sustained the objection of Mr. Randolph to its incompetency.

When the evidence closed the counsel for both sides submitted a number of points to the court.

In charging the jury Judge Buffington defined the rights of both parties in the suit. He said the jury was the judge of the facts and that little law was involved.

Every person had a constitutional right that must be observed by officers. In the line of their duty, he said, the officers had a right to arrest the woman if she answered the description of a person wanted for crime, but it was also their duty to inquire into and investigate her story if she claimed to be innocent. He said if she had undergone the humiliation she claimed at Central station, then she was outraged.

When she was placed under arrest, he continued, if she refused the officers information and refused to disclose her identity, as they say, it was then her fault if she was taken to Central station.

He instructed the jury that the officials had no right to search her in an immodest way.

Today's Trial List.

The following desertion and surety of the peace cases will be taken up in criminal court this morning: Commonwealth vs. James McClelland, Stella Mellwaine, Grady Coda, Robert H. White, John Costella, W. J. Becker, Gustave Fuchts, George Hahm, Frank W. Hurst, C. R. Leuschner, William Shaffer, Milton Thompson, W. A. Ward.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Mrs. Olive Luti entered suit against Cecelia Mazerow for $5,000 damages for slander.

Letters were issued to Attorney Charles A. Schlegel on the $15,000 estate of Lillian H. Schlegel.

The Fidelity Title & Trust Company took out letters of administration on the $6,500 estate of Charles A. Mackey.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by Alfred Frost of Fayette county, in which he gives his debts as $13,053 71 and assets as $200.

William Young took out letters of administration on the estate of George E. Baker. Attorney W. C. McClure represents the estate.

Beatrice McKim took out letters of administration on the estate of John T. McKim. The estate is represented by Senator W. S. Woods.

In the bankruptcy case of Charles E. Myers, a railroad civil of Beaver Falls, the court has made an order restraining the sheriff from levying on real estate.

The will of Henry J. Hamill of Allegheny was filed. The estate is to be divided between the children of William Shore and a brother, John R. Hamill.

James B. Gallagher entered suit against James Hamilton for slander. It is set forth that the defendant in speaking of the plaintiff said: "My wife gave him $10 to have masses said and he kept it."

Charles A. Bruce filed a libel against the steamer Elizabeth for $19 60 and another against the steamer Gertrude for $115 16. Bruce is a plumber and claims these amounts are due him for services rendered.

Stauder, Penn & Co. filed a bill in equity against the Good Hope Baptist church to obtain the contract for the erection of an office on Thirty-fourth street. The plaintiffs claim to have been the lowest bidders.

In the United States district court a libel was filed against the steamboat G. M. Thomley by Joseph Shaffer, formerly employed as a deck hand. Shaffer claims he was put off the boat because of sickness, and that his wages, amounting to $1 66, were detained.

Suit was entered by Frank F. Nicola and Henry Stucke against the city of Pittsburgh for $10,000 damages to property on Aiken and Ellsworth avenues, worth $50,000. It is alleged the city occupies a large part of the property as the result of the construction of a sewer.

Register Edwards yesterday received a paper, giving H. W. Watson power of attorney in the matter of the estate of Dr. Sophia Eliza Johnston, who died in the Province of Shelum, India, on April 9, 1902. The estate is worth $2,080. Dr. Johnston died without making a will.

Letters of administration were issued yesterday to John J. R. Craven on the estate of William A. Simpson, who died December 18, 1857. It was not until recently that it was discovered he had any estate, which is said to be worth $1,800. The heirs are the decedent's granddaughters, Catherine R. Carnine and Mary T. R. Howell, both of Philadelphia.

ATTACK ON TWO RAILROAD BILLS

Opposition to Wabash and Pennsylvania Ordinances Showed in Councils.

COMPENSATION ASKED

Land Adjoining Highland Park, Offered to City, Said to Be Unavailable—Other Franchise Measures Being Held Back.

There will be a lively fight in both branches of councils next Monday when the two railroad ordinances approved by the corporations committee Thursday night are reported for passage. Several members, particularly in the select branch, are expected to line up in opposition to both the Wabash measure and the ordinance covering the Brilliant branch of the Pennsylvania railroad connecting the main line with the Allegheny Valley and the West Penn divisions.

The Wabash bill will be attacked on the grounds that it offers no compensation to the city, and much the same line of argument will be directed against the Pennsylvania ordinance. A. M. Neeper, attorney for the Wabash, informed a prominent Citizens member of common council yesterday that the Wabash company would not agree to give the city any compensation.

Attorney Neeper stated that the Wabash company proposed to invest millions of dollars to extend its line into Pittsburgh, and that the benefit resulting to the city therefrom was considered ample compensation.

Crawford Favors Ordinance.

Charles S. Crawford, president of common council, insisted yesterday that the ordinance for the Pennsylvania cut-off through Highland park to the Allegheny Valley and West Penn divisions offered a compensation to the city in return for the franchise. He said the compensation offered was the 96 acres comprised in the Leech and Wilkinson farms, adjoining Highland park, which the Pennsylvania company claims cost it $100,000, and which they agree to give the city.

The objectors to the Pennsylvania ordinance claim that the 96 acres offered to the city are practically valueless and unavailable for any purpose, that the land is so situated on a hill side, with a deep ravine between it and Highland park, that it would be necessary for the city to build a long bridge to connect the two sections. It is also claimed that the city is not sufficiently protected against damages resulting from the extension of streets across the proposed railroad.

The old organization members in common council declare they will hold Chairman Crawford to his declaration made in councils some time ago that he was opposed and thereafter would always oppose the city giving away valuable franchises without exacting an adequate compensation.

Advocates Nullifying Clause.

Chairman Crawford said yesterday that he did not understand Councilman J. C. Watson's reason for advocating the insertion of the nullifying clause in the Wabash ordinance on Tuesday night and then having it stricken out Thursday night. "I was unable to get to the meeting of the committee Thursday night," he stated. "If I had been there, I would have been opposed to striking out this clause, for I believe it a good thing."

The opposition to the Wabash and the East End ordinances will be only a forerunner of a much harder battle over the Pennsylvania's Duquesne way elevated and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad ordinances, which have not yet been considered by the committee. These ordinances are being held back by the corporations committee until the two approved Thursday night are got through councils.

It is the prevailing opinion of councilmen that the rental offered in the Baltimore & Ohio ordinance for its passenger and freight terminal in Water street is ridiculously low.

In reference to the ordinance of the Pennsylvania company, asking for the privilege of constructing elevated tracks along Duquesne way, it is maintained by many that the city should be released from the $400,000 claim held against it by the Pennsylvania company for damages assumed by the city in connection with recent improvements near the Union depot.

CORONER'S JURY DID NOT SAY SUICIDE

Manner of Havekotte's Death Is Still Shrouded in Official Mystery.

Under the evidence given yesterday morning at the coroner's inquest into the death of Theodore Havekotte, it appears that he committed suicide while ill and despondent. The coroner's jury, however, returned a non-committal verdict that Havekotte was "found drowned."

Witnesses said there were no marks of violence on the body and there was no disarrangement of the clothing.

W. C. Cronemeyer, a brother-in-law to Havekotte, testified that the last time he saw him alive was in October. He testified that Havekotte was despondent and in ill health and told him so. Mr. Cronemeyer also said he had found a letter that Havekotte had written to a friend, in which he said that he might be found dead in a very short time. He asked his friends to look after his children.

Edward Havekotte said that he did not know of any financial trouble his brother had, but did know that he was in ill health and despondent.

MANY PROTEST AGAINST PLAN

Friends of Union Bridge Turn Out at Engineer's Hearing.

RAISING IS IMPROBABLE

Strong Arguments Were Presented Against Scheme of the Rivermen, by Those Heard by Capt. Sibert.

The office of the United States engineer in the government building yesterday was inadequate to accommodate those who attended the hearing in the case of the proposed elevation of the Union bridge, and one of the court rooms in the building was used to admit all interested. The majority who attended went there to protest against the schemes of the rivermen. Such interest in the matter had not been anticipated.

Today the case of the Sixth street bridge will be heard and a still larger crowd will be on hand. The Sixth street business men and property owners will be represented to a man and councils will enter a protest on behalf of the city. John S. Lamble, president of select council, and C. S. Crawford, president of the common branch, have the matter in charge and will make vigorous objections to the proposed plans for disfiguring the city's streets.

Opposition Was Strong.

The facts brought out at yesterday's hearing were forecasted by The Gazette last week and the arguments which were quoted by The Gazette were rehearsed in no uncertain language, when Capt. Sibert asked for the views of the bridge owners and of the property holders in the downtown section. Opinion is strong that the report to the war department will not ask for any radical measures in the matter of changing the elevation of the bridges in this section.

At the opening of yesterday's meeting Capt. Sibert read the law affecting the subject and the petition which had been made to the war department, alleging that the Union bridge was an obstruction to the navigation of the Allegheny river. The river interests were represented by Capt. John F. Dravo, secretary of the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange; Capt. Thomas Rees of James Rees & Sons; Capt. Warren Elsey, representing the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company; Capt. W. B. Rodgers and others.

Bridge Owner Heard.

James M. Bailey, president of the bridge company, said that to elevate the bridge would involve the company in needless expenditure approximating $450,000, as well as cause serious inconvenience to the residents of Allegheny, who would be obliged to have the street grades elevated on the north side to conform with the proposed grade for the bridge. He said that over 800,000 foot passengers who crossed the bridge every year would be placed at a serious inconvenience.

Walter Lyon represented the property owners and declared that the raising of the bridge would necessitate the elevation of Allegheny streets and that the people who would suffer the damage would reasonably expect compensation. He asked who would pay the damages in case the government proceeded with the work.

Capt. Rodgers was the first speaker for the petitioners. He said he asked only for the execution of the laws in behalf of the rivermen. These navigation laws, he said, had been passed by congress and the rivermen expected them to be promptly executed.

Rivermen's Arguments.

Capt. Dravo said the low bridges were responsible for holding back the entire valley of the Allegheny and the opening of the rivers would start many industries in that region. In addition to the speeches by Capt. Dravo and Capt. Rogers, letters were read from firms up the Allegheny who are desirous of getting slackwater. Among these communications was one from the Allegheny River Improvement association.

Mr. Lambie and Mr. Crawford said that they expected to check any proposition which should incur damage to the streets of the city. The authority to appoint a committee to attend the hearing was given in a resolution passed by councils two years ago, when the agitation for high bridges suddenly collapsed. They expect the same turn of affairs this time, and declare that the secretary of war is not likely to change his mind, when but a short time ago he declared against the raising of the bridges.

REFUSED TO GO TO CHILD.

First Husband Disappeared, but Returned and Took Wife from Second.

Mrs. John Coaling, of Degrange, was arrested yesterday on a charge of abandoning her minor children and was committed to jail by Alderman Groetzinger. John Degrange, she says, the woman's husband, faces a charge of neglecting his children.

Twelve years ago the woman was the wife of Jacob Coaling, who disappeared. Two years later, the woman, believing her husband dead, married Degrange. About five months ago Coaling returned and the woman went to live with him in Woods run. Degrange and his children remained at No. 5 Highland street, South Side. A few weeks ago one of the Degrange children, of which the woman was the mother, became sick. The mother was sent for to nurse it and refused to go. She was then filed. The Humane society took up the case and the arrest followed.

My Dear Sir—The A. B. Chase grands which we have in our studios are winning many friends for your pianos. We have used your pianos exclusively in the conservatory since it was organized three years ago and have found them satisfactory in every way. I count it a privilege to be able to recommend the instruments, both in tone, quality and durability. They have been used constantly since they were put in. The tone seems to improve with hard use.

With best wishes for the future of the piano I remain Very sincerely,

WILL RECOMMEND POSTAL CHANGES

W. P. Roberts of Postoffice Department, Visited Swissvale and Edgewood.

W. P. Roberts, assistant superintendent of the mails of Washington, D. C., who has been in Pittsburgh for the past few days examining the postal affairs of the boroughs, visited Swissvale and Edgewood park yesterday. He was accompanied by Supt. James E. Cowen of the Pittsburgh carrier division. As a result of this visit many changes will be suggested to the postmaster general.

The McKees Rocks postal system will also undergo a change.

Mr. Roberts yesterday said:

"Mr. Cowen and myself visited Swissvale this morning and discovered that the town was divided as to what kind of a postal system it wanted. I will recommend that the entire borough of Swissvale and North Homestead, adjoining, have a postoffice and carrier station of their own. The station will be located in Swissvale and North Homestead will be served from there. Edgewood Park, being close to Wilkinsburg, will be merged into that borough as far as postal matters are concerned. A carrier station will be established in Wilkinsburg, and Edgewood Park will be served from there.

"McKees Rocks is badly in need of and entitled to a free delivery and postoffice of its own. I will leave Pittsburgh tomorrow morning, but will return on Monday and give McKees Rocks my attention. From what I have learned that borough has the sufficient number of inhabitants, 10,000, to entitle it to free delivery."

WILL TALK UPON VEXED PROBLEMS

Dr. Francis L. Patton, of Princeton Will Lecture on Theology.

REV. LEVY IN "PREJUDICE"

Sewickley Methodist Episcopal Church Celebrates Golden Anniversary—Baptists to Inaugurate Evangelistic Campaign.

Presbyterians of Pittsburgh and vicinity are displaying unusual interest in the series of sermons which the Rev. Dr. Francis L. Patton, former president of Princeton university, will deliver next week in the Third Presbyterian church. The series will open Monday night and continue every night, Wednesday excepted, for a week. Dr. Patton's sermons are to be wholly of a theological nature and will deal with some vital questions which have been puzzling the minds of theologians of all denominations for many years.

Dr. Patton will speak on the following topics: Monday, "The Theistic View of the World;" Tuesday, "The Seats of Authority in Religion;" Thursday, "The New Christianity;" Friday, "The Person of Christ;" Saturday, at 4 p. m., "The Subjective and Objective Sides of Salvation." On Monday evening, November 24, the subject is: "The Divine Purpose."

Dr. Patton will deliver the annual address before the Young Men's Christian association of the East End, in the East Liberty Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

Rabbi Levy's Lecture.

The fourth Sunday service of the second series of Sunday services held by Reform Congregation Rodeph Shalon, will be held in the Temple tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. I. Leonard Levy will deliver a lecture entitled "Prejudice." This service will be entirely in English and the general public is invited to attend.

The Pittsburgh Baptist association will, beginning with next week, inaugurate a big evangelistic campaign, which will last well into the winter. The meetings will be under the direction of the evangelistic committee of the district, with the Rev. J. M. Thomas of the South Side chairman. The ministers of the association have all promised to go wherever sent by the committee, and they will follow the apostolic method and go out two by two. The committee is busy now selecting the men, and have arranged for about 25 meetings. Others will be arranged later. Among the points already arranged for are: Tarentum, Leechburg, Saltburg, Freeport, Banksville, Rankin, Woods Run and Troy Hill. The meetings in the city will not begin until the outlying districts have been looked after.

Its Golden Jubilee.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Methodist Episcopal church of Sewickley will take place tomorrow. All the ministers living, who have been identified with the church, have been invited to attend, and a number of them will deliver addresses. Interesting programs have been arranged. In the afternoon a Sunday school rally will take place, and former officers, teachers and scholars of the school are expected to be present.

The Rt. Rev. Bisho, Richard Phelan will confirm a class of 150 candidates at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, Bloomfield, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Included in this number are several converts. A special sermon will be delivered and special music has been prepared.

Members and friends of the congregation of the Lincoln avenue Methodist Episcopal church, who are 60 years of age and over, have been invited to visit the parsonage tomorrow afternoon to meet Mrs. Anna Slutz, mother of the pastor, the Rev. Worthington B. Slutz. The hours are from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Harry Lee Cornwall, organist of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Craft and Forbes avenues, will give the seventh recital of the Sunday evening series at 7:15 tomorrow evening. The program will consist of: 1, Introduction-Choral; 2, Minuet Gothique; 3, Priere a Notre Dame; 4, Fanfare.

Pictures Will Be Shown.

Robert D. McGonigle will deliver an illustrated lecture, from photographs taken by himself, in the Fourth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Pittsburgh District Epworth League Training school will meet in the Lincoln avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday, November 20. There will be two sessions, at 9 and at 7:30 o'clock. President Miles will deliver an address.

Reproductions of famous paintings from the leading art galleries of Europe will be exhibited in the Bijou theater tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. These masterpieces have been accurately photographed by a new process, and will be produced in enlarged size upon a screen by stereopticon, to illustrate the Rev. S. Edward Young's theme, "The Divine Drama of the Gospel." Photographs taken by Mr. Young in the Holy Land will also be shown. Madame Adelina Regis-Rossini, the harpist of the Pittsburgh orchestra, will render religious selections, and Benjamin Franklin Butts will sing.

Miss A. L. Forrest, a missionary of the Woman's Board of the Methodist Protestant church, after a number of years among the home churches, is about to return to Japan. A farewell service in her honor will be held in the First church, Allegheny, Monday evening, November 17, at 8 o'clock.

Her Life Might Have Been Saved

Two-thirds of the inmates of our hospitals are women. They are in most cases either for treatment or for an operation, made necessary by advanced stages of female troubles, which have resulted in ovaritis, a tumor, or displacement of the womb.

"AN OPERATION NECESSARY."

How these words after the examination strike terror to a woman's soul, and with what regrets she hears them, when she considers that the operation has become necessary through her own neglect. Female derangements cannot cure themselves, and neglecting the warnings of nature only means putting it off until there is no cure. The woman who lets her trouble make headway pays the penalty of a dangerous operation and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at the best, and the operation often proves fatal when her life might have been saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration; or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, and the blues, they should remember that there is one tried and never-failing remedy; Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound at once removes such troubles.

READ THE FOLLOWING LETTERS.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot tell you how much good you have done me and how thankful I am to you for it. For five years I have not been free from pain for a day. I have had backaches, headaches, and those awful dragging sensations with leucorrhœa, and when menstruation appeared I was in such a condition I could hardly sit up. I doctored all the time, but nothing helped me, and I was told that an operation was necessary.

"Two months ago a friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No one knows what it has done for me and how thankful I am for it. It brought me the first well days I have had for five years. It did for me what doctors could not do, and I want every suffering woman to know about it."—LOUISE NAUER, 751 E. 166th St., New York City.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had terrible hemorrhages, being operated upon after the birth of my child. The doctor told me that if I would have an operation I would be well and strong. I submitted to it, but was worse than before; no one knows what I suffered. Finally a friend advised me to try your Vegetable Compound; I did so, and commenced to feel better; I continued its use, and it has done for me what doctors could not do. I am strong and well. If women with any kind of female troubles would only consult you before submitting to an operation they would be spared many hours of pain and suffering. I cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me."—ANNA KIRCHHOFF, 157 E. 108th St., New York City.

$5000.00 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

MONOPOLIZING TOBACCO TRADE

Pittsburgh Retailers Confronted With Competition by the Trust.

MANY STORES TO START

The American Tobacco Company's United Cigar Stores Company Is Leasing Many Stores for Retail Trade.

The American Tobacco Company, which it is believed can also be listed alias the Continental Tobacco Company, alias the Havana Commercial Company, alias the United Cigar Stores Company, has started in to control the cigar and tobacco trade in Pittsburgh, just as it is trying to control it in Chicago and New York. The company has only one store in operation here now, but already nine other locations have been leased and before April 1, 1903, it is expected from 20 to 30 cigar stores will have been opened in competition with Pittsburgh retailers. The stores will be owned by the United Cigar Stores Company, a corporation which is believed by Pittsburgh retailers and jobbers in cigars and tobacco to be owned by stockholders of the American Tobacco Company, the so-called trust.

The company made its first start in the Pittsburgh trade by buying out Charles Weidman and Charles J. Moye, whose stand is in Smithfield street. Other retailers were approached, but they refused to sell, Moye & Weidman finally sold out for a good price and were made the United Cigar Store Company's managers for the Western Pennsylvania district.

Prices on Cheap Goods Cut.

As a gentle hint to retailers of what might be coming the store posted up notices early this week that all 5 cent cigars would be hereafter sold 6 for 25 cents. Other reductions in the prices of well-known goods are to be made, it is understood. In Chicago the company has regular bargain days, on which it sells 5 cent cigars at seven and eight for a quarter. Retailers are wondering when the company will begin to sell the finer cigars, Henry Clays and Principe de Gales at reduced prices. As the so-called tobacco trust controls 90 per cent of the manufactories of Havana, there is no telling when it may decide to reduce the retail prices on those goods through the United Cigar Stores Company.

The new company has tried to buy out some of the more prominent stores in the city, notably one in Fifth avenue, but being unable to make a bargain it has leased store rooms in as close vicinity to the place wanted as possible. In one case it will open a store within two doors of a prominent retailer, and the company has leased a store room just around the corner from another store which the same retailer operates.

Proposed Comforts for Busy Men.

The jobbers and retailers are convinced, despite denials by officers of the so-called tobacco trust, that the trust owns the United Cigar Stores Company. It brought the British cigar and tobacco manufacturers to terms by threatening to start cigar stores in London in opposition to their retail shops, and why, the question is asked, should it not try to freeze out the retailers in Pittsburgh and in other cities of the United States. In other lines manufacturers have gone into the jobbing trade, and it is supposed that the American Tobacco Company has decided to venture still deeper and to enter the retail trade.

It is said that the stores to be operated by the trust will be fitted up more magnificently than those of the other interests who have been starting stores in the city; that there will be reading rooms in connection with some of them, and pens, ink and paper, and desks for busy men who have dropped in for a smoke and a moment's rest. The company will also try to cater to the "moral element" by eschewing cigar stands in bar rooms or at the entrance to saloons.

The principal retailers in Pittsburgh do not care to be quoted in antagonism. Some admit that they cannot afford to antagonize the trust; others profess not to be afraid of the movement, and still others are said to recognize that it is a business that was started by themselves, although they did not anticipate that the trust, recognizing a good thing, would try to get all of it.

Regrets of Small Retailers.

Some of the smaller retailers regret that the trust has engaged in the store business, for they fear that they themselves will be forced to do as the average butcher now does, pay full prices for their goods and sell at a limited profit.

In its September issue the Cigarmakers' Official Journal pokes fun at the retailers and tells them that if they had handled only union-made goods the trust, with its cigars and cigarettes made by girls and children would never have got strong enough to engage in the retail business.

CREED WILL BE REVISED.

All of the Presbyteries That Have Voted Are in Favor of a Change.

Information has been received in Pittsburgh that 110 of the presbyteries of the Presbyterian church that have voted are in favor of the revision of the creed. It is a solid vote so far and is almost one-half of the total number of presbyteries. It will require but 50 more presbyteries to put the plan through.

Letters of appeal are coming to the members of the Pittsburgh presbytery, not to mar the harmony. The Rev. E. R. Donehoo and the Rev. Richard S. Holmes express themselves as in favor of a new brief creed. Elder Robert S. Holmes, who was the commissioner of the First church to the meeting of the presbytery, but was not able to be present, is in favor of revision all the way through and expects to represent his church at the December meeting, and cast a different vote from the one cast last Tuesday by the substitute elder.

Railroad Agent Kills Himself.

COSHOCTON, O., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Warner Strauss, agent of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railroad at Kilbuck, took his life today by shooting himself in the head. He arose early and a pistol shot by her side awakened his wife, to find her husband lying dead by the bed. The cause of the act is a mystery. His parents live in Coshocton.

"WINDPROOF" COAT.

A New Garment That Hails from Chicago.

Something new in the garment line to keep the cold at bay has just made its appearance, and has met with an instantaneous success in the west. They call it the "Windproof" Coat because the chilly blasts cannot get through the fabric, which is likewise almost as good a rain shedder as a mackintosh.

These garments have the lightness of a fall top coat combined with the warmth of the heaviest winter great coat. They present the outward appearance of a neat dark Oxford mixture, with strap seams, velvet collar and other points of gentility. The inside finish of the cloth is a splendid representation of twilled silk serge, and this takes the place of the lining.

Everybody in Chicago who has to breast the storms is buying them, and the first hundred to reach Pittsburgh are now at Campbell's, where they will be sold at an introductory price—for Five Dollars each.

50 Members of Congress Send Letters of Endorsement TO the Inventor of the Great Catarrh Remedy, Pe=ru=na

Hon. H. H. Powers.

Congressman Powers, of Vermont.

Congressman H. Henry Powers, of Vermont, writes from Morrisville, Vermont:

"Peruna I have used in my family with success. I can recommend it as an excellent family remedy and very good for coughs, colds and catarrhal affections."

Catarrh in its various forms is rapidly becoming a national curse. An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Peruna cures catarrh in all phases and stages. There is no remedy that can be substituted.

Hon. Irvine Dungan.

Congressman Irvine Dungan, of Jackson, Ohio.

Congressman Irvine Dungan, of Jackson, Ohio, elected to the Fifty-second Congress as a Democrat, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"I desire to join with my many friends in recommending your invaluable remedy, Peruna, to anyone in need of an invigorating tonic, and whose system is run down by catarrhal troubles. Peruna is a permanent and effective cure for catarrh and I would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to try this remarkable remedy."

IRVINE DUNGAN.

Hon. Romulus Z. Linney.

Congressman Linney, from North Carolina.

Congressman Romulus Z. Linney, from North Carolina, writes:

"My private secretary has been using Peruna for several weeks, and I wish to testify as to its great value and merits in cases of catarrh. My secretary had as bad a case as ever I saw, and since he has taken one bottle he seems like a different man. Before he started on Peruna his system was very much run down, and at times he could not work at all, but ever since his first bottle he has been building up. I don't think any man who is under a nervous strain should be without it. I cannot express the good it has done him."

Congressman Ogden, from Louisiana.

Hon. H. W. Ogden, Congressman from Louisiana, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says the following of Peruna, the national catarrh remedy:

"I can conscientiously recommend your Peruna as a fine tonic and all-round good medicine to those who are in need of a catarrh remedy. It has been commended to me by people who have used it as a remedy particularly effective in the cure of catarrh. For those who need a good catarrh medicine I know of nothing better."

Hon. H. W. Ogden.

Congressman Smith, from Illinois

Hon. George W. Smith, member of Congress, in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., says the following in regard to Peruna for catarrh:

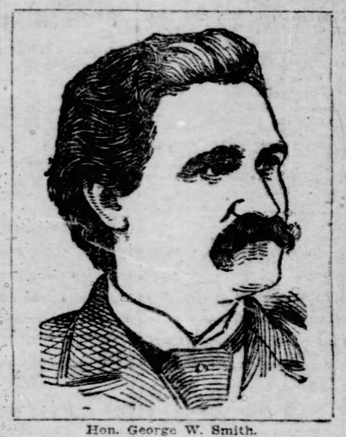
House of Representatives, U. S., Washington, D. C.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

Gentlemen—I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of Peruna. I have taken one bottle for my catarrh and I feel very much benefited. To those who are afflicted with catarrh and in need of a good tonic I take pleasure in recommending Peruna."

Respectfully, GEO. W. SMITH.

Congressman Smith's home address is Murphysboro, Ill.



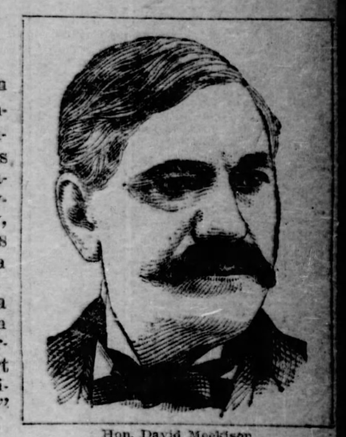
Hon. George W. Smith.

Congressman Meekison, from Ohio.

Hon. David Meekison is well known not only in his own State, but throughout America. He began his political career by serving four consecutive terms as mayor of the town in which he lives, Napoleon, O. He was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the State. In a recent letter he says:

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be able to fully eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."

Yours truly, DAVID MEEKISON.



Hon. David Meekison.

Hon. D. F. Wilber.

CONGRESSMAN WILBER OF NEW YORK.

Congressman D. F. Wilber of Oneonta, N. Y., writes:

"The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

"Gentlemen—Persuaded by a friend I have tried your remedy and I have almost fully recovered after the use of a few bottles. I am fully convinced that Peruna is all you claim for it, and I cheerfully recommend your medicine to all who are afflicted with catarrhal trouble." DAVID F. WILBER.

CONGRESSMAN BARHAM FROM CALIFORNIA.

Congressman J. A. Barham of Santa Rosa, California, writes:

"At the solicitation of a friend I used your Peruna, and can cheerfully recommend it as an excellent remedy for all catarrhal troubles. It is indeed a wonderful medicine."

CONGRESSMAN SNOVER OF MICHIGAN.

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., May 9, 1898.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir—I have found Peruna a very efficient and speedy remedy for a persistent and annoying cough resulting from catarrhal trouble. Very truly yours,

HORACE G. SNOVER.

Fort Austin, Mich.

U. S. SENATOR CALL OF FLORIDA.

Hon. William Call, United States Senator from Florida, writing from Washington, D. C., says:

"The Peruna has been recommended by Gen. Wheeler and other reliable persons and has been used by some members of my family, and I concur in the statements of Gen. Wheeler."

CONGRESSMAN DOVENER OF WEST VIRGINIA.

Congressman B. B. Dovener, from Wheeling, West Virginia, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"I join with my colleagues in the House of Representatives in recommending your excellent remedy, Peruna, as a good tonic and also an effective cure for catarrh."

CONGRESSMAN BRODERICK FROM KANSAS.

Hon. Case Broderick of Holton, Kan., Congressman from Kansas, says:

"I have taken two bottles of Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for colds and throat trouble."

CONGRESSMAN BREWER OF ALABAMA.

Hon. Willis Brewer, Representative in Congress from Alabama, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman:

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I have used one bottle of Peruna for lassitude, and I take pleasure in recommending it to those who need a good remedy. As a tonic it is excellent. In the short time I have used it it has done me a great deal of good. Very respectfully, WILLIS BREWER.

Hon. J. H. Bankhead.

CONGRESSMAN BANKHEAD FROM ALABAMA.

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his indorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

"Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and a catarrh cure I know of nothing better."

CONGRESSMAN FITZPATRICK FROM KENTUCKY.

Hon. F. Y. Fitzpatrick, Congressman from Kentucky, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"At the solicitation of a friend, I used your Peruna and can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with catarrh or who needs a good tonic."

F. Y. FITZPATRICK.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located in the human system.

Hon. F. Y. Fitzpatrick.

CONGRESSMAN ZENOR FROM INDIANA.

Congressman William T. Zenor of Corydon, Indiana, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"I have used several bottles of Peruna for catarrhal and disordered blood troubles, and find that it is a most excellent remedy."

SENATOR M'ENERY OF LOUISIANA.

Hon. S. D. McEnery, United States Senator from Louisiana, says the following in regard to Peruna:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—Peruna is an excellent tonic. I have used it sufficiently to say that I believe it to be all that you claim for it. Very respectfully,

S. D. M'ENERY.

CONGRESSMAN BROWNLOW OF TENNESSEE.

Congressman Brownlow writes from Washington, D. C., the following:

"I have suffered with catarrh of the stomach for several years and for the past 12 months was in an exceedingly critical condition. My attention was called to your Peruna and I began to use it, and my improvement was noticeable after the first three days. I have taken three bottles of the medicine and I feel satisfied that I am now almost, if not permanently, cured. In connection with the Peruna I have used your Manalin for biliousness and torpid liver. I regard it as the best medicine for this purpose that I have ever used. Having been benefited so much myself, I give you this statement that others may be likewise benefited."

W. P. BROWNLOW, M. C.

CONGRESSMAN WHITE FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

Congressman Henry White, of Tarboro, North Carolina, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman, in regard to the merits of the great catarrh cure, Peruna:

"I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family, and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."

Yours respectfully,

GEORGE H. WHITE.

Hon. George H. White.

Hon. H. G. Worthington.

CONGRESSMAN WORTHINGTON FROM NEVADA.

Congressman H. G. Worthington from Nevada, ex-Minister to Argentine Republic, also at one time collector of port at Charleston, was an intimate friend of General Grant and is one of the two living pallbearers of President Lincoln. Congressman Worthington writes the following letter:

"Allow me to express my gratitude for the benefit derived from your remedies. I have taken one bottle of Peruna and it has benefited immensely a case of catarrh of some months' standing, and I commend it."

CONGRESSMAN HAZELTON OF WISCONSIN.

Hon. Geo. C. Hazelton, ex-member of Congress from Wisconsin, writes:

"I cordially recommend your Peruna to any one suffering with catarrh. I am fully convinced of its curative qualities."

SENATOR MALLORY OF FLORIDA.

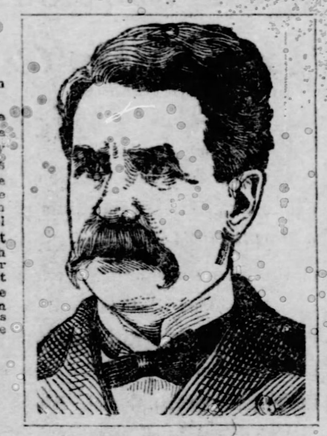
United States Senator Stephen R. Mallory, from Florida, in a recent letter written from Pensacola, Fla., says the following:

"I have used your excellent remedy, Peruna, and have recommended it both as a tonic and a safe catarrh remedy."

SENATOR BUTLER OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Senator M. C. Butler, ex-governor of South Carolina, writes from Washington, D. C., the following:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is, indeed, a wonderful medicine, and, besides, a great tonic."



Hon. S. S. Yoder.

CONGRESSMAN TURNER FROM NEW YORK.

Hon. Chas. H. Turner, 561 G. street, Washington, D. C., ex-member of Congress from New York city, writes:

"I have used your remedy, Peruna, as a general tonic with satisfactory results. I have many friends who have testified to its virtues and fully believe you have a valuable remedy."

CONGRESSMAN THOMPSON OF KENTUCKY.

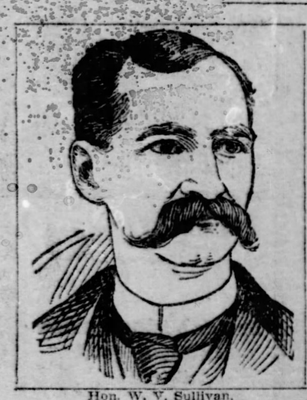
Ex-Congressman Phil. B. Thompson, from Kentucky, writes:

"My friends have used your remedy, Peruna, and I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of your medicine. Besides being one of the very best tonics, it is a good, substantial catarrh remedy."

CONGRESSMAN CLARK OF MISSOURI.

Ex-Congressman John B. Clark, from Missouri, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"I can recommend your Peruna as a good, substantial tonic and one of the best remedies for catarrhal trouble."



Hon. W. V. Sullivan.

SENATOR SULLIVAN FROM MISSISSIPPI.

Hon. W. V. Sullivan, United States Senator from Mississippi, in a letter recently written to Dr. Hartman from Oxford, Miss., says the following:

"For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its most incipient stage, so much so that I became alarmed as to my general health. But hearing of Peruna as a good remedy, I gave it a fair trial and soon began to improve. Its effects were distinctly beneficial, removing the annoying symptoms, and was particularly good as a tonic.

"I take pleasure in recommending your great national catarrh cure, Peruna, as the best I have ever tried."

W. V. SULLIVAN.

CONGRESSMAN LIVINGSTON FROM GEORGIA.

Col. L. I. Livingston, member of the Industrial Commission and the leading Democratic member of the Committee on Appropriations in the House of Representatives, whose home is at Atlanta, Ga., writes the following in regard to Peruna, the catarrh cure. Col. Livingston says:

Congressman Fred S. Goodrich of Florida.

Congressman Harry Skinner of North Carolina.

Congressman Zach Taylor of Tennessee.

Congressman J. H. Huling of West Virginia.

Congressman D. L. Russell of North Carolina.

Congressman E. J. Turner of Kansas.

Congressman Spencer Blackburn of North Carolina.

Congressman M. L. Dewecse and ex-U. S. Senator Corbin.

CONGRESSMAN BROOKSHIRE OF INDIANA.

Congressman E. V. Brookshire, from Indiana, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"From what my friends say Peruna is a good tonic and a safe catarrh cure."

CONGRESSMAN PELHAM OF VIRGINIA.

Ex-Congressman C. Pelham, of Bancroft, Va., writes:

"My sister-in-law has been suffering from catarrh of the throat for a considerable time. She has been using Peruna for about one week and is manifestly improved. I believe it is an excellent remedy for catarrh."

SENATOR THURSTON FROM NEBRASKA.

Senator J. M. Thurston, from Omaha, Neb., writes:

"Peruna entirely relieved me of an irritating cough."

J. M. THURSTON.

CONGRESSMAN CULBERSON OF TEXAS.

Hon. D. B. Culberson, ex-Congressman from Texas, writes:

"I can recommend Peruna as one of the very best of tonics, and I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of your great medicine. It is also recommended as a sure cure for catarrhal troubles."

CONGRESSMAN BOTKIN FROM KANSAS.

In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, Congressman Botkin, of Kansas, whose fame is a national one, says of Peruna:

My Dear Doctor—"It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent curative qualities of your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I have been afflicted more or less for a quarter of a century with catarrh of the stomach and constipation. A residence in Washington has increased these troubles. A few bottles of your medicine has given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure. Peruna is surely a wonderful remedy for catarrhal affections."—J. D. Botkin.

Hon. J. D. Botkin

CONGRESSMAN BURNETT FROM ALABAMA.

John L. Burnett, member of Congress, Seventh Alabama District, writes:

"I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of your Peruna. At the solicitation of a friend, my wife used it and it improved her condition generally. It is a remarkable remedy. I can cheerfully recommend Peruna as a good, substantial tonic, and a very good catarrh remedy."

CONGRESSMAN PURMAN FROM FLORIDA.

Hon. W. J. Purman, ex-member of Congress from Florida, writes from 1423 Q street, N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"From representations to me and my own experience I feel justified in recommending your Peruna to men and all persons suffering with catarrhal nervousness or stomach troubles."

CONGRESSMAN MAHON OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Congressman Thad. M. Mahon, of Chambersburg, Pa., writes:

"I take pleasure in commending your Peruna as a substantial tonic and a good catarrh remedy."

SOCIETY

Miss Rebecca Darlington is expected in Pittsburgh on Monday morning, and will be the guest of Miss Madelaine Laughlin. She will accompany Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones, Mrs. Alexander Laughlin, Jr., and Miss Madelaine Laughlin home from New York, but is planning to stay only until after the Walton-Childs wedding on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Darlington and Miss Laughlin will both be in the group of maids attending Miss Walton, and arranged to come home from New York, only in time to take part in the few preliminary festivities arranged for the bridal party. On Monday evening Miss Walton expects to give a dinner for the maids, and Mr. Childs at the same time will entertain the best man and ushers. On Tuesday afternoon the wedding rehearsal will be held, followed by the dinner which Mrs. Harvey Childs, Jr., will give for the entire bridal party. On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the wedding will take place.

After the wedding, Miss Darlington will return to New York to join Mr. and Mrs. Harry Darlington at the Holland house and a few days later they will go to Boston to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bennett. Mrs. Bennett will be remembered as Miss Margaret Darlington. Master Harry Darlington, Jr., is to come down from his school, St. Paul's, at Concord, N. H., for the Thanksgiving recess. The boys at St. Paul's are permitted to go no farther away than Boston, consequently the Darlingtons will have their family party there. The family will return to Pittsburgh December 1, and expect to remain until the holidays. They will probably go south a little earlier than usual this season, as they are taking no part in social affairs this season, because of the death of Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Darlington's mother, in the spring.

Old Time Fair in Allegheny.

An old-time fair, under the auspices of St. Peter's church, Allegheny, will open next Monday evening, at the School hall, North and West Diamond streets, and continue for two weeks. The committees have been hard at work for the past two months preparing for the event and many features of an interesting nature will greet the visitor. Concerts, entertainments, euchres and dancing will be provided, with a change of program each evening. Following are the committees:

Executive committee—Charles M. McNally, James A. Connel, S. H. Rafferty, James J. McKee, D. Hayes, Hugh Campbell, Thomas McDonald, Joseph A. Isherwood, Charles Stein, P. Hennigan, David McGeary, William J. Dixon, Richard Mahoney, C. C. Reel, James F. McNally, William Smith, Joseph H. Sauers, Joseph A. Fisher, James Curran, P. J. Inglesby.

Door committee—James Curran, Edward Flannegan, Thomas McCowan, P. J. Larkins, Patrick Rooney, Sr., Martin Leonard, P. Reilly, A. J. Lennox, Thomas Nellis, A. J. Briggs, Harry Mackin and James Ward.

Floor committee—Joseph A. Isherwood, Titus Glocker, Patrick Rooney, Jr., Charles Campbell, James Gallagher, John Flinn, Samuel Hanna, Thomas McCallom, Frank Markey, William Markey, M. J. Griffin, P. Kinswater, Harry Fagan, William Dixon, Dave McGeary, James F. McNally, William Smith, Joseph H. Sauers, Joseph A. Fisher, James Curran, P. J. Inglesby.

Door committee—James Curran, Edward Flannegan, Thomas McCowan, P. J. Larkins, Patrick Rooney, Sr., Martin Leonard, P. Reilly, A. J. Lennox, Thomas Nellis, A. J. Briggs, Harry Mackin and James Ward.

Floor committee—Joseph A. Isherwood, Titus Glocker, Patrick Rooney, Jr., Charles Campbell, James Gallagher, John Flinn, Samuel Hanna, Thomas McCallom, Frank Markey, William Markey, M. J. Griffin, P. Kinswater, Harry Fagan, William Dixon, Dave McGeary, James F. McNally, William Smith, Joseph H. Sauers, Joseph A. Fisher, James Curran, P. J. Inglesby.

Press committee—Joseph A. Fisher, Daniel Battles, J. M. Rafferty, William Kuhn, L. A. Butler.

Entertainment committee—Joseph H. Sauers, James P. McNally, Charles M. McNally, Thomas Connelly, Thomas Hays, Charles Goehring, L. C. Stuckrath, Charles Rafferty, Hugh Cunningham, Arthur McKay, Morris Powers, Joseph Brady, Charles Strain, James J. Connell, Homer Reel, C. C. Reel.

The following ladies will assist: Mesdames James Battles, Harry Markey, J. Morgan, A. Lennox, William Dixon, William Smith, Anna Bigham, Ella Carr, Anna DeMaris, Mollie Rafferty and the Misses Ida Killen, Agnes Battles, Bessie Markey, Anna Hawkins, Ella Morgan, Bridget King, Sadie King, Celia Moran, Anna Moran, Gertrude Shields, Agnes Griffin, Anna Winker, Mary Ward, Rose Gunn, Ella Mango, Rose Quinn, May Battles, Peg Costello, Alice Nesom, Mame Kennedy, Teresa McLinden, Bessie Garrigan, Margaret Reiter, Gertrude Paff, Emma Kahler, Annie Stuckrath, Katherine Flinn, Stella Beck, Mary Murphy, Beatrice Reed, Mary Ingoldsby, Stella Herron, Maree Herron, Mary McGready, Mae Heighan, Annie Hays, Mary Puhl, Annie Reel, Blanche Willison, Francis McGill, Nan Isherwood.

Coming to Town for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Jones, Jr., closed their summer home, "Fairacres," in Sewickley heights this week and have returned to Allegheny and their home in Irwin avenue. They went to their summer home late in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones, Sr., came to the city 10 days ago and went on immediately to New York, accompanied by Mrs. Alexander Laughlin, Jr., and Miss Laughlin.

The summer colony in Sewickley heights is scattered. Mr. and Mrs. William P. Snyder went to New York a couple of weeks ago from their home in Sewickley. In the meantime their house in Edgeworth avenue and Colonial place, Shadyside, has been placed in readiness for their return to the city. They also went to Sewickley heights early in the summer.

Mrs. William Thaw, Jr., and her daughter, Miss Burd Thaw, have found "As You Like It," their beautiful new summer home in the colony of new summer places in Sewickley heights so very enjoyable that they have delayed their return to their house in Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, until late in the fall. "As You Like It" was only completed for occupancy the middle of the summer.

Meeting of Collegiate Alumnae.

The Pittsburgh branch of the Collegiate Alumnae association held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the Young Women's Christian association, where it will hold all of its regular monthly meetings this year. This year the Pittsburgh alumnae aim to offer a scholarship, to be secured by competitive examination by a candidate for any college represented in the association. Last winter, from the lecture delivered by William Bryan, $300 was realized.

The officers of the Pittsburgh branch of the Collegiate Alumnae association are Miss Ethel Muir, of Cornell, president; Mrs. Clarence J. Geer, of Smith, vice president; Miss Florence Harlow, of Oberlin, secretary; Miss Eleanor Laird, of Wellesley, treasurer, and Miss Ella Knapp, University of Michigan, director.

On to New York for the Horse Show.

The horse show in Madison Square Garden, New York, next week, is attracting a great many Pittsburgh admirers of things equine. Several horses from this city have been entered.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Peacock left this week for New York and will take in the Yale-Princeton football game at Princeton today, before going on to the metropolis for the horse show. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thaw expect to go east next week for the horse show, and others who will be in Madison Square Garden all or a part of the coming week are Mr. and Mrs. John P. Knable, who leave tomorrow evening; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Bennett, who go about Wednesday, to meet their daughter, Miss Jane Bennett, now in New York; Mr. and Mrs. James Holland Hammond, Sebastian Mueller, who will leave on Monday, and Howard C. Heinz, who expects to go east at the same time.

Two Brides Entertained.

Two of the recent brides, Mrs. Eugene Valliant, who was Miss Burchinal, and Mrs. Robert W. Kiser, formerly Miss Sands, were guests of honor at the pretty informal 4 o'clock tea which Miss Jean Shaw gave yesterday at her home in St. Clair street, East End. The guests included the circle of friends of the hostess and her guests of honor. Pretty decorations prevailed throughout the first floor of the house. In the parlors were clusters of large pink chrysanthemums and in the dining room the flowers, which were also chrysanthemums, were yellow. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. George Sands, Mrs. Humphries Miller, Miss Jeannette Riggs and Miss Julia Patterson, Mrs. Sands and Mrs. Miller pouring the tea.

The tea was followed by a dinner for the guests of honor and the assistants and as many men.

The Mozart Club Concerts.

The Mozart club has arranged a series of distinguished concerts this season, opening with Haydn's "Creation" on Tuesday evening, November 25. The soloists on that occasion will be Mrs. M. Hissem de Moss of New York, soprano; Edwin H. Douglass, Cleveland, tenor; Herbert Witherspoon, New York, bass, and the Pittsburgh Orchestra supportius.

The "Messiah," the annual holiday concert, will be sung on December 30. On March 17 Horatio W. Parker's "Hora Novissima," an oratorio whose first production in Pittsburgh is now being arranged for, will be given and the closing concert of the season on May 15, will be of a miscellaneous character. The program is not fully determined yet, but Dubois' "Seven Last Words," a work not previously performed by the club, will be one of the most attractive numbers. An exceptionally fine showing is expected during this, the twenty-fifth season of the Mozart club. After 9 o'clock on the day of November 20, season seats may be selected at the box office, No. 319 Fifth avenue, the ticket arrangement this year being the same as last, and tickets for the same seats being mailed direct to associate members prior to each concert after the first.

Interesting Social Affairs.

Mrs. Rowland Erving entertained at cards yesterday afternoon at her home in Colonial place, her guests being chiefly the younger society girls and brides of a season or two.

This afternoon Miss Katherine Murdock will make her debut at the tea which her mother, Mrs. James B. Murdock, will give at her home in Shadyside.

Mrs. Henry Percival Boggs, Mrs. Frank H. Lea and Mrs. Henry Bruce Beatty will be joint hostesses at a reception this afternoon at Mrs. Lea's home in Rebecca street, East End. The hours will be from 5 o'clock until 6.

Mrs. Eugene L. Messler gives the second of her Saturday teas this month at her home, Irwin avenue, East End, today.

A Kitchen Shower.

Mrs. Hepburn Johns of Edgeworth was hostess at an elaborate kitchen shower and card party last evening in honor of Miss Hortense Elaine Watts and Robert W. Dickson, whose wedding takes place this month. There were 50 guests present and a large and varied assortment of kitchen utensils was provided for the young couple. The invitations were quite original, the hostess composing a short verse which was written on brown wrapping paper. Following the first part of the evening, which was given over to the "shower" and an informal reception, the entertainment included cards, six-handed euchre being the game.

Living Pictures in Sewickley.

The living picture entertainment given in the chapel of the Sewickley Methodist Episcopal church last evening was in every way enjoyable and a very large crowd was in attendance. The pictures were given under the direction of Miss Anna Sheriff of Allegheny and music, both vocal and instrumental, was in charge of David Ormisher. Twenty-five pictures were exhibited, a very good variety having been selected, each of which brought great applause and several were repeated by request.

Tea and Cards.

Miss Hanna gave a very pretty informal tea yesterday afternoon at her home in Alder street, East End. The decorations were exceedingly dainty and the company, though small, was composed of personal friends. There were several tables for cards. Miss Hanna was assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. J. Wilson, Miss Negley and Miss Graff.

Conservatory Housewarming.

Beveridge Webster, director of the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music, yesterday issued invitations for an informal reception and housewarming for the new conservatory building in North Dithridge street, Bellefield, to be held on Monday evening, November 24, and as Mr. Webster says: "There will be a warm welcome, a cold lunch, a little music and no speeches."

Returning from Their Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Longnecker are in New York for a few days, before returning to Pittsburgh from their wedding trip. Mrs. Longnecker will be remembered as Miss Grace Humbird. Mr. and Mrs. James Humbird's eldest daughter. Today Mr. and Mrs. Longnecker will go to Princeton for the football game.

At Home Days.

A few days ago Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKee returned from their wedding trip south and are now established at "The Beechwood," Forbes and Shady avenue, East End. Their at home days are after November 15. Mrs. McKee was Miss Florence Ong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finley K. Ong of South Negley avenue. The wedding was an event of October 7.

Invitations Are Out.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Broad street, Carnegie, yesterday issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Lola Mabel, to Charles Edward Wright, of Cincinnati, O. The ceremony will be performed in the Presbyterian church, Carnegie, Tuesday evening, November 25, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Wright was formerly librarian of the Carnegie library, but is now engaged in a similar capacity in Cincinnati.

Notes of Society.

Mr. and Mrs. William Speer Kuhn and their niece, Miss Sallie Dunbar, are in the east to attend both the football game today and the horse show next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morrow, whose wedding took place on Wednesday evening, the bride having been Miss Ellen Breedon Reed of Oakland, are stopping for a few days in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Hussey and her daughter and son, Miss Clara Hussey and C. C. Hussey, are in New York, having gone on for the football game and the horse show.

Mr. and Mrs. William Doak will give an at home on Friday evening, November 28, at their home, No. 1, Jackson street, Allegheny, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

New Sanctuary for St. Paul's.

The new sanctuary for St. Paul's monastery, South Side, consisting of the "Crucifiction Group" and the "Visions of St. Paul," has arrived in New York from Italy. It is a part of the splendid ornament of the monastery to be installed for the big jubilee the first of the year. The statuary will probably reach this city today and the work of placing it in position will require a month.

Girl Fell From a Window.

—Annie Gruber, daughter of John Gruber of Manhattan street, Allegheny, was seriously injured yesterday by falling from the third story of her home. She was cleaning a window and while leaning over the sill fell backward to the pavement below. Two ribs, the right arm and collar bone were broken and she sustained internal injuries.

Munhall's New Buildings.

—Ground was broken in Munhall yesterday morning for the new municipal building and new engine house. The municipal building will be at the corner of Eighth avenue and Andrew street and will cost $30,000. The new fire engine house at Martha and Eleventh avenue will cost $10,000.

WESTERN ALLEGHENY GROWS FAST CONNECTING MANY RAILROADS

The rapidity of the work now being done in the construction of the Western Allegheny railroad is causing general comment. Over 1,000 men are at work. The line will connect the Pittsburgh & Western, the Allegheny Valley and the Bessemer.

It will serve as a connecting link in shortening the haul of coal west from the territory to be developed in the region along Muddy creek, where the road runs. The Great Lakes Coal Company, composed largely of men interested in the old Carnegie companies, is backing the construction of this line.

Vandalia Made a Modern Line.

The nearness of the time when the Pennsylvania will take over the Vandalia has attracted attention to the progress of that important link in the Pennsylvania's chain of western lines under the present management. Six years ago the Vandalia was placed under the care of Volney T. Malott as receiver. It has been developed along the same lines that brought the Baltimore & Ohio out of bankruptcy, large amounts of money having been spent on it in such a way as to make the cost of operation fit modern conditions. Its traffic has been developed systematically, its trackage and locomotive and car equipment have all been largely increased and kept in the best of repair.

John C. Magill a Traffic Manager.

John C. Magill has been appointed traffic manager of the American Lumber Company of this city. Mr. Magill has been traveling freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Youngstown and is one of the best known railroad men in the service of the old Pittsburgh & Western. In the discharge of his new duties he will have his headquarters in Pittsburgh. W. L. Cromlish, division freight agent of the Pittsburgh & Western lines, said yesterday that Mr. Magill's successor at Youngstown would not be announced for a day or so.

B. & O. Postal Service Larger.

The postal service on the Baltimore & Ohio locally will be considerably extended, beginning this morning. Full postal service will be inaugurated on trains 103 and 104, between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. The amount of business between these two cities has grown to such an extent that it forced the postal department to take this means of caring for it. There will be added also a combination coach and mail car today on trains 3 and 4 of the old Pittsburgh & Western.

Grand Trunk Grants Increase.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—The demands of the engineers and firemen of the Grand Trunk railway for increased wages have been met, to the extent of from 15 to 25 per cent, according to the division to which the men belong.

RAILROAD NOTES.

T. W. Gallaher, general freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Baltimore, was in the city yesterday.

E. B. Kennedy, assistant auditor of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, who has been ill for several weeks, has returned to work.

J. N. Johnston has been appointed commercial agent of the Baltimore & Ohio at New York. He will be in charge of the company's import and export traffic at that city.

George Metzgar has been appointed division freight agent of the Big Four, with headquarters at Cincinnati. This is the first change made since George Ingalls became general freight agent.

The annual report of the Union Pacific shows that $6,480,000 was used in permanent improvements and equipment additions and charged to capital account. For this, however, there was appropriated from the income over $3,000,000, making a net charge of a little over $3,000,000 against capital.

GROETZINGER'S RETURNS.

Reported That He Came Home Yesterday—Wife Says Not Expected for a Few Days.

Excitement was caused yesterday in Bellevue by persistent reports that Emil Groetzinger had returned home. Neighbors claimed that they had seen him enter his home, but it is probable that a brother, who greatly resembles him, was mistaken for the missing man. The letter carrier, who visited the Groetzinger home in the morning, had heard a report that Groetzinger had returned to work for the Crucible Steel Company.

Many persons called at the home to see Groetzinger and his wife was busy denying the rumors of his return. She said he is still near Philadelphia, but is likely to come home in a few days. She received a letter from him yesterday, saying that he was doing well. Officers of the Crucible Steel Company have informed Mrs. Groetzinger that her husband's position is open for him.

Miss Groetzinger, the sister to whom Groetzinger was carrying money and a glass case of wax flowers the night he disappeared, does not believe that he was attacked and beaten by robbers. She thinks if he had been the glass case would have been broken. Mrs. Groetzinger said yesterday that there is hope that Groetzinger's watch will be recovered by the detective employed.

Horse Runs Into River.

POUGHKEPSIE, Nov. 14.—Two weeks ago James A. Waters and Miss Kitty McLaughlin went driving, and as they did not return it was supposed they eloped. Today the horse and wagon they used were found in the Hudson river here and it is now believed the young couple were drowned. The theory is that the horse ran away and dashed into the river.

Evil Fortune Pursues Him.

A sad fate seems to be pursuing Edward Murray of 137 Grant avenue, Millvale. Within four days two of his children, Stella, aged 5, and Clarence, aged 22 months, have died, and two other children are seriously ill with measles.

Light as a Fall Overcoat. Warm as a Winter Overcoat.

The "Windproof" Coat That Caught Chicago Comes to Pittsburgh!

In appearance it is a stylish, medium-weight, single-breasted Overcoat, in dark Oxford mixture, with strap seams, velvet collar and all the good points of a genteel garment.

The twilled back of the cloth, which takes the place of a lining, looks like a handsome twilled silk serge.

This Overcoat is light, warm, odorless, serviceable, durable and inexpensive. Always a protection—never a burden.

The special process of treatment makes the fabric an absolute barrier against the wind and causes it to shed water almost as well as a Mackintosh.

No new garment in years has scored such an instantaneous success. It made its first appearance in Chicago and almost everyone in that city whose business compels him to brave the wind or breast the rain wears one.

The first hundred of these windproof coats to come to Pittsburgh have been placed with us for introduction. We will be glad to let you have one today for.....

and you can't find another stock equal to ours in quantity, quality, style and genuine price lowness. Of course, any other store can publish the same claims, but the fact remains, and every man knows it, that this house alone can do so truthfully. Merit always wins. That's why we do the bulk of the clothing trade of Pittsburgh—why the best dressers of both cities come to this vast clothing floor.

The Suits & Overcoats We Offer at $8.50 & $10

Are a most forcible example of the sterling worth and value we manage to crowd into our medium price goods. Good judges of Clothing will place these garments above those sold for $12 and $15 at other clothing houses. Note the excellent woolens they're made of, examine the high-class linings and trimmings and the faultless fit and finish. These goods will look well on any man, and, as we have all sizes, we can easily fit the tall or short, the stout or lean as well as the regular proportioned. The Suits come in the swell 3 and 4-Button almost Straight Front Single-Breasted and the 3-Button Double-Breasted styles and the Overcoats can be had in all the fashionable lengths: short, medium long, full length and extra long.

Custom Made Dress Pants at $3
Worth $5.
They're made of high-class All-Wool Materials, such as Worsteds, Cheviots, Cassimeres, Fancy Mixtures, etc., Blues and Blacks, etc., cut in the very latest peg top styles, and fitting to perfection.

Extra Fine: $15 to $20.
Very Finest: $25 to $35.

It may be hard on our merchant tailoring department to say so, but still we say it because it is the truth, no better Suits or Overcoats can be made to order than these ready-to-wear garments. If you leave your measure (and we shall be glad to take it) you will simply pay about 50 per cent more without corresponding benefit. These high-class garments are cut by custom cutters and made by custom tailors. The materials are the same as you can find on the tables of the most fashionable and highest priced tailors in town. The more particular you are, the better we shall like it, for these Suits and Overcoats will positively meet the wants and wishes of the most stylish dressers in this city.

LINES WEST ALSO INCREASE WAGES

Ten Per Cent Advance Extended to Whole Pennsylvania System.

150,000 MEN AFFECTED

The Raise in Wages Means $10,800,000 a Year More on Payrolls—Employes Show Appreciation of Move.

By the issuance of the official notice yesterday giving the men on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh a 10 per cent increase in wages, the Pennsylvania system has now raised the incomes of 150,000 men in its employ, affecting directly not less than 1,000,000 persons and indirectly the people of the whole country by scattering in a score of states over $900,000 monthly or $10,800,000 annually, more than at present.

When the notice of the increase on the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburgh was made Thursday it was exclusively stated in The Gazette that a similar step would be taken on the lines west. This prediction was borne out yesterday by the formal statement. There have been on the lines west during the year a number of increases to certain classes of employes affecting, it is said, less than 5 per cent of the men. In computing the increase for these men there will be added to their present salaries the difference between the advance they have received since January 1 last and the amount the 10 per cent increase entitles them to.

150,000 Men Are Affected.

The number of men affected on all the Pennsylvania railroad's eastern lines, is about 150,000. These figures are from official sources and are correct. The action taken at this time by the Pennsylvania lines west, does not affect the Vandalia system nor the Grand Rapids & Indiana, which are operated as separate companies, not directly merged with the Pennsylvania system. Whether the managements of these properties will fall in with the rest of the Pennsylvania system remains yet to be seen.

As in the lines east order the one for the lines west will not affect those whose salaries are at present $200 a month or more. There arises in this case, however, the question of an advance for the men whose salary is so close to $200 that the increase will make it more than that amount and hence exceed that of a superior on the present payroll, whose salary is $200 or a little more. It was stated that in all such cases the matter will be adjusted for the individual, but that the men would receive the full increase of 10 per cent, anyway.

Is a Boon to the Clerks.

Little else than this unexpected increase was talked of yesterday along the lines, at the round houses the shops, in the general offices and wherever else Pennsylvania or other railroad men gathered. The effect upon the men has been even greater than was expected. Pennsylvania men already receive more than those of all but a few other railroads. With this increase their wages exceed those paid by any other railroad.

No class of employes appreciated this increase more than the clerks, of whom there are many thousands along the system. It is proverbial that clerical work is underpaid, and the Pennsylvania has been no exception in this matter. The long hours, due to the great rush of business, have come upon the clerks as well as on the trainmen, and in most cases there is no overtime for clerical workers as there is for trainmen. The results of this have been apparent. For instance, it has been almost impossible to secure enough men for the car record offices in and about Pittsburgh for several months past. The increase makes the positions far more desirable than before.

Joy Among the Operators.

Another class of men who have long deserved the advance are telegraph operators. Commercial telegraphy has been considerably more remunerative than railroad work. Many telegraph operators have been eager to get away from the signal tower and all railroad work. This increase balances the difference between the pay of railroad and commercial work, and will enable the Pennsylvania to retain in its employ the best class of its operators.

What action will come on other railroads, especially in this district, where the influence of the Pennsylvania increase is felt most strongly, is being eagerly awaited. President L. F. Loree of the Baltimore & Ohio, who was in Pittsburgh last night, was asked if he had any statement to make on the intentions of that system. He said there was nothing to say, and in reply to a further question, said nothing was being considered along this line. The report gained currency yesterday, however, among the men that in the course of a week or so the Baltimore & Ohio will fall in line with what is now practically its controlling company in this matter.

Labor Did Not Demand It.

Reports that agitation among the organizations of railway employes had brought about the advance are discredited in Pittsburgh by leaders who know. George W. Miller, clerk of courts, who is chairman of the executive and general committee of the Order of Railway Conductors, said yesterday:

"I am certain that there has been no concerted wage agitation and none with the conductors. I have heard from E. E. Clark, grand chief of the conductors, who is a member of the anthracite strike commission.

"President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania railroad system is undoubtedly one of the shrewdest business men of the day. This action of his companies on the heels of the strong statement recently issued by the United States Steel Corporation, should be taken as certain evidence that our prosperity is to live and grow.

"The action of the Pennsylvania is a signal for a feeling of general security, as well as a subject for congratulation among railroad employes. It means that next year is to be the greatest of our industrial history. This thing was unsolicited and unexpected by the employes, and if it is possible for them to serve the company more faithfully, it will be an incentive for them to do so."

Child Struck by Car.

Mary Huber, aged 6, of No. 8 Hoff street, Troy hill, Allegheny, while playing in Downing street, near her home yesterday, was rundown by a Mt. Troy car and her left arm was horribly crushed. She was taken to the Allegheny General hospital. The arm was amputated.

Chief Davis Very Ill.

The condition of Chief of Police Samuel Davis of McKees Rocks was reported much worse last night and it is not expected that he will live more than a few hours.

HANS HEINRICH, PRINCE OF PLESS, ENVOY FROM KAISER WILHELM'S COURT, DINED AT DUQUESNE CLUB

HANS Heinrich, prince of Pless, a German state, was the guest of President L. F. Loree of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, in Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon and evening. He was dined at the Duquesne club, where he met a number of representative Pittsburghers and then he hastened away to Buffalo, his private car being attached to the Buffalo express of the Allegheny Valley, leaving Pittsburgh at 10:45 o'clock last night.

Prince Henry of Pless, as he is known, was very much interested in all he saw yesterday. He is one of the foreign delegates sent to America for the opening of the new chamber of commerce building in New York. He came to this country for that event, as the representative of the German kaiser. Thursday the foreign delegates were entertained in Washington. That evening Prince Henry of Pless met President Loree in that city for a short western trip.

The main interest of the trip for Prince Henry lay in the coke region, for the estate of the prince is the largest producer of coke in all the German kingdom. At Broadford the special train was run over the Mt. Pleasant branch and plenty of time was given the German coke king to inspect the American ovens of the Frick and other companies along that road. Several hours were spent there.

When asked yesterday as to his opinion of the relative values of the methods of manufacturing coke in his own country and here, he said: "The American method is simpler." The by-product system is used in Germany, whereas the principal methods in vogue here is the direct, or bee-hive, oven system.

From the coke region the run was continued to the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company's plant in this city. There nearly two hours were spent. A careful inspection was made of the works on both sides of the river, where the prince saw the use of the coke, the manufacture of which he had just witnessed. The Monongahela Connecting railroad, which bridges the river to connect the various plants, turned out its private car for the prince and he was accorded royal treatment there also.

From the Jones & Laughlin plant Prince Henry came to the Water street station of the Baltimore & Ohio and thence to the Duquesne club, where dinner was served. Those present beside the royal guest were President Loree and General Agent Robert Finney of the Baltimore & Ohio, Consul General Reuss of the German legation at New York, who came on to Pittsburgh from New York over the Pennsylvania, yesterday; Francis J. Torrance, Judge J. H. Reed, John R. McGinley, Willis J. King, Charles A. Painter and Frank Moore.

Prince Hans Heinrich of Pless is tall, of military carriage and impressive looking, but genial in manner. He wears a long yellow mustache. In appearance generally, he is every inch the German nobleman. He is not of the royal or Prussian blood. He is known as Prince Henry XV. The wife of the prince, a daughter of Mrs. Cornwallis-West, noted as one of the most beautiful women of England, is in this country with the prince, but did not accompany him on this trip to Pittsburgh.

Prince Henry before leaving Union station last night, expressed himself as being delighted with his short stay in Pittsburgh and said he anticipated much pleasure in viewing Niagara Falls. The prince and Mr. Finney left together. President Loree returned to Baltimore after bidding the prince goodby.

Doctor's Wife Convicted.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Isabella Reed, wife of Dr. W. L. Reed, of Blairsville Intersection, was convicted of illegal liquor selling in criminal court today. The defense was that she was treating her husband's patients in his absence, and Dr. Reed testified that he would have prescribed whisky for the persons securing whisky from his wife had they called during his office hours.

GOV. STONE IS IN PITTSBURGH

Came to the City to Inspect a Granite Proposed for New Capitol.

PENROSE EASY WINNER

Executive Says That He Will Not Be Opposed for Re-Election. Anxious to Secure Resignation of Judges Mitchell and Smith.

Gov. William A. Stone came to Pittsburgh last night and will be joined here today by Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, another member of the capitol commission. The purpose of their visit is to inspect two buildings in the city erected of Winnsboro granite.

"The capitol commission," said the governor, "has not decided what kind of granite is to be used in the construction of the new state house. There has been a good deal of discussion of the Winnsboro stone, and as that granite was used in the erection of the Fidelity Title and Trust Company and the Hussey buildings, we decided to inspect them to ascertain how the material stood the test of years. Senator W. P. Snyder of the commission and Engineer Green of the new capitol have gone to South Carolina, where the Winnsboro quarries are located."

It was reported that the governor was coming here to arrange for the building of a residence for himself. He says that he has bought a lot in Beacon street, in the Twenty-second ward, but has not fully decided about building. When he returns from Harrisburg after the inauguration of Gov. S. W. Pennypacker he will make his home at Hotel Schenley.

Penrose Will Not Be Opposed.

The governor had little to say concerning politics, except to express gratification over the great Republican victory. In his opinion, Senator Boies Penrose will not have any Republican opposition when he comes up for re-election before the next legislature. Gov. Stone says that he has been unable to hear of a single Republican legislator who would not go into the senatorial caucus.

While he will submit a message to the legislature, when it convenes in January, Gov. Stone says that he has not given the matter any consideration. "I may make some suggestions about legislation," he remarked, "but at present I have no idea of the subjects I will discuss."

The governor has appointed commissions to inquire into the physical condition of Judges John I. Mitchell and P. P. Smith of the superior court. "Both judges have been incapacitated for duty for some time," said the governor, "and I hope that they will resign. When the commissioners report I will submit their findings to the two judges. If the gentlemen desire, they can retire and draw half pay for the remainder of their term. If they decline to resign, the governor is powerless to act. The constitution provides that for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment, the governor can remove a judge on the address of two-thirds of the members of the legislature.

Legislature May Remove Judges.

"The governor can only be addressed while the legislature is in session, and if this method of removing the two men is adopted, nothing can be done until after January 1. I will not consider their successors until the vacancies exist.

"I have not appointed a state librarian, and probably will not name a successor to George Edward Reed unless Judge Pennypacker suggests a man to me. Dr. Reed is still acting, as his resignation does not take effect until his successor is named."

The governor is the guest of his son, Stephen Stone, at the latter's residence in Baywood street. The governor was probably informed of the Highland reservoir, as one of his earliest callers last evening was Director J. Guy McCandless of the department of public works. The governor has great interest in the leaking reservoir, as he is reported to be one of the heavy stockholders in the Mercantile Trust Company, the concern that has charge of the building of the new water tank, and which, if the penalties named in the reservoir contract are insisted upon, will have to pay the city nearly $150,000.

WILL CONSULT QUAY.

Gov. Stone to Ask Advice on Appointment of Judge.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Gov. Stone will consult Senator Quay before filling the places of Superior Court Judges Mitchell and Smith if they should retire on half pay.

The governor is advised that the condition of these judges is such that they will never be able actively to resume their duties. He is confident that after the medical commissions make their report both judges will immediately retire. Stone is anxious that his appointees shall be nominated by the next Republican state convention for the full term and for this reason he prefers to talk the matter over with Quay before he makes the appointments. There are already numerous aspirants for the offices, but with the exception of ex-Judge A. V. Barker of Ebensburg, none is thought to have much show of being appointed.

Had Money That Burned.

CASTRO CELEBRATES HIS BLOODY VICTORY

In a Fervid Proclamation He Heaps Bitter Reproaches Upon Gen. Matos.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Mail advices received here from Caracas, Venezuela, are that a report had reached the capital city that the irons had been taken off Gen. Jose Manuel Hernandez, Dr. Finol and the other prisoners detained in the castle of San Carlos. Hernandez was imprisoned by order of President Castro to prevent him participating in the recent revolution.

President Castro, in a proclamation, concludes by saying:

"The most sublime triumph has this day crowned the efforts of patriotic heroism. After seven days of great and superhuman effort in the most deadly struggle recorded in our history, I can say 6,000 heroes have obliged 10,000 mercenary assassins, hired for the misfortunes of our country, to bite the dust.

"Gen. Matos and his followers have now an opportunity to rejoice in their work. In the seven days of unceasing battle, they have seen the blood of all their countrymen run in torrents.

"Three thousand killed and wounded is the least these unnatural sons of our beloved country have caused. They will be pursued at all times and in all places by a frightful vision of widows and orphans, the only legacy which they have transmitted to their families; and so will it be with all those who have unjustly and wickedly taken part in the most unreasonable and criminal of revolutions.

"The God of nations has crowned our just and patriotic efforts, and the peace of Venezuela, the doorway of her aggrandisement and prosperity, is an evident fact."

Gen. Bello Rodriguez, formerly a cabinet minister during the administration of ex-President Andrade, and who has been one of the leaders of the revolution in Venezuela, has offered to surrender to the government.

TO MAKE UNIQUE DEVICE.

Carrier Manufacturing Co. With $100,000 Capital to Make Barrel Conveyers.

J. S. Metcalf of Pittsburgh is the inventor of a unique apparatus for elevating or carrying barrels and kegs. The device is so arranged that it instantly clasps the flange of a barrel or keg and with pulley and tackle can be used for elevating them to upper stories. Its more general utility is contemplated for beer drivers, using it to carrying two or four small kegs at a time.

The Carrier Manufacturing Company, with $100,000 capitalization, has been chartered in New Jersey to manufacture the device in a plant in or near Pittsburgh, a site for which has not yet been secured. Mr. Metcalf will be president and Thomas Bell and W. C. Smith will be associated with him in the enterprise.

COST $12.00.

Advice That Was Worth It.

"I was once a slave to the coffee habit, and became almost a confirmed invalid by drinking it," says Mr. C. H. Aitken of Whiting, N. J.

"I tried to break away from coffee but every time I stopped, I suffered from severe sick headaches and for relief went back to coffee again, only in the end to suffer from extreme nervousness and severe bilious attacks.

"I became so irritable that I made life miserable for my family and myself. Finally I went to New York to consult a specialist. After thoroughly questioning and examining me, he said I must give up drinking coffee, as it had greatly undermined my health, and he further said that coffee killed more people than rum. I laughed at him, but he said it was the truth and that in his practice he had seen many evil effects from coffee drinking.

"He said it was of no use to prescribe for me, unless I gave up coffee, and recommended that I use Postum Food Coffee, which he highly recommended. He charged me $12 for his advice, which I thought rather high priced at the time, but today I think it very cheap. I bought several packages of Postum from the grocer and it was the best day's work I ever did for myself.

"I had a pot of Postum made for my supper that night; that was in the spring of 1898, and I have drank it ever since with the best of results to my health. The sick headache and nervousness I suffered from drinking coffee have entirely gone; I am never bilious and have increased in weight; I have a happier disposition and am much more agreeable company to my family and friends."

FACE TO FACE WITH HER SISTER'S SLAYER

Ohio Woman Walking in the Court House Corridor Instantly Recognizes Him.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 14.—"Oh! you're the man who was at my house buying chickens two days before you killed my poor sister."

These words were a part of a dramatic incident that took place in a corridor of the court house today, and which may solve the Sullivan murder mystery. They were uttered by Miss Johanna Sullivan, whose sister was murdered on her farm beyond West Toledo some time ago. The words were directed at Ben Landis, who was on his way to testify before the grand jury.

According to a court house official, Miss Sullivan was walking along the corridor with Detective Jack Carew. Accidentally, or by a clever little plan of Carew, Miss Sullivan was brought face to face with Landis. She recognized him instantly.

Miss Sullivan explained that there were three men implicated in the murder of her sister. Two were doing the butchery inside the house while a third stood just outside the door, opening it at frequent intervals to see what his partners were doing.

Ben Wade, in his confession to Sheriff Miller at Columbus, said there were three men in the job, and that it was he who stood outside the door. The story of the chicken-buying episode, shortly before the murder, is familiar to all who have followed the case.

It is said the alleged identification by Miss Sullivan today will be the means of bringing Landis to trial.

TOOK LAUDANUM.

Domestic Trouble Preyed on Mind of Mrs. Mary Miller.

Mrs. Mary Miller, 27 years old, took laudanum at her home, No. 508 North avenue, Allegheny, last night. She was taken to the Allegheny general hospital. At a late hour she was unconscious and it was thought she would not recover.

Mrs. Miller and her husband have not been living together for a year. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of Humphreys Lynch, Alderman of the Ninth ward, Allegheny.

Allegheny Corporations Committee Disapproves Ordinance for Railroad Bridge Across Ohio.

The Allegheny corporations committee last night voted to send back to councils with a negative recommendation the ordinance granting the Western Bridge Company the right to erect and maintain a bridge across the Ohio river from a point about 500 feet west of Wilkins street, lower Allegheny, over the Ohio to McKees Rocks, owing to a defect in the paper. The ordinance omitted the names of the officers of the company applying for the franchise.

The ordinance granting the Pittsburgh & Western Railway Company the right to cross Grant avenue and School street, in the First ward, were laid over at the company's request.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Gently;
Acts Pleasantly;
Acts Beneficially;
Acts truly as a Laxative.

Syrup of Figs appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and to the healthy, because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal virtues of Syrup of Figs are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinally laxative and to act most beneficially.

THERE ARE STILL GREAT OPPORTUNITIES IN WEST PARK

FOR THE PEOPLE WHO ACT NOW!

No more transfers! Take McKees Rocks cars marked "West Park" on 5th ave. at Market st. corner.

How can anybody, considering the way in which West Park is building up, let the lots in Addition No. 2 go off the market without rushing in with the crowds trying for the best location?

You may have to inconvenience yourself, or cancel an engagement in order to get here early enough to pick the spots you prefer, but isn't the opportunity worth the effort?

Multitudes of intelligent people who know how to select real estate visited our other sales, bought sites, and now own and occupy homes in West Park that would be a credit to any community! The miles of street improvements that we promised when these people bought have been made just as we said they would be!

The splendid traction road, with cars running to and from the city without transfer, as solicited by the people, has been finished and extended through the property on a belt line just as we agreed to have it.

Modern 60-foot wide Broadway has been graded, sewered, paved, curbed and provided with electric lights, etc., as far as one can see in fulfillment of another promise to our customers.

Other streets have been graded and sewered even beyond our promises, and there is city water, both gases, fire department service, police protection, and every city convenience.

All this has been accomplished on a property that has not been on the market more than two years.

Yet we do not ask you to consider West Park wholly from its street improvements, traction service and unparalleled building activity, which has given it hundreds of beautiful residences and many handsome business structures in an incredibly short time.

We want you to compare West Park with other real estate in Greater Pittsburgh, and see whether you can find any that will make as much money for you.

Industrial expansion, growth of manufacturing wealth, is what builds up real estate and makes it increase in value.

Go to McKees Rocks, where West Park is located, and you'll see more of this industrial expansion than there is anywhere else in the entire state, and still there is no place where the dirt from those mills blows and settles. It is the only level, clean spot, nature having protected it most marvelously, considering its close possession to the great producing centers.

Only a short walk or ride from it are the Pressed Steel Car Works, P. & L. E. Round House, the new P. & L. E. Car Shops, Fort Pitt Malleable Iron Works, McKee Chain Works, American Bridge Works, Crucible Steel Works, Lockhart Steel Mills and Klad Bros. & Berger's Wire Works. On most of these colossal industries formerly handled in the open, extension of immense new plants. The new plants have necessitated the employment of thousands more workmen.

The coming in" of these thousands more workmen has sent the prices of McKees Rocks real estate higher than any money-making investment. This has naturally created a tremendous demand for houses in West Park, where there is a clean place to live and there are finer and more improvements.

There is one point especially, that railroad men, as well as other investors, can't afford to overlook. Here, West Park is within the P. & L. E. calling limits, situated close to where 3,000 railroaders report for duty. This present army of 3,000 will be increased to 5,000 when the P. & L. E. and Panhandle projects under way are developed.

Add to these 5,000 workmen the vast armies employed in the great iron and steel industries of McKees Rocks, and you will have enough people to organize a population equal to that contributing the third largest city in the state.

When you get deeply into these facts visit the property and take in this enormous industrial expansion with your own eyes. You won't need to have anybody tell you where the best property to put your money into is.

Another point to consider is that you can buy $50 to $800 lots in West Park Addition No. 2 by paying any reasonable amount down and balance at the rate of $5 per month.

10 per cent will be allowed for cash if paid within 60 days.

No interest or taxes are charged, interest beginning after 1903, and no payments in the event of purchasers falling behind by reason of sickness. The names of our stockholders are sufficient guarantee that you will receive upright and lenient treatment at all times.

Title of the property is guaranteed by the Fidelity Title & Trust Co., of Pittsburgh.

PROPOSALS.

Office of Controller of Allegheny County,
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 11, 1902.
NOTICE TO INVESTORS.
Whereas, The county commissioners of the county of Allegheny have resolved to issue bonds of the county for the purpose of building, improving and repairing public roads and highways, etc., as set forth in their petition at No. 1 September sessions, 1902, said loan to be in the sum of $550,000.
NOTICE is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received at the office of the county controller aforesaid, until Saturday, November 29, 1902, at 12 o'clock noon for the purchase of coupon bonds of said county as aforesaid, to the amount of $550,000, to be issued in accordance with the act of assembly approved July 10, A. D. 1901, entitled "An act authorizing the county commissioners to borrow money and issue bonds for the purpose of building, improving and repairing public roads and highways in their respective counties," etc. Said bonds to be of the denomination of one thousand dollars bearing interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually and payable at the pleasure of said county after 20 years, and absolutely due and payable thirty (30) years from the date thereof.
Said bonds to be free from taxation. Address proposals to the county commissioners of Allegheny county, marked "Proposals for Bonds."
A bond with approved security or certified check to the order of the county commissioners of the county of Allegheny to the amount of ten thousand dollars must accompany each proposal.
Any other or further information respecting the same can be obtained at the office of the county commissioners, Allegheny county, Pittsburgh, Pa.
The commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

It's Most Important To Know the Rate.

Don't go it blind, simply because you want to borrow some money. You are apt to be held up for an exorbitant rate of interest. That's why we tell you frankly that our rate to everybody is 6 per cent, no matter whether the amount is large or small. If you take the trouble to investigate you will find that this is the lowest rate charged in Allegheny county. BETTING MEN FAVOR YALE ELEVEN

BOTH TEAMS ARE READY FOR GAME

Yale and Princeton Players in Fine Condition for Struggle.

BLUE THE FAVORITE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 14.—Confident of winning tomorrow's game with Princeton by a close margin the Yale 'varsity football eleven left here at 7 o'clock this evening for New York city. The last day's practice was only a signal drill. The coachers cut out scrimmages and the players spent half of the hour at the field by cutting up shines and playing practical jokes on each other. Such an exuberance of animal spirits is rarely seen the day before a Yale-Princeton game.

Trainer Murphy said he was willing to stake his reputation on the statement that every player except Metcalf was fit as a fiddle and that Metcalf was strong enough to outlast the 35-minute halves if needed. The players were given a rousing parting ovation by 500 students. Coach Swan and Capt. Hinkey declined to make any predictions, but stated that the players were in good playing form and would make a hard fight. The team will line up exactly as last Saturday.

So many Pittsburgh boys were never on a Yale squad before as it left for the Princeton game. Charley Rafferty will play left end. His hand is still heavily bandaged, but he will be able to stand the whole game tomorrow, and Johnny Moorehead and Harvey McClintock will go down as substitutes for end and fullback, respectively.

Tigers Ready and Confident.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The Tigers did some pretty stiff work today, considering the fact that tomorrow they will have to buck up against the Yale eleven. There was no regular game against the scrubs, however, and the practice, which was open, consisted chiefly of perfecting plays to stop the onslaught of the Yale backs. Orange and black supporters need have no fear of their team's defense tomorrow. The scrub men gave a cheer for the 'varsity when the practice was over, and the cheer was reciprocated with hearty good will. The coaches looked pleased when it was all over, and are confident that their team has a good chance of winning from the Elis, though the Yale eleven shows up better on paper.

The moving of Short to center in place of Barney has reduced the average weight of the line about four pounds per man, so that the Yale line will outweigh Princeton's by about seven pounds per man, but the Tigers' backfield is the heavier, and according to most authorities the better of the two, and that, with DeWitt's superiority in punting should more than overcome the balance Yale's huge line.

The supporters of the blue seem to have unlimited confidence in their team, however, and up till yesterday were offering odds of 8 to 5 and 2 to 1 on the game. They have now come down to even money, though, and are beginning to realize that they have not a bit more than an even chance of winning.

Most of the Tiger eleven seem to be in good physical condition. Henry and Dod, however, have seemed to be somewhat stale lately, and have not been worked hard since the Cornell game.

People have begun to flock into town already, and the hotels and boarding houses are gradually filling up with alumni and friends of the university. The Tiger mascot is ready to send the team off before the game tomorrow, and will be one of the features of the game.

The teams will line up as follows:

Yale.		Princeton.
Lea.....W	L. E.	Davis
Kinney	L. T.	Brown
Glass	L. G.	Bradley
Holt	Center	Short
Goss	R. G.	DeWitt
Hogan	R. T.	Read
Shevlin	R. E.	Henry
Rockwell	Q. B.	Pearson
Chadwick	L. H.	Hurt
Metcalf	R. H.	Foulke
Bowman	F. B.	R. McClave

Harvard Finds a Good Player.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—There was some sharp end practice at Harvard today, and a feature of the day was the strong work done by Mason, the right tackle of the second eleven. Mason has been coming right along recently, and will probably be among those who will aid in the expected trouncing of Yale. Carl Marshall, the 'varsity quarterback, and Coaches Lewis and Burden went to New Haven this afternon to see what they can do about Yale's play. Harvard will not play a rigorous game with the Dartmouth "Sluggers" tomorrow, the big game being too near. All the crimson players are in the pink of condition, and no chances will be taken with them.

WAS EASY FOR RAYEN.

Youngstown Team Ran Away from Normal Eleven.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Northeastern Ohio Normal school of Canfield had but little chance against Rayen school in this afternoon's game. Capt. Osborne made runs of 20, 30 and 45 yards for touchdowns. Rayen made one touchdown in the first half, but braced up and won by a score of 29 to 0. The line-up:

Rayen—29.		Normal—0.
Smith	L. E.	Pashal
P. Stewart	L. T.	Sonedecker
Edwards	L. G.	E. Clay
Sa. Leibman	Center	Stanley
B. Stewart	R. G.	J. Clay
Ashbaugh	R. T.	Fosnought
Jones	R. E.	Lee
Jones	Q. B.	Zieger
Osborne	L. H.	Manchester
Miller-Moore	R. H.	Crawford
Wick	F. B.	Sonedecker

Touchdowns—Wick, Osborne 3, P. Stewart 1. Goals from touchdown—Moore 4. Umpire—Foskett, Rayen. Referee—Arnold, Normal. Timekeepers—Anderson, Dunford. Linesmen—Cannon, Dickson.

HIGHLAND WOMEN QUALIFY.

Miss Gerdes Had Lowest Net Score in Medals Play Round.

On the Highland Golf club course yesterday the women played the qualifying round of 18 holes for the match play cup offered by the club. The following were the scores:

	Gross.	Hdcp.	Net.
Miss Ada Gerdes	107	12	95
Miss Mary Fownes	98	2	96
Miss Louise Elkins	103	4	99
Miss Sarah Hillman	130	30	100
Mrs. W. S. Patterson	214	24	190

Mrs. Patterson plays Miss Fownes Monday, with a handicap of 22 strokes. The rest of those qualifying drew byes.

YALE WON THE SHOOT.

Archer of Princeton Made Best Score and Broke the Record.

PRINCTON, N. J., Nov. 14.—The annual intercollegiate gun shoot, held this afternoon on Princeton's grounds, was won by Yale with a score of 206. Harvard was second with 205, and Princeton third with 204, Pennsylvania being last with 186.

P. Archer of the Princeton team won the individual championship by making the largest score. He killed 47 birds out of a possible 50, equaling the former record of 46. The shoot was the closest ever made in the intercollegiate matches.

Youngstown Elks Won Match.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Youngstown won the bowling match between the Elks from New Castle and Youngstown, about 40 members of the New Castle lodge, besides the team came here to witness the contest which was warmly contested from start to finish. Following are the totals made in the three games: Youngstown—Diebel, 472; Sonecher's, 467; Middleton, 450; Timons, 418; Liddle, 448. Total of the team, 2,255. New Castle—Pierce, 426; Miller, 448; Bryan, 408; Brollinger, 437; Irwin, 439. Totals of team, 2,159.

Will Fight It Out.

What will no doubt prove a bitter contest is scheduled to take place at Friendship park this afternon. The Cottage Verners and Lyceum teams will meet for the second time this season. The Cottage Verners won the first game by the score of 17 to 6, but the game ended unsatisfactorily to both teams. Lyceum claim they can defeat the Cottage Verners and the management never rested until the game to be played today was secured.

Gans Given the Decision.

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 14.—"Joe" Gans, the lightweight champion, got the decision over "Charley" Seiger of Hoboken tonight after 15½ rounds of hard fighting before the Eureka Athletic club. The colored champion was active upon to do some very hard work to beat the Hoboken boy, who was no match for Gans in sparring or ring tactics. Gans blocked many vicious swings, but found that Seiger was capable of taking a remarkable amount of punishment.

THE EAST ENDERS ARE AFTER REVENGE

Manager Walsh's Men Will Go at the Stars Heavy—No Trouble Among Players.

There is a promise of a hot struggle when the Pittsburgh Stars and East End eleven line up against the Colosseum gridiron this afternoon. The East End team is out for revenge for the defeat administered early in the season, and threatens to put up a game today that will make the Stars wince.

The report prevailed yesterday of dissatisfaction among the Star players and the withdrawal of Fred Crothus and McChesney from the Pittsburgh team is denied not only by the management, but by the players themselves. The very best evidence of this fact will be that the two players will be found in the Stars' line-up today.

Coach Richardson introduced a new game to develop quickness, which he calls base football. It is fashioned somewhat on the lines of baseball, with a bat and bases. The shape of the ball makes it difficult to handle when sent spinning from a huge club, and the jiggling, hopping bounders fool the players while attempting to pick up the ball. Dats Lawler and Kerkhoff acted as captains, and after a half hour's sweaty work Lawler's team won, 97 to 22.

After the game a short, sharp "hurry up" line-up practice consumed another half hour's time. During a mass on tackle Feightner was severely injured and may not be in the line-up today. Long was not in the line-up either, being engaged in business transations in Pittsburgh.

Kerkhoff, who did not play in the previous game with East End A. A., will be in at guard and can be depended on to show Welsh's pets some double stunts. Sherlock may play quarter and Dushame halfback. The line-up will be:

Pittsburgh.		E. E. A. A.
Schronts	L. E.	Nagle
McNulty	L. T.	McChesney
Kerkhoff	L. G.	Lantz
Barney	Center	Bloom
Lawler	R. G.	Carr
Lang	R. T.	Pelper
Hare	R. E.	C. Wells
Sherlock	Q. B.	Musselman
Dushame	R. H.	J. Wells
Crothus	L. H.	Hey
McChesney	F. B.	Cabel

FIGURING OUT A CIRCUIT.

Pittsburgh Is Included in the List of Cities for American League Clubs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—In addition to the American league owners already in New York, S. F. Angus, who is behind the Detroit club, arrived in the city today. His presence is said to be due to a desire on the part of Pittsburgh men to purchase the Detroit franchise, and in view of the fact that an effort is being made to put a club here, the American league promoters thought it a good time to settle the question of the circuit once and for all. If Pittsburgh is admitted Detroit will be dropped, and the grounds are secured in New York the Baltimore club will get its quietus. This will result in two clubs in every city of both circuits except Cincinnati, Washington, Cleveland and Brooklyn.

No further light was shed upon the local situation by the American league men who are here. They simply assert to all with whom they come in contact that a club is to be put in New York. That has been asserted since last summer. One member of the organization declared that nothing could be published until every little detail was completed, as there was always a possibility that Mr. Johnson's plans might be upset by premature publication.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The Arsenal A. C. plays at Haysville today. The players will report at Fort Wayne depot at 1:30.

The Crafton Juniors will play the Schenley football team from Oakland at Crafton this afternoon.

Twin City A. C. will play the Valley A. C. of McKees Rocks at McKnights park, Allegheny, and a hot contest is expected.

The Westlakes will play the Guyer A. C. of Carnegie two games. The first on today on the oats field, the second on Saturday, November 22, at Carnegie.

Unique A. C. plays Emsworth second at Emsworth today and expect a hard game. The Unique A. C. players must report at Fifth avenue and Market street.

The 90-pound championship of the East End will be decided this afternoon on the Baum street grounds, when the Highland and Flavel football teams meet to battle.

Shaner A. C. will play the Superior A. C. of Carnegie today on the Denny grounds at 3:30. This game will be a hot argument, as both sides are confident of winning.

The Maplewood A. C. will line up against the Crescent Juniors on the former's grounds at Wilkinsburg this afternon. The players will report at the grounds not later than 3:30 p. m.

The South Side A. C. put in two hours of the hardest kind of practice last night in order to be in good form when they face the boys in blue over on the South Side this afternoon.

The Kingsley A. A., formerly the Geneva A. C. will play Sheridan park on the two hours of practice last night in order to be in good form when they face the boys in blue over on the South Side this afternoon.

The Kingsley A. A., formerly the Geneva A. C. will play Sheridan park on the former's grounds at Brushton. All Kingsley players meet at the corner of Twentieth street and Penn avenue at 2 p. m.

The Thompson team would like to hear from Tigers of Allegheny or Westlake Juniors. Have open dates and would like to arrange games. Address Robert Thompson, 412 Chronicle Telegraph building.

The Pittsburgh college third team will play the Army at Exposition park at 3:30 p. m. and is anxious to hear from the Allegheny Preparatory school for a game to be played some week day. Next Tuesday preferred.

The D. P. S. school team defeated the Bellevue high school team 10 to 0, in a fast game on Bellevue grounds. The features of the game were the wonderful hurdling of the D. P. S. backs and the line bucking of Ward.

The Guild A. C. will play the Third Ward Indians of Homestead today on Admirals grounds. If game is good the manager of the Third Ward will please call up P. McKnight, C. D. & P. 2417, ring 2, between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning.

Orient A. C. will play Lincoln A. C. today on Orient grounds at 4 o'clock. Orient wants a game with some 50-pound team for November 25 on Orient grounds. One-half expenses, good treatment guaranteed. Address C. A. Bigley, No. 1 Randolph street, Allegheny.

The Westlake Juniors will go to Carnegie today and play the Gruver Reserves of that place. All Westlake players are to report at Oatsfield at 2:30 o'clock. All 85 to 90-pound teams desiring games address Robert Davis, Elliott, Pa., or call up 20, ring 4, West, and ask for Kelleher.

The Franklins will journey to Carnegie this afternoon and line up against the High School team of that place. The players are requested to meet at 1:30 at Logan street and Fifth avenue. Shaeffer's hotel. The Franklins' manager will accept the Colombo game for the 22d and the Pitcairn team for Thanksgiving Day.

All Pastimes players are requested to meet at the corner of Market and Fifth avenue at 2 o'clock to play at Crafton. The Pastimes would like to arrange a game with one of the following teams for Thanksgiving: Rochester A. A., Ellwood City or Mt. Pleasant. Address the manager, H. Girdwood, 1956 Bedford avenue, Pittsburgh.

The Library A. C. will face the Knoxville Reserves today. The game will be played on Library's grounds in Larimer avenue, East End, and will be called at 3:30 p. m. All Library players will please report at the club room not later than 2 o'clock. The Library still has Thanksgiving afternoon and November 29 open and would like to hear from all 60 to 65-pound teams in Western Pennsylvania. Address L. W. Monteverde, 311 Fourth avenue, city.

IMPROVING ITS PLANTS.

United States Fireproofing Company Adds to Its Producing Facilities.

The United States Fireproofing Company of this city is installing at the Union works, Lisbon, O., the largest upright steam press in the country, with three additional nine-foot pans for the manufacture, in addition to its other products of fire clay, fine linings and sewer pipe. The company recently secured the contract in Cincinnati for the fireproofing of the Cincinnati Traction Company's building. The corporation is also adding another mammoth junior machine to its equipment at the Keystone works at Keystone, O., and the Salineville plant of the corporation at Salineville, O., has completed its new power house, the equipment being furnished by B. Munroe & Son of Pittsburgh.

A five-foot vein of the highest grade of flint fire clay has been developed on property owned by the corporation between Salineville and Irondale, and contracts have been made with high grade brick manufacturers for this product for several years ahead.

GAVE WEIGHT BUT WON GAME

Allegheny Preparatory Team Showed Pluck in Hard Contest.

TRINITY'S HARDLUCK

Handicapped in weight by at least 10 pounds to each player, the Allegheny Preparatory school team pluckily went at the eleven from Trinity hall over at the Colosseum yesterday afternoon and nosed out a victory by the narrow margin of 18 to 12.

It was a clever victory for the Northside team, and the 200 school rooters, boys and girls, who were out with the school colors, almost went wild and fairly hugged each player as he strode in from the gridiron. It takes a bunch of school boys and girls to give an exhibition in genuine enthusiasm and rooting, and there was nothing missing in that crowd yesterday afternoon. It was a case of cheer from start to finish, and there was no time lost.

The Trinity hall team was up against a bunch of the hardest kind of luck, otherwise the score might have been a tie. This evidence of disfavor with the goddess of fortune happened in the second half, when by dint of hard work the Washington county eleven had pushed the ball down from the center of the field, and Frey, the fattest boy in the bunch, was called on to take the ball over for a touchdown. Frey got over the line all right, but, unfortunately for himself and his team, he fumbled just as he crossed the line, and a Preparatory player fell on the ball, making it a touchback and no score. That was indeed hard luck.

In the defensive work the teams were about evenly matched. Both were strong on offensive and very weak on defensive work. When one of the teams got the ball it was only a question of how long it would take to make the touchdown. An example of this was shown in the first half, when the Trinity boys got the ball on their own 20-yard line and proceeded by straight line bucks to march the full 80 yards for a touchdown. There were no end runs or punts, just straight work against the line, which is the hardest kind of work in a football contest.

At the start-out of the game it looked as though it was going to be a runaway race for the Preparatory eleven, which scored two touchdowns without even losing the ball. One of these touchdowns was the result of a pretty 58-yard run by Knox, the captain of the Allegheny team. He broke through the line and was off before the Trinity boys could realize what had happened. After the second touchdown had been scored the Trinity team took a brace and evened up the score, the half ending 12 to 12.

In the second half was when Trinity stacked against hard luck, and this gave the Preparatory boys a chance which they took full advantage of and scored the only touchdown, which was made possible by pretty end runs by Knox. To tell the truth, Knox was pretty much the whole thing for the Allegheny team, and he showed himself to be a clean and skillful player. He is speedy, a good dodger and a clever all-around player. The Trinity stars were Fullback Sherlock, who made some pretty runs with the ball, and Frey, the fat boy, who could always be counted on for substantial gains when given the ball. The game was cleanly played all the way and was a pleasure to look at. The score and line-up:

Allegheny—18.		Trinity—12.
Smith	L. E.	Butterworth
J. Carson	L. T.	Sherlock
Zimmer	L. G.	Wagner
Mayer	Center	Harter

RAILROAD THREATENS TO SHUT OFF FREIGHT

Pennsylvania May Refuse Receipts for a Week to Catch Up With Congestion.

The freight congestion problem has grown so serious that the Pennsylvania railroad is thinking of "shutting up shop" for a week; that is, refusing to receive any more freight for shipment to Pittsburgh and points east of here. Several hundred miles of yards and sidings are blocked with loaded freight cars.

The Gazette described yesterday the straits to which wholesale merchants are driven by reason of the freight congestion, the railroads company now saying that through freight from the west is also blocked, contradicting merchants, who say that through freight is sent around Pittsburgh and arrives at its destination promptly, while only freight destined for Pittsburgh is held up.

An officer of the Pennsylvania railroad said yesterday that in the Herrs Island stock yards there are cattle that arrived here a week ago bound for New York, and it has been impossible to get them out of Pittsburgh, and this means a great loss to the railroad, which has to feed and water the cattle. One of the officers of the company said:

"We must shut down our receiving offices. That will gives us an opportunity to catch up and will save thousands of dollars in damage suits."

The increasing congestion gave rise to stories that the Pennsylvania railroad would refuse to accept any freight out of Pittsburgh. This is denied by J. J. Turner, third vice president of the lines west. It is the local consignees who are suffering most, and the railroads are not yet ready to acknowledge that they cannot get freight out of Pittsburgh, although many of them admit that incoming western shipments are subject to ruinous delays.

MANY ROBBERIES,

Pittsburgh and Suburbs Infested—A Large Haul Made in Wilmerding Boarding House.

Robbers visited Dravosburg Thursday night and entered several houses. Clothing and $5 in cash was taken from the home of George Lysle of Orchard place. A valuable cloak and a number of furs were taken from the house of Township Treasurer Nathan D. Jones. Forty cents were taken from William Wilson's house. The thieves were scared away from the house of James Wilson by Mr. Wilson's son Johnn. Stolen also from the club room not later than 2 o'clock. The Library still has Thanksgiving afternoon and November 29 open and would like to hear from all 60 to 65-pound teams in Western Pennsylvania. Address L. W. Monteverde, 311 Fourth avenue, city.

Got a Constant Headache?—Ten chances to one the secret of your suffering is that "white man's burden," Catarrh. Here's a sentence from one man's evidence for Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder—"One application gave me instant relief, cleared the nasal passages and stopped the pain in my head." It's a quick, safe and sure treatment, and it never fails to cure.—6.

WASH.-JEFF. STARTS UNDER NEW COACH

Greene Has Gone and Players Showed More Life Under Old Instructors.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 14.—Coach Elbridge H. Greene, who has had charge of the Washington and Jefferson football team this season, left this morning for the east and will not return to Washington. Greene gave his last instruction to the local eleven yesterday afternoon and seemingly parted good friends with all the players.

The Wash.-Jeff. eleven had the first practice this afternoon under the new coaches, and it was a good one. Finis Montgomery, last year's halfback, and William H. Seaman, an old W. and J. player, who has much experience in coaching, were in charge of the players. Seaman handled the line men and Montgomery took charge of the back field. Capt. Hayes was not able to get into the playing today, but it is thought he will be back for the game with Pittsburgh college tomorrow afternoon. The back field has been weak all season, and Montgomery gave this department careful attention today.

Seaman had the line working fairly well today, and the indications are that Washington and Jefferson will put up one of the best games of the season at College park tomorrow afternoon. Brooks, while light, is being coached for the end position in place of Sutter, who was injured in the game with Cornell, and he gives promise of becoming a first-class end.

The announcement made today that W. and J. would play the East End team at Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving was received with considerable satisfaction in Washington. Bucknell had been originally scheduled for this date, but when this game was canceled it looked as if W. and J. would be shut out of a good attraction for Thanksgiving Day. The fact that the game will be played in Pittsburgh is also pleasing to W. and J. fans. Washington will send a big following of rooters, and it is believed here that the attendance will be large.

AN ALUMINUM DECK.

Shamrock III. Will Be Built of That Material.

GLASGOW, Nov. 14.—William Fife has decided that the deck of the Shamrock III. shall be constructed of aluminum, while adhering to mild steel for all the essential parts of the hull where the strain is severe.

Captain Wringe is assisting in the superintendence of the work on the challenger for the America's cup.

BASKETBALL NOTES.

C. O. Lutz is organizing a new team in which Yeager, Gross and several others will play.

The Manchester A. A. players will report at Empire building, Saturday, November 15, at 2 p. m. to go to Ingram.

Both East Liberty basketball teams (first and second) have open dates and all good teams are requested to write for games. Address Louis Seibel, Box 42, East Liberty.

The Enterprise A. C. cancels the game with the Ticket Slingers of the Pennsylvania railroad for Saturday, November 15, on account of several players being out of town.

South Side's team is now in fine shape and prepared to meet all first-class teams. Any good team desiring games will please address Evan M. Roberts, South Twentieth and Jane streets, city.

The Hiland Stars defeated the Princeton A. C. on the latter's grounds in Larimer avenue by the score of 11 to 0. The game abounded with brilliant plays, one being a 25-yard run by Bauchman for a touchdown.

The South Side Reserves would like to arrange games with all good second teams. This team is made up of Cryder, Sonfeld, Gitzen, O'Donnell, Douthitt and three others. For games address Evan M. Roberts, manager, South Twentieth and Jane streets.

INDEPENDENT LINE TIES UP ITS BOATS

Monongahela River Packet Company Boats Quit But Will Resume in the Spring.

The steamer Elizabeth, owned by the Monongahela River Packet Company, upon her return yesterday from Morgantown, paid off her crew and the boat was laid up. The steamer will not reenter the trade again this year. The boat belongs to the independent Morgantown line, which was organized in the summer.

It is said that the boats of the line, which also includes the steamer Gertrude, will be kept at the bank until next spring and that the steamers will again enter the trade under a different management. In the meantime, it is said that an effort will be made to purchase a steamer after the style of the Elizabeth, which is more adaptable to the trade than the Gertrude. Another reason assigned for stopping is that winter is now coming on and it will only be a short time until boats will have great difficulty in operating.

The Elizabeth is tied up at the wharfboat at the Monongahela wharf and the Gertrude is tied to the bank at Moss Side park. This steamer is to be placed on the docks for repairs.

REMARKABLE SUCCESS

Of a New Catarrh Cure.

A large and constantly increasing majority of the American people are catarrh sufferers. This is not entirely the result of our changeable climate, but because modern investigation has clearly proven that many diseases, known by other names, are really catarrh. Formerly the name catarrh was applied almost exclusively to the common nasal catarrh, but the throat, stomach, liver, bladder, kidneys and intestines are subject to catarrhal diseases as well as the nasal passages.

In fact, wherever there is mucous membrane there is a feeding ground for catarrh.

The usual remedies, inhalers, sprays, douches or powders, have been practically failures, as far as anything more than temporary relief was concerned, because they simply dry up the mucous secretions, without having the remotest effect upon the blood and liver, which are the real sources of catarrhal diseases.

It has been known for some years that the radical cure of catarrh could never come from local applications, but from an internal remedy, acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poison from the system.

A new internal preparation which has been on the market only a short time, has met with remarkable success as a genuine, radical cure for catarrh.

It may be found in any drug store, sold under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, large pleasant tasting lozenges, composed principally of antiseptic ingredients, Bloodroot, Red Gum and similar catarrh specifics.

Dr. Amsler in speaking of the new catarrh cure says: "I have tried the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, upon 20 or 40 patients with remarkable, satisfactory results. They clear the head and throat more effectually and lastingly than any douche or inhaler that I have ever seen, and although they are what is called a patent medicine and sold by druggists, I do not hesitate to recommend them as I know them to be free from cocaine and opiates, and that even a little child may use them with entire safety."

Any sufferer from nasal catarrh, throat or bronchial trouble, catarrh of the stomach, liver or bladder will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets remarkably effective, pleasant and convenient, and your druggist will tell you they are absolutely free from any injurious drug.

Continue to Smash All Kinds of Records at Bennings.

EASY FOR TRUE BLUE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Indian summer-like weather continues to favor the races at Bennings, but today's attendance was about the lightest of the week. Four favorites won, and owing to the size of the field, liberal prices were obtainable against most of them. Frank Kenney and Centerville, heavily backed, closed favorites and paid 3 to 1, while Emshee and Wittul, the other winning favorites, paid 2 to 1, and even money respectively.

True Blue made a runaway of it in the third race and Merrymaker just managed to beat Grail a scant head. Fast time was again made, several new track records being established. Summary.

Good Field of Starters.

First race, for 3-year-olds and upward, 5½ furlongs—Frank Kenny, 115, Landry, 3 to 1 and 8 to 5, won; Hildell, 107, Lyne, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Guesswork, 112, Redfern, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:08.

Second race, maiden 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Centerville, 109, Gannon, 3 to 1 and even, won; Alhambra, 103, Shea, 20 to 1 and 8 to 1, second; Ornature, 112, Lyne, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:01 4-5.

Third race, 3-year-olds and upward, 6½ furlongs—True Blue, 105, Jones, 7 to 2 and 8 to 5, won; Malden, 105, W. Miller, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Dandie Belle, 105, Collins, 100 to 1, third. Time, 1:20 4-5.

Fourth race, 3-year-olds and upward, 1 mile and 40 yards—Merrymaker, 98, Redfern, 5 to 1 and 8 to 5, won; Grail, 107, Lyne, 6 to 5 and 1 to 2, second; Black Dick, 106, Gannon, 25 to 1, third. Time, 1:44.

Fifth race, 3-year-olds, 7 furlongs—Emshee, 112, O'Connor, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5, won; Extinguisher, 112, Shea, 7 to 2 and 7 to 5, second; Blackstock, 112, Redfern, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:29.

Sixth race, 2-year-olds, 1 mile and 70 yards—Wittul, 87, Redfern, even and 1 to 2, won; Bondage, 90, Crosthwaite, 30 to 1 and 12 to 1, second; Allie Virgie, 107, Lyne, 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:46 1-5.

Following Are the Entries for Saturday.

First race, 3-year-olds and upward, 7 furlongs—Paul Clifford, 121, Miss Buttermilk, 114, McWilliams, Annie Laurette, Eucliare, Corder, Heroine, The Black Scott, Goldsby, Dr. Korber, Miss Potentate, 111; Meistersinger, Geraldine, Courtenay, 109; Honolulu, Tenagra, Brunswick, Ivernia, 106; Valley Forge, 105; Trump, 104; Pearl Finder, 101.

Second race, 2-year-olds, 6 furlongs—Dark Planet, 108; Pearl Diver, 105; Tioga, 103; Right and True, Pittacus, Knight of Gold, 102; Dusky Secret, Rene, 93; Daddy Bender, 97; Mayor Graham, 96; Fading Light, Bassino, Ceroscate, 95; Turnpike, Barnard, 94; Squid, 93; Breaker, Lulu Mar, Wanakee, Cloch d'Or, 91; Lady Mistake, Anne Hathaway, 86.

SPOILED HIS CHANCES.

Tillo Was Favorite, but Run Away for Three Miles.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Tillo, winner of the Suburban handicap of 1898, heavily played in the third race at Lakeside today, ran away three miles in a false break before he could be pulled up. The horse was so nearly exhausted after making the circuit of the track that he was excused and the field sent away without him. The race went to Inspector Shea at 10 to 1. Evelyn Byrd beat Tammany a neck for the place. Weather cloudy and cool; track slow. Summaries:

First race, 5 furlongs—Our Cora, 92, W. Hicks, 12 to 1, won; Counter Reasoner, 95, J. Walsh, 7 to 2, second; Wineland, 105, Birkenruth, 11 to 10, third. Time, 1:04 3-5.

Second race, 6 furlongs—David S., 110, T. Walsh, 3 to 1, won; Ida V., 111, Robbins, 8 to 5, second; Miss Chanty, 114, Wainwright, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:20 2-5.

Third race, 7 furlongs—Inspector Shea, 102, Morper, 10 to 1, won; Evelyn Byrd, 108, W. Hicks, 7 to 2, second; Tammany, 105, Dalvesan, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:33.

Fourth race, 1½ miles—Barrack, 112, Hoar, 2 to 5, won; Edith Q., 105, J. Walsh, 7 to 2, second; Lou Woods, 97, J. H. Graham, 6 to 1, third. Time, 2:15 3-5.

Fifth race, 1½ miles—Miss Liza, 103, Hoar, 11 to 5, won; Althea, 98, Robbins, 8 to 5, second; Compass, 103, Morper, 10 to 1, third. Time, 2:13 1-5.

Sixth race, 7 furlongs—Prima II., 99, Robbins, 8 to 5, won; Satrap, 99, W. Hicks, 12 to 1, second; Lady Rice, 99, Hoar, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:33 2-5.

The best chandeliers are the ones that harmonize with the balance of your home furnishment—

Let us show you the new things—

REINEKE, WILSON CO., Wood St. and First Ave.

SIGHT FAILING?

Is your vision growing dim, or is one eye stronger than the other? Has your eye ever been injured, or are you developing a cataract? Why not go to Dr. Tucker and be treated and cured? His terms are reasonable and benefit to you is sure.

There are thousands of doctors with more or less skill, but when your eyes begin to fail you, go at once to the most skillful and successful specialist, and waste no time with ordinary doctors. Today your eyes may be in a curable condition, tomorrow it may be too late. Dr. Tucker treats all inflammatory diseases of the eye, all defects of vision for which thousands of people are uselessly wearing glasses, and, most remarkable of all, he can remove cataract without the cruel, cutting, dangerous use of the knife. This wonderful remedy dissolves the opacity in the crystalline lense as surely as the snows of winter are removed by the warm suns of spring. It is safe, painless and does not interfere with the daily occupation. Why, then, go blind in one or both eyes, or submit to the surgeon's knife?

Do You Live Out of Town?

If you do, you want to know that instead of wasting time and money with local doctors who cannot have any knowledge of chronic diseases and their cure, you can be cured by my new method of HOME TREATMENT as surely and quickly as if you consulted me in person.

SEND FOR A SYMPTOM BLANK.

DR. J. ALFRED TUCKER,

PRACTICE ESTABLISHED 1887.

ENORMOUS LIQUIDATION AGAIN BREAKS OUT

Stock Values in Both Wall Street and Pittsburgh Decline to the Lowest Level Quoted on the Present Movement.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

Another terrific outpouring of stocks occurred in the eastern market yesterday, and the pressure to liquidate carried values down to the lowest level quoted on this movement. In a number of instances the lowest prices of the year were recorded. In this list were such stocks as Baltimore & Ohio at 95½, New York Central at 147, Lackawanna at 243, Delaware & Hudson at 153½, Amalgamated Copper at 63, Sugar at 112⅝, Tennessee Coal and Iron at 54⅝, and so on through the list. Reading broke to 52¼, which is within ¼ of the low point touched last March, before there was any thought of a coal strike, and before the competitive buying occurred which carried the price above 78. Louisville & Nashville did not make a low record, but it broke to 121, which is just 3⅝ points below the price scored when Mr. Gates was running his famous campaign against the insiders and wrested control from the latter. St. Paul was another stock which did not sell down to the lowest quoted early in the year, but it broke to 160, a net drop of 10 points from the price reached on Thursday, and 30 points below the high mark established in September. These prices will give some idea of the severity of the liquidation. The feeling at the opening was unsettled, but the only stock to display particular weakness was St. Paul. The transactions during the first two hours foot up only about 425,000 shares. Immediately after noon, however, the pressure was renewed, thousand-share blocks of securities came tumbling out, and sellers did not haggle over fractions. There was comparatively little recovery until late in the session, and while closing prices were above the lowest, the tone of the market was extremely nervous.

There was nothing on the surface to account for this fresh outburst of liquidation. The Boston bank failure was wholly insignificant in itself, and would have attracted little or no attention in an ordinary market. There was a very general fear of impending trouble; that something was likely to come out of which the best informed in the street had had an inkling. But there was absolutely nothing definite upon which to base these apprehensions. Financiers who have made personal inquiry as to the real situation say they were unable to discover anything radically wrong, and they are inclined to believe that the whole movement this week is the result of a falling out of big men in the street. When such things occur these days the stock market is the mutually selected arena for testing an opponent's strength or administering punishment. Should it turn out, however, that something is "wrong," announcement of the event need not be much longer delayed, because the market has already discounted more than an ordinary event.

There is a pretty general feeling that today's bank statement will be unfavorable. The sub-treasury has gained about $5,500,000 during the week, and it is estimated that the net loss in cash to the banks has amounted to at least $3,500,000. It is not expected that this loss in cash will be overcome by a reduction in loans, although the latter item should be affected to a greater extent this week than for some time past, if the effects of stock market liquidation are to be reflected. Call rates were unchanged at 5 to 6 per cent, and sterling exchange was easier, there being liberal offerings of grain, cotton and loan bills.

The wave of liquidation which swept over the local stock market was more severe than any that has preceded it this month. Every active stock on the list declined, and at the close 24 securities showed net declines for the day ranging from small fractions to 4½ points. The urgency of the selling was all the more surprising from the fact that money was if anything a little easier. The only explanation volunteered by traders was that New York was calling for more margins and something had to be sacrificed here. The heaviest dealings were in National Fire Proofing common, which on sales of nearly 2,500 shares broke to 23½, the lowest price of the year. It displayed little rallying power, and closed at 23⅝, a net loss for the day of 3¼. The directors declared the regular dividend of 1¼ per cent quarterly on the stock on Thursday, and purchases yesterday carry this dividend. The preferred declined to 36½ and closed at the bottom. Westinghouse Electric second preferred was another decidedly weak feature, and on this occasion the decline could not be attributed directly to New York, because no transactions in it were reported on that board. After opning at 99, it broke to 95½, or a half point below the previous low price this week, and closed at 95¼ to 96, a net loss of 3. Westinghouse Airbrake also dropped 3 points on the marketing of a small lot.

Crucible Steel common was active, selling down from 18⅝ to 17⅞ and closing at 18 bid. The preferred stock sold at 83½ to 83⅝ and closed at 83⅜ bid. United States Steel common was active, but closely followed the eastern market, selling down to 35½ and recovering to 36¼ bid at the close. The preferred stock declined from 85 to 83, but closed at 83½ bid. Coal stocks were inactive, but they sympathized with the general weakness, Pittsburgh common closing ½ lower and River preferred at the same decline. Brewing shares continued weak, but were not pressed for sale. Window Glass broke from 50¼ to 49, recovering to 49½ bid.

The bank and trust company group was comparatively neglected. Real Estate Trust declined 4½ per cent to 290½, while small lots of Colonial Trust sold at 580 and 585, a net gain of 10 points. M. & M. National bank declined from 134 to 132½, a decline of 2½. Traders and Mechanics was a point higher at 71.

In the bond list Monongahela Light and Power 5s declined to 106½, River Coal 6s to 111½, and Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Connellsville 5s to 97¾. Brewing 6s were unchanged at 112.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

A. E. Masten and T. H. Robinson have gone east to witness the Princeton football game today.

National Biscuit preferred was quoted ex-dividend of 1¾ per cent yesterday, and Peoples Gas ex-dividend of 1½ per cent.

At the close of the market Mustin bid 50 for 500 shares Window Glass, buyer 30 days, and Miller bid 10 for 500 shares River Coal regular.

The break in National Fire Proofing was ascribed solely to liquidation by holders who probably had something to take care of in Wall street.

The new Rock Island stocks, were among the weakest in the market yesterday, the common breaking from 46¾ to 41 and the preferred from 77 to 71.

The directors of the Laclede Gas Company have declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the preferred stock, payable December 15.

The head of a Philadelphia brokerage house wired: "Don't like the New York market. We may have temporary rallies, but I am looking for a lower level by January 1."

The comptroller of the currency has approved of the selection of the Mellon National bank of Pittsburgh as a reserve agent for the Second National bank of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Columbus Gas, Light and Heating directors have declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent on the preferred stock, payable December 15 to stockholders of record November 25.

Several local brokers reported yesterday afternoon a distinctly easier tone to the money market, ascribed in part to the State Bank and Trust Company call, and in part, to the liquidation in the stock market.

The new Diamond Savings bank will open for business on Monday next in the banking house, corner of Fifth avenue and Liberty street, adjoining the Diamond National bank. It starts with $250,000 capital and $250,000 surplus.

The State bank call comes at a time when there has been heavy checking upon the commercial institutions, reducing deposits considerably below the maximum of the early summer. The savings banks, however, have gained in deposits.

The stockholders of the American Bridge Company of New York have reduced the board of directors from 11 to five members. The following directors have been elected for the ensuing year: Judge Elbert H. Gary, Joshua A. Hatfield, Alfred J. Major, Thomas Murray and Henry Bournonmaker. The directors have re-elected old officials.

The Kentucky Heating Company, a $700,000 fuel gas company, has been absorbed by the Louisville Heating Company, which has exchanged two shares of cumulative 5 per cent preferred stock for each share of the old stock. The new company has $1,600,000 of preferred stock, and the voting power will rest on an issue of common stock the amount of which is not yet known. The shares of the old company paid 7 per cent dividends.

"I executed buying orders today for about $100,000 local securities, and every dollar of it represented purchases outright," said a Fourth avenue broker after the close of the market yesterday. "I look upon that as the best sign we have had this week that stocks are getting down to a basis that is attracting investors. Every day this week I have turned down buying orders from margin traders that I would have been glad to get a few months ago."

The original Boston and Montana stock shareholder who received four shares of Amalgamated for one share of Boston and Montana, and who is still a holder of the new shares received in exchange, finds his Boston and Montana which once had a market value of above $500 a share worth the equivalent of but $218 a share. Prior to its absorption Boston and Montana paid its shareholders $45 a share in annual dividends; the total disbursements up to that time amounting to over $26,000,000. The company now seemingly finds it difficult to pay more than $2 quarterly.

The Bank Clerks' association has placed two tickets in the field to be voted upon at the annual election Monday night. Following are the candidates: President, John C. Scully; Diamond National bank; vice president, James M. Young, Second National bank; treasurer, James K. Duff, Peoples Savings bank; recording secretary, Everett E. Kehew, Keystone bank; corresponding secretary, John E. Rudall, Allegheny National bank; directors, Charles M. Gerwig, Monongahela National bank; Harry W. Gieffer, Union Trust Company; C. D. Berington, Columbia National bank; D. C. Wills, Mellon National bank; Percy D. Beatty, Exchange National bank; William McK. Reed, First National bank; trustees, J. W. Fleming, Farmers Deposit National bank; W. E. Rudall, George B. Hill & Co. The opposing ticket follows: President, Charles S. Lindsay, Iron City National bank; vice president, Edgar V. Hays, Union Savings bank; treasurer, James K. Duff, Peoples Savings bank; recording secretary, S. Clarke Reed, Peoples National bank; corresponding secretary, Thomas M. Jones, Tradesmens National bank; directors, Charles M. Gerwig, Monongahela National bank; Edward A. Young, Western Savings and Deposit bank; Edward P. MacMillan, Enterprise National bank; Robert C. Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The coffee market opened steady, with prices unchanged to 5 points higher, on demand from shorts. Europe and commission houses. For a time prices held steady around initial figures, the demand easily absorbing offerings of local and Baltimore importers. Later there was a halt in the buying movement and a renewal of liquidation by long interests, and values lost their partial advance, closing net unchanged to 5 points lower and easy in tone. The feature of trade was the "switching" out of December and other nearby positions into later options. Total sales reached 60,700 bags, including November, 4.65c; December, 4.65@4.70c; January, 4.75c; March, 4.95c; May, 5.10c; July, 5.25@5.30c; September, 5.35@5.40c.

THREE PURCHASES ARE MADE BY THE PENNSY

P., V. & C. Railroad Buys South Side Property for $22,000---October Building Fell Off 3 Per Cent---Many Small Sales.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is reported to have made two more big purchases of real estate in the Twenty-first ward, and the final papers have been passed in a third sale. The two larger properties sold are those of D. J. Kennedy and Schoenberger, Blair & Co. The former is situated on the north side of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, having a frontage of 356 feet along the railroad and 201 feet in the west side of Dallas avenue. It extends from the railroad to the J. W. Beckett brick yard. The property is improved with two large warehouses used for the storing of building materials, and was sold for about $120,000.

The Schoenberger-Blair plot includes about 100 acres and brought $1,000 an acre or $150,000. The Wilkison farm and the holdings of the National Transit Company adjoin it on the east and the Hartman farm on the west.

The third property, the sale of which has been closed, belonged to R. B. King, and was sold to the Manor Real Estate and Trust Company, purchasing agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for $45,000. The lying plot faces 1,500 feet in the east side of the Beechwood boulevard, extending from Park avenue to Clifford street as laid out, and is 350 feet deep. It is crossed near the west end by Larimer avenue.

Committee Favored New Line.

The Pennsylvania recently completed the purchase of the Leech farm, 75 acres, in Beechwood boulevard, for $150,000, and of the Wilkison farm, adjoining it, for $40,000. The Kennedy tract, bought yesterday, will be crossed by the east Y of the cross town route, and the other properties are wanted for yards. The ordinance granting the railroad the right to build the proposed East End cross town line is still pending in councils, the committee appointed to examine it having reported favorably upon it Thursday evening after it had been liberally loaded with amendments.

The Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston Railroad Company has bought from Anthony M. Lieb the old Joseph Miller property, in the Twenty-fourth ward, South Side, for $22,000. The lot measures 66x114 feet at the northwest corner of Sarah and South Twenty-ninth streets and is irregular.

The deed has been registered in the sale of the Martha C. Shaw property, in the Eighteenth ward, for $30,000. The purchaser is James G. Blaine McCauley, who secured the realty in a street deed. The property measures 58.5x356 feet in the west side of the Morningside road and is to be plotted.

Through the agency of George T. McDonald, R. W. Kerper has sold to Thomas J. Hawkins a 12-room brick house, lot 40x132 feet, in the south side of Baywood street, Nineteenth ward, for $15,000. The property adjoins the site recently bought by Gov. William A. Stone, on which he proposes to build a residence.

General Falling Off of 3 Per Cent.

Reports of building operations in October, compiled by Construction News of Chicago, from statistics received from 24 cities show a decrease of only 3 per cent in the total amount, as compared with October, 1901. To Pittsburgh is the report is somewhat disappointing, as it shows that this city is behind Philadelphia, or fifth place in rank. The race between New York and Chicago is also interesting, as the former city fell off 48 per cent, while the latter made a gain of 37 per cent. New York still leads the list, with a total of 528 points, amounting to $4,445,500, while Chicago permits amount to $4,056,205. Brooklyn keeps third place, Philadelphia's building operations for October totaled $2,196,145, as against $1,379,694 for Pittsburgh. The fact that 1,108 permits were granted in the Quaker city and only 374 in Pittsburgh shows that the building proposed here is relatively of a much better quality than that in Philadelphia. In the 24 cities 7,847 permits were granted during the month, the amount of which was $25,006,308. Sixteen cities showed an increase varying from 2 to 223 per cent, while eight had a loss. Buffalo and San Francisco show the highest increase and Atlanta, New York and Philadelphia the largest decrease in the order named.

Small Building Projects.

Bids are being received by Architect C. M. Barberger on the brick residence to be erected for R. B. Ward in the Grant boulevard, Thirteenth ward. The house will cost about $35,0000.

Architect W. J. Shaw has plans for three brick houses to cost $4,500 each, which he will build for Dr. H. Groth at the corner of Thomas avenue and Dawson street, Bellevue.

D. Goldstein will build a two-story flat to cost $5,000 from plans being prepared by Architects Hodgens & Burns.

Architect S. B. Elsendrath has completed plans for the remodeling of the store building at the corner of Sixth avenue and Sixteenth street, New York, which Spear & Co. of this city will occupy. The improvements will cost $5,000.

Smallman street: A. Z. Byers & Co. sold for J. C. Wilson to Patrick Carr, Nos. 2810 and 2812 Smallman street, two 2½-room brick houses on lot 24x120 feet, for $4,600.

Dinwiddie street: George Schmidt & Son sold for Daniel Makrauer to John M. Graham two lots measuring 20x107x80 feet at the southeast corner of Dinwiddie and Reed streets, Eleventh ward, for $2,600. The buyer will improve with a stable to cost $10,000.

Townsend street: James H. Thompson sold for Annie J. Evans to Isaac Friedman four houses on lot 64x100 feet at the northeast corner of Townsend street and Charles alley, Eighth ward, for $6,200. The property rents for $600 a year.

A Munhall Sale.

Munhall: G. V. L. Wickersham sold to C. W. Morton eight lots in Munhall borough for $25,000.

Elm street: Ida R. Levison sold to Jacob Gottlieb an improved lot 40x120 feet in the south side of Elm street, near Clark street, Seventh ward, for $2,000. The same party bought from Hanna Weinstein an improved lot 20x100 feet, in Roberts street, Eleventh ward, for $2,800.

Gerritt street: James G. Blair sold to Theodore R. Black an improved lot 20x120 feet in the west side of Gerritt street, near Idlewild street, Twenty-first ward, for $3,800.

Soffel street: Mary A. Phillips sold to Conrad Dieter a lot 48x100 feet in the north side of Soffel street, Thirty-second ward, for $800.

Friendship avenue: Isabella McKinley sold to Charles F. Reimann, Sr., an improved lot 20x125 feet in Friendship avenue, Sixteenth ward, for $3,800.

Wyandotte street: Alice E. Hagan sold to Eliza Quinn an improved lot 20x60 feet in the north side of Wampum street, near South Thirty-first street, Twenty-fourth ward, for $2,850.

Hazelwood avenue: George B. Cook sold to Adam Schmeltz an improved lot 25x176 feet in the south side of Hazelwood avenue, Twenty-third ward, for $725.

Many Small Purchases.

Chislett street: John Frazier sold to J. H. Wise a lot 90x100 feet in the west side of Chislett street, near McCully street, Eighteenth ward, for $5,500.

Vickroy street: E. C. Rowley sold for Albion E. Best to Louis Vatz a two-story brick house, lot 21x100 feet, at No. 520 Vickroy street, Sixth ward, for $5,700.

The appointment of building inspection issued the following permits yesterday: Daniel Haggerty, brick dwelling and store room, near Sixteenth street and Penn avenue, Tenth ward, $2,000; George W. Hammer, brick extension to dwelling 400 Rebecca street, Nineteenth ward, $1,000; Pittsburgh Railways Company, alterations and repairs to car barn, West Carson street, Thirty-sixth ward, $1,000.

A permit was issued this morning in Allegheny to the Duff Cement Company for a one-story tank building to be put up at Boquet and Juno street, Second ward, Allegheny, to cost $2,000.

Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The spot demand for both cotton and woolen goods has been slow today, but mail orders have averaged up business. There is no demand for spring fabrics in staples and fancies. Borden bought further quantity of regular print cloths at 3c. Linens are quiet, but firm. Burlaps decidedly firmer. Calcutta advices strong.

POTATO QUOTATIONS STEADILY CLIMBING

Fruit and Produce Trade Need Cooler Weather—Few Price Changes.

Yesterday's operations in the various markets were productive of very few features, and not much in the way of quotable change. There is a steadiness in the different lines of trading, which keeps prices near to the level which has been fixed for most staples since the beginning of the week, and there have not been many disturbances to yields or depress the general tone of the situation.

Hay receipts were fair, and demand was steady. Ilsted quotations ruling in nearly all transactions. Oats are arriving liberally enough to prevent any advancing figures, while there are not sufficient supplies to cause declines. Millfeed holds its own, although bran, while not quotably weaker, is easier. Seed is coming in slowly, but demand is quiet, and the range of prices does not waver. Government crop reports lately made public, are somewhat bearish, especially those on corn and but the local market has not been influenced thereby, and Chicago, with other western centers, has shown considerable firmness in corn for a day or two. While it is claimed that the yield of corn is below the first estimate in quality, the principal complaint being of soft corn, yet it seems certain that the harvest will be a record-breaking one.

Large Trade in Cereals.

With tremendous yields of corn and oats, and a wheat crop which, though less than that of last year, is yet a good one, there should be a large supply of cereal foods, with consequent low prices. The immense competition in these lines will be another factor in keeping quotations down, notwithstanding the fact that only choice graded stock can be used in their manufacture, and this quality is said to be scarce, in spite of the large average yield. The appetite for cereal breakfast foods is constantly growing.

Stocks of cereals are now among the most important in grocery houses, and their purchase for consumption is a considerable item in household economy. For this reason the fine showing made by crop statistics will interest both buyer and seller.

The only change made in grocery prices yesterday was an advance of a ½c in sugars, which is gaining strength daily. Flour, sugar and coffee are all steady, with trade about up to a fair average for the season.

Fruit and Produce Quiet.

The potato market continues to evidence strength, another slight advance occurring in trading, although selling from store is at unchanged figures. Apples are plentiful and easy ,as they will likely continue until trade is satisfied by cooler weather. Spinach is scarce and higher. In all other fruit and produce lines there are unchanged conditions, with quotations maintaining the same level as reported yesterday morning. Trade is quiet, this being a between-seasons time, less active than it would be if it was cold enough to enable dealers to store away winter goods with safety.

The poultry market is steady, quotations being held in places by the scant offerings, receipts averaging less since Monday than the arrivals last week. There are still occasional sales at figures below the market, where sellers are anxious to clean up stock, but quoted figures rule in the average sales.

Butter and cheese are unchanged. Egg quotations are firm, with the same list ruling as has prevailed all week. The scarcity of fresh eggs is scarce, and the weather is too warm to allow any general withdrawal from storage.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Bad weather, strength in corn, with higher markets abroad, and a good export demand, were responsible for the strength in wheat. Trading during the first part of the session was on an enormous scale, but later in the day there was a quieter feeling. A leading bull operator was credited with selling a large line, but it was stated that his buying greatly exceeded his sales. Realizing sales were on a large scale, but the demand was always heavy enough to bring about a rally after a momentary decline. The close was strong and near the top price. Primary receipts were 1,127,000 bushels, compared with 1,187,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 732 cars, which with local receipts of 102 cars, 16 of contract grade, made total receipts for the three points of 834 cars, against 1,083 last week and 882 cars a year ago.

There was a wild scramble to get December corn, and as a result the price went up to 1¾c over yesterday's closing figure during the first half of the session. There was liberal realizing at the advance and a reaction followed, but the close was strong. Wet weather and light receipts, with predictions of continued rains today, caused a stampede among shorts. Local receipts were 151 cars, with only five of contract grade.

Oats were dull and featureless, with prices firm in sympathy with other grains. Close steady. Local receipts were 148 cars.

Provisions were quiet and about the only feature to trading was a fair demand for pork. The strength in grains helped provisions and the close was steady.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 83 cars; corn, 175 cars; oats, 190 cars; hogs, 18,000 head.

The leading futures as corrected by John D. Armstrong & Co., 209 Sixth street, members of Chicago board of trade:

Cranemen's Strike Over.

The strike of the cranemen at the Shoenberger plant of the American Steel and Wire Company was settled yesterday. The men returned to work and all their troubles have been adjusted satisfactorily. The strike threw out 250 men in the open hearth department during the one day it lasted.

Quarterly Police Report.

The quarterly report of the Pittsburgh police bureau, completed yesterday, shows that 7,787 persons were arrested in that time. Of that number 4,093 were arrested in the First district, comprising No. 1 and No. 2 police stations; 937 were taken in at No. 2 district, No. 3 station; 947 were arrested in No. 3 district, Nos. 5 and 6 stations; 401 were arrested at No. 4 district, Nos. 4 and 10 stations, and 879 were arrested in No. 5 district, Nos. 7, 8 and 9 station houses.

Wonderful Growth.

Especially important is the financial statement of the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, contained on another page of this issue. The report shows an increase of $10,000,000 in deposits for the last four years. There are now over 25,000 depositors, and this number has been steadily increasing at the rate of over 1,000 a month. Within the past year the bank has opened 13,411 new accounts. The statement in detail is most encouraging. It speaks for itself. It shows also what can be accomplished in the banking business by adhering steadfastly to a vigorous, though conservative policy. This bank is one of the oldest in the city. It was organized in 1867 and has been steadily advancing year after year.

TARIFF REVISION BOTHERS CANNON

In His Race for Speakership He Is Trying to Steer a Middle Course.

HE MAY NOT SUCCEED

Burton's Candidacy Will Draw Ohio Strength Away from Illinois Man—Payne Doing Similar Injury to His Colleague.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, 601 Fifteenth St., N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.

News comes from the west that an effort is likely to be made by some of the western congressional delegations to make Mr. Cannon declare himself on the question of tariff revision before they pledge their support to his speakership candidacy. The information, however, is that this probably will be difficult, as it is said Mr. Cannon at present is engaged in steering a middle course through the dangerous channel of tariff and trust questions.

It is well known, of course, that some middle west communities are determinedly seeking a revision of some of the alleged excessively high tariff schedules. Republican campaign speakers in the late campaign promised that the Republican party would in due season deal with these high tariff rates, and deal with them along protection lines.

Every attempt to make Mr. Cannon come out flat-footed on the question of revision, since he began his campaign, has proved futile thus far. He has waived the question aside with the remark that his long career in congress states his record and his position. It is assumed that Mr. Cannon's intention is to take a "conservative" stand between the two candidates who are supposed to represent the tariff revision and anti-revision sentiment.

Mr. Babcock is avowedly for revision of some of the alleged over-protected schedules. Mr. Dalzell, while he has not so declared, is regarded as the exponent of the cause of the ultra protectionists. Mr. Cannon, it is said, would be the compromise.

Mr. Cannon's friends claim that he is wise in this course; that he should make no promises, but hold himself free to carry out the policy of the Republican party as it may be outlined for the battle of 1904. An influential section of the Republican party, however, believes that now is the time to begin consideration of tariff revision, and that it should not be postponed until the people have lost patience and have turned, possibly, to another party to smash the machine which they cannot regulate.

But this is not the only obstacle looming up in the path of Mr. Cannon and favorable to the candidacy of Mr. Danzell. The announcement yesterday by Representative Burton of Cleveland that he will be a candidate will deprive the Illinoisan of the support of the Ohio delegation of 17 members that he hoped to get through the work of Representative Grosvenor, while the announcement today that Representative Payne of New York will be in the fight, means a bitter contest between him and Representative Sherman of that state, with the result that both will be withdrawn and the vote of the delegation of 20 members be thrown to Mr. Dalzell, as predicted in The Gazette some time ago. CHARLES W. METZGAR.

RIVAL SITES OFFERED.

Councilman Abbott Puts a New Face on McKeesport Public Building Ground Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Another hitch has developed in the question of a site for the federal building in McKeesport. This morning Secretary Taylor received a telegram from McKeesport, announcing that the additional 1,000 feet required for the Church site could be secured.

A few minutes later Councilman Abbott of that city walked in with a protest against the Church site and an argument in favor of the site at the corner of Olive and Locust streets. Mr. Abbott said he did not wish to be regarded as fighting the Church site, but he did wish that Mr. Taylor should know the exact facts in the case.

Instead of 29 of the 30 councilmen favoring the Church site, Mr. Abbott contended that the Church site is the first choice of only seven out of the 30, but is the first, second and third choices of 29 out of the 30. He had the papers with him giving these figures.

Mr. Taylor promised to take no further action in the matter until Mr. Abbott could present other papers on the subject. To the writer, Mr. Taylor admitted that he regarded both sites as eligible and had not promised to accept either.

PROBING BROTHERHOOD SCHOOL

Commissioner Sargent Will See Whether It Is Fit for Children.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—The appeal of the Cuban children who recently arrived in New York, destined for the Universal Brotherhood school at Point Loma, Cal., but who were detained until the character of the school could be investigated, has reached the treasury department.

Commissioner General of Immigration Sargent is now in San Francisco, and Assistant Secretary Taylor has telegraphed him to proceed to Point Loma and investigate the character of the school. The appeal will not be acted on until Mr. Sargent has been heard from.

NO FEAR OF BOXERS.

Admiral Evans Says Chinese Crops Are Too Good for Rioting.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans has made a report to the navy department of his recent trip up the Yang-tse river in the Helena to investigate conditions in the interior of China.

It was feared at the time that the Boxers were on the verge of an uprising, but Admiral Evans, writing from Ichang, says the abundance of crops indicate a plentiful supply of foodstuffs, and he thinks there is little probability of rioting and other disturbances due to famine.

YOUNG'S ADDRESS DELIVERED.

Not to Business Men, as Reported, but to a Men's Church Club.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—The speech on the army in the Philippines which Maj. Gen. Young was credited with having prepared for delivery at the chamber of commerce banquet here last night, but which he did not deliver there, was not intended for that occasion.

Gen. Young was at the banquet during the early part of the evening, but left to fill an engagement with the Men's club of the Church of the Epiphany, where he delivered the address on the army.

MAY IGNORE COLOMBIA.

If Treaty Cannot Be Concluded Soon, Congress May Authorize Canal Work Without It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Mr. Cromwell, counsel for the Panama Canal Company, called at the state department today and had a long conference with Secretary Hay respecting the next steps to be taken, in view of Attorney General Knox's opinion upon the sufficiency of the canal title, to carry out the transfer of the property to the United States government.

The Spooner act requires a treaty with Colombia to be made before the canal company's property is actually purchased by the United States government; but this treaty is now well advanced toward completion, so that it is deemed proper to consider other measures relating to the French title.

It is also understood that, after a full conference with such senatorial leaders as have been in Washington recently, Secretary Hay has pretty well satisfied himself that if such a thing were desirable, congress would readily amend the Spooner act so as to wipe out the condition that a treaty must precede the purchase. In such case, the canal property having been bought, the United States government would go ahead with the work of construction, leaving the treaty negotiations to follow.

There is now in the hands of Secretary Hay, who is waiting to submit it to the president, a proposal from Colombia suggesting modifications of the treaty which the United States originally proposed. This is being considered, point by point, and there is said to be fair ground for compromise between the two propositions.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

For a Booklover's Library

One of the supposed anomalous things in American life today is the increasing interest in fine books. Theoretically, most foreigners would contend that the commercial spirit of the people would crush out sentiment. But such is far from being the fact, as the sales of books and fine bookcases amply demonstrate.

The Bookcases preferred in the homes of refined Americans are such as have an interest of their own, irrospective of their usefulness. They must be attractive—and what is equally important, they must be up to date.

The beautiful Bookcase pictured above is one of the new things which cause this department to be a source of peculiar interest to all bookish people. It is made of solid oak, and, as the picture shows, is embellished with quaint figures.

This is the store where exclusive styles prevail. But that is not to be wondered at in view of the fact that this is the largest furniture house in the world.

And price is always an inducement at

JOSEPH HORNE CO.

Weather—Fair. Saturday, Nov. 15, 1902.

To Lovers of Quaint Art.

Beginning Monday next, and continuing until further notice, on the 3rd floor, the Hyde Exploring Expedition of Arizona and New Mexico will have on exhibition, as well as for sale, a portion of their superb collection of Indian Goods.

This collection comprises Navajo Blankets, Western Indian Baskets, Pottery, Bead Work and an interesting variety of rare Indian Curios, Decorative Goods, Mexican Drawnwork, Sombreros, Serapes, etc.

A welcome awaits everyone who likes to look at Indian workmanship.

To Amateur Photographers.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, from 2 to 6 P.M., at the Kodak Section of the main floor, a representative of the Eastman Company will give demonstrations with the new Daylight Developing Machine.

Bring along your films and he will develop them for you by this new process, free of charge.

A Window of Beautiful Imported Waists.

If you are down our way any time today, even after dark, have a look at the handsome Waists exhibited in one of our Penn Avenue windows. Their beauty is of that type that will cause you to talk about it.

There are Waists of Chiffon, Crepe de Chine, Taffeta, Peau de Soie and Panne Velvet, all finished in varied effects of the most exquisite handwork.

The collection comprises only Waists that will appeal to women of finest taste, and it fully exemplifies what great steps the Silk Waist Section of the second floor goes to bring the handsomest and most refined Waists to the women of Pittsburg.

Mostly white and black, trimmed with real lace, and some of them with delicate hand embroidery.

The display is one of those rare exhibits that give women an opportunity of discussing both fashion and finery.

Men's Dress Requisites.

Attire, or rather the accompaniments of correct dress, for all of society's functions.

Dress Gloves—white, $1.75 a pair; pearl, $2 a pair.

Dress Ties, 25c and 50c each.

White Silk Scarves, made from finest English Silk, $1.50 and $2 each.

Silk Underwear, from England. The finest is made by George Brettle & Co., and we are direct importers, and sell this finest Underwear at lower prices than you will be quoted for Silk Underwear not nearly so good. Three weights for Winter.

Then we have the Underwear of that other famous English firm, Allen, Solly & Co., of London. We have their silk and wool and their finest lamb's wool.

French Silk Socks as only the French know how to make them. Black Silk, $2.50 to $3.50 a pair; embroidered Silk, $3.50 to $7.50 a pair.

American made black Silk Socks, $1 and $1.75 a pair.

Imported Pajamas, the most comfortable sleeping suit known. Silk, $5 to $12 a suit; madras, $5 a suit; Oxford, $4 a suit.

Men's Linen (seconds) Handkerchiefs.

18c each, $2.00 a dozen.

Seconds mean very little to the buyer—to the manufacturer it has a broad meaning. Where there is a heavy thread, where there is a little defect in the hemstitching, where the Handkerchief is not precisely square—either or all of these, to the maker, means that the Handkerchief has to go into a lot called "seconds."

Unless your eye be one of the keenest, you would never discover any of these little imperfections. Really they amount to nothing. Today these seconds in Men's Handkerchiefs go on sale at the underprice, and there are about 5,000 of them from which you may choose. They are all the finest linen Handkerchiefs ever offered in Pittsburgh for anything like the price—just the kind of hems that men like, neat and narrow.

There is not one in the several thousands but what would sell for 25c, and very many of them are the 35c and 50c grades.

Judging by the way you came after a similar lot we had some 5 weeks ago, cleaning them up in a very few days, we have not the least doubt but what you will quickly come for these.

Men's Shirts to Measure.

We've spent years perfecting made-to-measure Shirts. Perfection can't be reached at a single jump. One must cut, and try and profit by experience.

The fruit of our years of experience is perfection. Every tiny detail in Shirt making is carefully studied, so that we know our Shirts fit well, wear well, are sightly and comfortable. That is all any man wants.

Shirts made after your ideas, as to how they fit you, the one who is to wear them.

Another pleasing feature is the one of prices. They are sure to please you, so much so that you will wonder why you have never before been here.

We make colored Shirts to order for $2 and up to $4.50 each.

We make white Shirts to order for $1.50 and up to $6 each.

Women's Thanksgiving Hats at Great Reductions.

By great reductions we mean that you can come to the Millinery Store on the 3d floor and buy beautiful trimmed Hats around the half price line. Each model Hat or Toque is a beauty of latest date.

$3.50 Hats for $2; $5 Hats for $2.50; $7.50 Hats for $3.50; $10 Hats for $5; $12 Hats for $7.50; $15 Hats for $10.

The sample Hats of that noted New York firm, Phipps & Atchison, are selling for $3.50, $5, $7.50—just half their real value.

French Hats for all occasions—theater, reception, calling, traveling—$22 to $65.

Beautiful white Beaver Hats, trimmed in light blue and garnished with American Beauty Roses, suitable for wear with afternoon dresses, $15, $18 and $20.

For weddings, we have a superb variety of new Flower Hats and elegant Flower Toques.

For elderly women, we are showing a line of refined Bonnets and also a line of very neat Caps. The variety in both is quite large.

Children's Hats in immense assortments—Caps, Tams, Broad Brims—any and all shapes and to match every style of clothing—35c to $5.50.

New Dress Hats for misses and children—real young shapes in the brightest of combinations—$2.50 to $28.

The Artificial Flower Tables contain many bunches at reduced prices. At 10c a bunch, from 25c; at 25c a bunch, from 50c.

Untrimmed Hats in all shapes and colors, at 50c instead of $1.

Perfumes, Toilet Waters and Soaps.
